BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1199, Printer's No. 865, on page 39, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. MORAN.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1199, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and amend the title and the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" by making the present schedules of compensation compulsory upon all employers changing adding to and increasing the schedules of compensation requiring appeals heretofore taken to the courts of common pleas to be filed directly with the Superior Court and conferring jurisdiction upon such court to hear such appeals prescribing and changing certain presumptions and rules of evidence increasing the requirements to be met by employers desiring to be silf-insurers conferring certain duties upon the Prothonotary of the Superior Court and certain powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers and insurance carriers including the cost of administering the workmen's compensation system providing for the payment of compensation system providing for the payment of compensation for certain second injuries and for the rehabilitation of injured employes by the Commonwealth out of moneys required to be paid into the State Treasury by certain employers and insurance carriers in death cases where there are no dependents imposing new and changing certain existing penalties and generally amending clarifying and changing the provisions of said act

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that the attention of the House should be called particularly to this measure, because of its importance. These are the amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act, House Bill No. 1199, possibly one of the most important bills before this Session, because of its effect on industry and because of the interest of the working people who are vitally effected by it. I merely want to take the time of the House to call attention so that the members may understand what is before them.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No" and file my reasons.

Believe bill too drastic for enforcement at this time.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. SHORTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No" and file my reasons.

That I am of the opinion that it goes beyond reasonable limits in some respects and I am convinced that its provisions will impose a serious burden upon industry, which may tend to increase unemployment.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No" and file my reasons.

I am voting "no" on House Bill No. 1199 because it is injurious to both the employer and employe. I am opposed to the life plan of paying compensation.

I oppose compensation on farm and domestic help.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No" and file my reasons.

I vote "No" on House Bill No. 1199 because it provides, inter alia, for "imposing additional duties and liabilities upon employers" and so forth, and this must be reflected to the employes or laborers in such a manner as to be a hardship for them.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. SLOAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No" and file my reasons.

I am voting "no" on House Bill No. 1199 because it is injurious to both the employer and the employe. I am opposed to the life plan of compensation.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. VanALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "No" and file my reasons.

While I am in sympathy with the general purpose of this bill, I believe the proposed amendments are too drastic and too all inclusive for present economic conditions. The majority of farmers and small town industries are operating at little or no profit, therefore, I voted "no" on this Bill.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House preceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1188, as follows:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws four hundred nineteen) entitled "An act to regulate the nomination and election of public officers requiring certain expenses incident thereto to be paid by the several counties and punishing certain offenses in regard to such elections" as amended requiring that bond be filed by political bodies filing nomination papers

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws four hundred nineteen) entitled "An act to regulate the nomination and election of public officers requiring certain expenses incident thereto to be paid by the several counties and punishing certain offenses in regard to such elections" as last amended by the act approved the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-five) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 Nominations of candidates for any public office may also be made by nomination papers signed by qualified electors of the State or of the electoral district or division thereof for which the nomination is made and filed in the proper office as provided in section five of this Blank forms for making such nomination shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and no other form than the ones so prescribed shall be used for such purposes Where the nomination is for any office to be filled by the voters of the State at large the number of qualified electors of the State signing such nomination paper shall be at least one-half of one per centum of the largest vote for any officer elected in the State at the last preceding election at which a State officer was voted for In the case of all other nominations the number of qualified electors of the electoral district or division signing such nomination paper shall be at least two per centum of the largest entire vote for any officer elected at the last preceding election in the said electoral district or division for which said nomination papers are designed to be made Each elector signing a nomination paper shall add to his signature his place of residence and occupation and no person may subscribe to more than one nomination for each office to be filled The signatures to each nomination paper and the qualification of the signers shall be vouched for by the affidavit of at least five of the signers thereof which affidavit shall also state whether or not the poltical party represented by such signers have at that time an active organization in at least six counties and if so shall give the names of at least six of such counties such affidavit shall accompany the nomination paper and with such nomination papers representing political bodies not having active organizations in at least six counties shall also be filed a good and sufficient bond in the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) conditioned upon such political body polling at least two per centum of the entire vote cast for such office or offices for which such political body shall have filed nomination papers and in the event of said political body failing to poll the above required percentage of votes then that said bond shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth Provided That if five of the electors composing any political body making a nomination by nomination papers shall file with the prothonotary of the county in which the nomination paper or papers are to be filed an affidavit setting forth that they have adopted a certain political appellation to designate their policy subject to the limitations of this act regarding the selection of names that thereafter such political body shall have the exclusive right to use the said name or appellation for the election for which such nomination or nominations are made provided that a certificate from the prothonotary setting forth such a compliance with the act be filed with the nomination papers filed by such political body And provided further That if five electors composing any political body as hereinbefore provided shall file an affidavit as aforesaid setting forth that they have adopted a certain political name or appellation to designate their policy for the purpose of making nominations for ward officers or officers to be elected in any ward such affidavit shall give to such body of electors the exclusive right to use the said name or appellation for the nomination of any candidates for any precinct or other subdivision of such ward for the election for which such nominations are made

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1987, entitled

An Act to amend section nine hundred and seven of article nine of the act approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," authorizing citizens to petition the Attorney General to appoint an attorney to supersede the district attorney in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of the bill to explain its provisions?

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the purpose of this bill is to set up an arrangement by which our citizens will have some means of getting protection when there has been an outrage committed upon them after the District Attorney of the particular county or/and the Judge or Judges of the county refuse to take action. Now, to give you an idea of what I have in mind, I will read briefly from an account of a matter that has occurred in Beaver County that I feel will convince you of the justification of this act: "In the recent outrage perpetrated against the colored race four truck loads of innocent negroes were forcibly ejected on a deserted highway on the Greene County line in the middle of a cold winter night, with orders to get out and stay out of Beaver County.'

These people, it seems, were arrested by the local authorities at a boarding house, and when it was found that they did not have the money with which to pay the fine assessed, the county authorities felt that it would be cheaper to the taxpayers to take them out of the community regardless of the rights which they may have under the Constitution.

Then, when the matter was brought to the attention of the District Attorney he would have nothing to do with it, and it was brought to the attention of the county courts, and they likewise would have nothing to do with it.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Governor of the State at that time, who requested the District Attorney to take action and prosecute those who were responsible for the outrage. The result was that the District Attorney refused to take any such action.

Now, the purpose of this bill is that when such an outrage has been committed on any of our people and the District Attorney and the courts refuse to take action, then a petition signed by twenty citizens to the Governor calling his attention to the fact, will authorize and empower him to instruct the Attorney General to make such investigation and prosecute if it is deemed necessary in his judgment, so I feel, members of the House, that this is an important matter and it is needless to go into detail and explain the different sections of the State Constitution that have been violated in this particular instance, and I hope that you will go along with this, because I am sure whatever counties you may come from you would not want such an outrage to be committed on any of your people so, therefore, I would ask you to support this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there isn't any doubt but what an outrage may have occurred, but because an outrage occurs there is no reason why the entire law of Pennsylvania should be changed. When outrages occur and are traceable to persons, you prosecute them but do not change the law. Now, what is the law today? Whenever the President Judge of any county having jurisdiction of a criminal case thinks that the District Attorney should step aside, he requests the Attorney General in writing to come in and supersede the District Attorney. Now, my friend proposes this law to remedy a condition which he has described. The remedy he proposes is this: "When at least twenty citizens of any county by petition declares that any laws have been violated and then request the Attorney General, the Attorney General shall then supersede the District Attorney and come in and prosecute the case.

In Philadelphia county we have a million population. Anybody could go out and in ten minutes make up a petition and have twenty signers to it and forward it to Harrisburg and then supersede the District Attorney in the trial of a case. With our congested trial list in Philadelphia, if a defendant wanted a continuance, all he would have to do would be to have twenty friends sign a petition, come to the bar of the court through some other person and say to the judge, "We are presenting this petition and forwarding it to Harrisburg," and then the District Attorney would be removed from the prosecution of the case and the Attorney General would have to prosecute it.

You can readily see what a weapon for evil the proposed remedy or measure would be and I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman just speaking, I am inclined to think, is endeavoring to confuse the issue by going to an extreme.

I explained, I thought, clearly, that only after the district attorney and the courts of the county refused to take action as would be their proper duties, then and then only is the petition to be presented to the Governor. Now, if such cases are in he process of prosecution or are on the trial list waiting to be prosecuted, there is no excuse for the petition in question, but I feel in all fairness to our citizenship that some means of protection should be provided by law. In this particular case in Beaver county, the reason no doubt that the prosecution did not take place at that point was because the officers of the county were really the perpetrators of this crime and they were protecting themselves and their friends by not prosecuting, and the better citizens of the district have suggested that this law is passed. Therefore, I will ask you in all fairness and sincerity to support this measure.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Reising.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Reising, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman be willing to place this bill on the postponed calendar so that those who may have an objection, because the number is so small, may have the opportunity to present amendments?

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would, only I feel the Senate will probably raise that number somewhat in the form of an amendment, and there will be a chance, therefore, to overcome the objection in the Senate, and I will talk to the Senators with respect to it. I would, therefore, ask that the bill be voted on.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, there is no doubt in my mind that this bill is fair and just.

I personally represented the people of whom Mr. Reising spoke about in January, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, who were shanghaied out of their county, taken one hundred and eighteen miles to the state line of West Virginia and returned in the cold of the night without hats and without coats. I personally went to the district attorney of this particular county and had him tell me that he would take no action. We then came to the Governor of the state and to the Attorney General of the state, but because we had no law whereby we could supersede the district attorney without having the consent of the Attorney General that crime went unpunished, and the only thing we got out of it was to see that those in authority were sent tottering on down the line of political oblivion.

I feel that this bill is meritorious, that this bill is just, and even though there be those who think the number ought to be greater, I ask you to support this bill, because it will correct an evil, which constitutes one of the greatest blots of disgrace upon the state of Pennsylvania. For that reason I ask the members to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I took up the bill with the sponsor and explained to him that twenty persons in Philadelphia merely meant five minutes effort on the part of somebody, and if he wanted to cure an evil he ought to provide in his bill for a substantial portion of the population of a county. In other words, it seemed to me that he ought to provide for one-third of the population of a county or one-fourth of the population of a county. Twenty persons might be all right in a county that had only two thousand inhabitants, but twenty persons in a population of a million and a half is nothing. Therefore, I ask you to vote against this bill.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, upon request I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for and one hundred and eleven members having voted in the affirmative the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1522, entitled:

An Act to amend section fifteen of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and seven) entitled "An act providing when how upon what property and to what extent liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements for the removal of nuisances and for water rents or rates sewer rates and lighting rates for the procedure upon claims filed therefor the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened the distribution of the proceeds of such sales and the redemption of the property therefrom for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessed and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed within six months before the passage of this act and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly" providing for the revival of municipal and other claims by suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default in the same manner as tax claims without the necessity of proceeding to judgment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1109, as follows:

An Act requiring specifications for the construction alteration or repair of public work of the Commonwealth county municipality or other subdivisions of the Commonwealth to contain a provision that the laborers or mechanics employed thereon shall have been residents of this Commonwealth for at least ninety days prior to their employment and prescribing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the specifications upon which contracts are entered into by the Commonwealth county municipality or other subdivisions of the Commonwealth for the construction alteration or repair of any public works shall contain the provision that laborers and mechanics employed on such public works shall have been residents of the Commonwealth for at least ninety days prior to their employment and failure to keep and comply with such provision shall be sufficient legal reasons to refuse payment of the contract price to the contractor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Highways for the purpose of amendment.

On the question,

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you is House Bill No. 1109, Printer's No. 767, entitled, "requiring specifications for the construction of public works" to contain a clause that residents of the Commonwealth for at least ninety days shall be employed. In other words, if they are not here ninety days they are not to be employed on public works.

It seems to me that the bill is very plain, very simple, it needs no explanation, it needs no further study. You can study it immediately and determine whether or not you approve of the policy of letting non-residents of the Commonwealth to be imported into the Commonwealth to take the labor and the work that belongs to the citizens of Pennsylvania.

I ask you to vote down this motion to recommit.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill says that any person employed on public works in this Commonwealth must have been a resident of the State of Pennsylvania for at least sixty days. We realize that most of this money comes from the Federal government, and this bill would result in retaliation from other states. We also realize that in normal times it is very hard to get employes for the State highways, because the people are then working in positions that pay them more money. During this time of depression, however, they can get plenty of laborers but under normal conditions they can't get them. The fact that most of this money comes from the Federal government means that this measure will just result, as I have said before, in retaliation from other states.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, is it not our great problem to put those who are on the relief rolls to work? Is it not our problem to put Pennsylvanians to work first before we put to work non-residents? The money that comes from the National government to Pennsylvania also goes from the National government to the other states. Let the other states look after their residents, but we should look after our residents first. With a relief expenditure of twenty million dollars a month, it behooves us to save our taxpayers and give the work to our own people and remove as many as possible from the relief rolls.

I ask you to vote "no" on the motion to recommit this bill.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize that the purpose back of this bill is good, it is to employ only Pennsylvania residents, but this bill will hurt those in the construction industry and it will also affect the laboring class—I speak especially of skilled laborers and mechanics.

At the present time we have hopes of a large public works program in this State. That program is going to employ a lot of men who are in the construction industry, who will come into this State as well as those engaged in that industry in our own State who will go into other states.

These men have permanent organizations of skilled mechanics that they wish to carry with them. When they come in from another state it would be unfair to ask them to hire only Pennsylvania men, it would be also unfair to ask our men in this industry when they go into another state to leave their men here unemployed and to pick up men in another state who would not possibly be as efficient.

As far as labor in concerned there are plenty of people in the state of Pennsylvania today who are employed in other states. They may lose their jobs and come back here and by the mere fact that they have not lived here for sixty days, they cannot be employed. As the gentleman from Berks said, this money is being provided by the Federal government, and I think it is only fair that since the Federal government is spending this money, men from any state should be entitled to work here.

As far as this State is concerned, all highway projects at the present time have a provision in the specifications that the contractors shall hire men from the locality where the project is located.

I ask you to support this motion to recommit this bill to the Committee on Highways for further consideration.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SOWERS and Mr. MOORE and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this measure is provincialism and praochialism gone mad.

Under the provisions of this act, which contained no prior residence clause, any mechanic who happened to be out of the State, working in his employment, could not return to the state of Pennsylvania and accept employment on a going contract. In that respect it is not an aid but a barrier to Pennsylvania labor.

The serious question that this House faces is whether we are going to draw barriers between the states, interfering with the ordinary flow of occupation and commerce. If we have reached the point where Pennsylvania desires to establish a protective tariff in defiance of the Constitution, then this bill is justified. This measure does not protect anybody but small contractors operating locally, with weak organizations.

The members of the House would do well to bear that fact in mind. provincialism and parochialism gone mad. If you had a tremendously big contract in your county, under the provisions of this act it would inevitably follow that some small contractor operating locally would be the only man in a position to give service.

I hope the House defeats this wholly ridiculous, preposterous measure.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, is laboring under a misapprehension in his definition of the word "resident." I may be a resident of Pennsylvania and may go to Atlantic City for sixty days during the summer on a vacation, but I do not lose my residence. I may go out of the State to work for even a year, but my residence is still in Pennsylvania. My abode may be in another state temporarilly but my residence is still in Pennsylvania. I think my friend is misconstruing the word "resident." I, therefore, again ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, notwithstanding the gentleman's definition of the word "resident" the act says that the resident must have resided in this State ninety days prior to the period of employment. Mr. Speaker, that is not defining the status of a resident. This act is an act locating the location of a resident, and unless the resident has voted in his home state prior to the employment, he could not be employed under this act.

If the gentlement thinks otherwise, he should amend the language of this act, because he is too good a Constitutional lawyer, too good a criminal court lawyer to know that he cannot go into any court on the basis of the language in the present act.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of th House, this bill is very mild in its application and very mild in principle.

We have a member of this House who, not long ago, took a contract in the state of New York for the digging of a well, and it was provided that every one of his employes must be residents of the State of New York. New York will not permit Pennsylvanians to go over there and engage in public works. This bill provides for ninety days, but New York provides for a much longer period. I do not understand why Pennsylvania should not have the same protection, that many, many other states have for their citizens and residents.

I ask the members of the House to think seriously about that word "resident." If you are a resident of Pennsylvania, you are a citizen of Pennsylvania. If you are temporarily absent from Pennsylvania and come back, you are not deprived of your right to vote, and neither will you be deprived, by reason of being absent for a month or a week or two months from coming back to Pennsylvania and going to work in the State in which you are a citizen.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had not intended to say anything on this measure, but in view of the turn that the debate has taken, I do believe that I ought to call to the attention of the members of the House that also in the State of Delaware, you cannot get a job there unless you are a resident of the State of Delaware. Delaware County borders on the state of Delaware. In the lower end of our county we have at the present time many residents, many taxpayers, home owners, who are out of employment and there are people coming in from Delaware and Maryland who work all week, collect their pay on Saturday, and go back down into Delaware and Maryland and spend their pay, and have their families down there while our people in Delaware county are out of work. If Delaware wants to keep our people out, it seems tmoe only fair that we should have some protection for the people of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I also come from a border county, the Maryland line being possibly not more than ten or fifteen miles from my home.

I think that this type of legislation or any type of legislation that accentiates the theory of high provincialism, as does this act, is faulty.

After all, the United States is one unit, and if we establish state barriers, we are only accentuating the differences in state rights and individuals, and it will only tend to disintegrate the unity of the nation to the benefit of the individual states or individual states rights.

I think the majority of this House and the minority should realize what an extension of this theory did bring to the United States and what a further extension of the theory could do. As I have said, we are, after all, one unit.

The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, has cited to you an instance where workers from the State of Delaware ar employed in the State of Pennsylvania and take their money back into Delaware. But does he cite to you any number of instances in which individuals, in Delaware, earning their livelihood in the State of Delaware, come up into the city of Philadelphia, for instance, or come up into Pennsylvania and spend their money here?

When we set up these false economic barriers it is only going to accentuate the differences between the states and tends to disintegrate the government of the United States.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have a great deal of respect for the logical reasoning of the gentleman from York, but his memory must be extremely short, because, a few weeks ago we had before this House a measure that provided for a tax upon foreign trucks coming into Pennsylvania, by which we would set up barriers and ports of entry. If my memory serves me right, the gentleman from York and the gentleman from Cambria supported that measure, which did erect a barrier around the state of Pennsylvania, which did discriminate against foreign owned trucks entering Pennsylvania, while our own trucks at the same time travel the routes in other states.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Delaware is in error. I did not support the port of entry bill, because I knew the port of entry bill was a Pennsylvania railroad bill, disguised as a tax measure and I also knew that the port of entry bill set up arbitrary and unnecessary barriers against the flow of commerce and of trade. I opposed the port of entry bill for the same definite reason and on the basis of the same logic that I oppose this measure.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appreciate the fine logic of the gentleman from Delaware and I appreciate that he has called to my attention possibly an incident of the only kind where I might have been inconsistent. Since the gentleman has commented upon my logic, allow me to explain to the gentleman from Delaware the conclusions, the logical conclusions, that I utilized in differentiating between the two bills.

In the first place, the port of entry bill has imposed on foreigners the same obligations that the residents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have, and, in the second place, this bill does not so do. This bill is an attempt to deprive individuals of their rights to come into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvana and give something constructive to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—their labor, their sweat, their toil, and their creative ability.

In the port of entry bill we were trying to equalize what the foreigners were taking out of Pennsylvania. In this bill we are trying to receive the benefits of what the foreigners will bring into Pennsylvania.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from PhPiladelphia, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if labor has requested the introduction of this legislation?

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, the labor people from my district have asked me to introduce such a measure.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, then it is all right for the gentleman to sponsor the bill. I hardly think that labor as a whole would endorse anything of the kind, because in labor there is a brotherhood, not only in the state of Pennsylvania and in the United States but all over the whole world.

I would like to state that if I were a contractor in the state of Pennsylvania and if the labor in the state didn't suit me, there would be nothing to hinder me from sending to Europe to get my labor. I can send to any civilized country in Europe and bring labor into Pennsylvania.

This legislation would not suit me. The United States government has treaties of friendship with every civilized nation in the world. Our citizens can go to Europe and work in any country there. They are under the laws of that country but as long as they live up to the laws of that country, they have the same rights as the citizens of that country.

There is a brotherhood in labor, and labor does not ask for the passage of this legislation.

We can't put an imaginary wall around the state of Pennsylvania as a barrier against Maryland, New York, and West Virginia, for example. We should be free and labor should be free to go from one state to another.

I ask you to vote against the passage of this bill.

Mr. McDEVITT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have had a very interesting discussion here on Pennsylvania labor and things of that character, but the only thing involved under this bill is the expenditure of government money to be received by Pennsylvania for the purpose of public works. That is the only thing that this bill applies to. Delaware gets money, Maryland gets money, Ohio, New Jersey and New York, and they will spend their money on their people. Let us spend our money on our people. That is the only point involved here; to take care of Pennsylvania's unemployed with government money.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to favor this bill, because I say, Mr. Speaker, it is a very important piece of legislation. We as members of this House must appropriate so much money to meet the requirements of the Federal Government. We also say how this money is to be spent and to whom it goes.

I had specific cases back in my town last week. There were four families who came in from Ohio, and within four days they were working, and people, life long residents of our county, were not able to get work. Is that fair? Neighboring states now have legislation providing for their people. Why shouldn't we? I have that every member of this House will carefully consider his vote and give it deep consideration and vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is no doubt in my mind that if we pass this measure the other states are going to pass similar measures prohibiting our residents from accepting work on public works projects in other states.

I come from the Western end of this State. We are near the states of Ohio and West Virginia as an example of what this measure will do: at the present time, I want to cite to you people the fact that the Federal government has under way a flood control program involving millions and millions of dollars. These projects are practically all located in the states of Ohio and West Virginia. The one in West Virginia is the Tiger Valley Dam involving a great many millions of dollars; the money is being appropriated by the Federal government and this project will take several years before it is completed. If the state of West Virginia says that only residents of West Virginia shall work on this project, it is going to hurt the laboring men in the state of Pennsylvania and similarly if the state of Ohio should pass a bill similar to this measure.

Because of the amount of money involved in these projects in these states, they will come into the state of Pennsylvania to get labor, but if we enact this measure into law we will be working against the interest of the laboring man in Pennsylvania. For that reason I ask you people to defeat this measure.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOORE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that some of the other states apparently have legislation similar to this bill, I am wondering whether the sponsor of it would consent to place this bill upon the postponed calendar, so that amendments may be drawn making it a restrictive measure rather than a mandatory measure.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was introduced on February 21, and referred to the Committee on State Government. The bill was given full consideration in the committee, and reported out, after due consideration, on the floor of the House. I will not commit myself in sending this bill back to committee or putting it on the postponed calendar. I ask the members to vote "yes" or "no" on this bill.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. White, Wall, Baldi, Forrest, Peters, Winner, Tahl, Francis T. Baker, Schrock, Yeakel, Perry, Habbyshaw, Woodside, Shreiner, Surface, Jones, Flynn, James L. Snyder, Cordier, Bernhard, Hart, Castor and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1473, entitled:

An Act imposing a graduated income tax for school purposes on residents of Pennsylvania including fiduciaries and on income of non-residents derived from property or business in Pennsylvania defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof providing for the assessment collection and lien of said tax and for the disposition of proceeds thereof providing for administration and enforcement of the act by the Department of Revenue conferring powers and imposing duties on certain persons partnerships associations corporations school districts State officers employes and departments imposing penalties and appropriating the revenues derived from said tax.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am against this bill, because I do not believe that it supplies the best solution to the problem of affording relief for real estate. I may say at the outset that I favor the principle of this bill.

As I understand the statement of the Administration leaders, the income tax is the only source of tax which will be acceptable for the relief of real estate for school purposes.

We all know that a graduated income tax may very well be declared unconstitutional. If that fact prove to be true, it is important that we obtain the best possible income tax laws for school purposes.

I would suggest to this House that there is another way to attack this problem, which will guarantee to relieve real estate for school purposes, and that is instead of passing a graduated income tax bill, this House should pass a flat income tax bill and at the same time pass an amending act containing the graduated features. In this manner the problem will be put up to the Supreme Court and if they declare the amending act unconstitutional, we will still have the flat income tax which will produce about the same revenue.

I have not heard any of the Administration leaders say what they propose to do if this act is declared unconstitutional, but I have heard almost every member of this House say that there should be some relief for real estate. Now, that can be done in the way I have suggested. Of course, I favor a graduated income tax over a flat income tax, but I favor a flat tax rather than no tax at all.

Prior to the time that this bill was introduced, I introduced two such bills in this House. One of them is House Bill No. 1251 providing for a flat income tax, the revenue of which would go for the relief of real estate, and the other is House Bill No. 1363 which is an amending act containing the graduated features. If the House will consider these two acts, and if the House will pass those acts, we will be sure of relief for real estate.

If we pass this act and it is declared unconstitutional, there is not going to be any relief for real estate. Therefore, I am against this measure because I think there is a better way of approaching the problem.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you, providing for income taxes and the assigning of the money supposedly for the relief of real estate, seems to me to be a misnomer.

I think the bill ought to be entitled, An act to relieve all corporations in this Commonwealth from paying the school tax.

I cannot understand the suggestion or the wisdom of the suggestion of letting the Widener Building in Philadelphia, owned by a corporation, escape paying school taxes and then not paying an income tax, because it has no income. I don't understand the wisdom of the thought of taking a couple of dollars from a real estate owner's property, because it is labeled school tax and then taking the great manufacturing plants in this Commonwealth and taxing them for school purposes when they will say in return "We have no income and we will, therefore, pay no taxes for school purposes."

I say that this bill was conceived in some secret corner for the purpose of enabling the great manufacturing companies of this state to escape the burden they now have of paying school taxes. I hope my friends on the Democratic side will not go along and help these corporations to get out of paying their proper school taxes.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened with interest to the discussion from the members of the minority party.

Mr. Wickersham's objections based upon the idea that this is the graduated income tax with exemptions or deductions, and his idea was to have a straight income tax and a subsequent bill with the exemptions or deductions and graduations.

What would be the result of such a bill? If the Supreme Court should declare the other bill containing the exemptions and the deductions and graduations unconstitutional, then we would have a bill only a flat rate. Who woould this affect? It would affect again the very man you are trying to relieve because it would mean that a married man with an income of $1500 would have a nadditional tax of $30 every year to pay. There is only one way to bring this squarely before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and that is by having in it the exemptions, deductions and graduations and let them once and for all decide whether such a bill is constitutional. If they declare that it is not constitutional, then we surely will know that it is our duty to change the Constitution to make such an act constitutional.

I was very much interested also in listening to the discussion of Mr. Sowers, the gentleman from Philadelphia, in saying that this bill was designed to protect the corporations. There are many revenue measures before this House and before the Senate which will compel corporations to pay a fair share of the expenses of the government and if the minority party is in favor of having the corporations pay their fair share of the expenses of the government, then let them go to the Senate and have the Senate pass those bills.

My friends, this bill is designed to save the small home owner, because I need only to call to your attention the fact that the expense of the school tax is paid by the small home owner in your community as against the money paid by the manufacturing corporations.

I therefore, ask the members of this House to vote for this bill, in order that we may have a final determination upon its constitutionality.

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Van Sickle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Northampton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker, if this act is passed and enacted into law and the Supreme Court declares it unconstitutional, what immediate relief do you propose for real estate?

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Dauphin County, Mr. Wickersham, I will say that it will give no relief but at the same time it will not place an additional burden upon the home owner as would be the case if we had a flat rate.

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that if this bill is declared unconstitutional we will have no relief on real estate during this Session?

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, and also no burden—no additional burden.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act providing for the service of process in civil suits on nonresident operators or nonresident owners or a resident who becomes a nonresident and conceals his whereabouts of aircraft operated within or above the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making the operation of such an aircraft within or above the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the equivalent of the appointment of the Secretary of Revenue of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the agent of the said nonresident upon whom civil process may be served and providing for further notice to the defendant in any such suit

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House signed the same.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN, from the Committee on Cities, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2314, entitled:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair is about to declare a recess until three o'clock this afternoon. The purpose of reconvening at so early an hour is because of the fact that we have some sixty bills on the third reading calendar. We also wish to adjourn early this evening, about five or five thirty, on account of the reception being given by the Governor and Mrs. Earle. The Chair, therefore, requests that the members be in their seats promptly because we will begin roll calls immediately.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

The Committee on Elections will meet immediately after this session in the Conference Room.

The Committee on Public Health and Sanitation will meet immediately after this session in the Conference Room.

The Committee on Judiciary Local will meet at 2:30 P. M. today in Room 325.

The Committee on Public Utilities will meet at 2:30 P. M. today in Room 521.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. PEARSON and HARMUTH.

RESOLUTION No. 140.

In the House of Representatives, April 29, 1935.

Whereas, It appears from experience in other states in the Union that the installation of an electrical roll call system in the legislative bodies of said states has proved entirely desirable and practical; and

Whereas, Because of its large membership, a great part of the time of the Pennsylvania House is taken up in roll calls; and

Whereas, It appears that the installation of an electrical roll call system would not only result in a great saving of time in the conduct of the business in the House of Representatives in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, but would result in a substantial saving of money to the taxpayers of the State; therefore, be it

Resolved, That an electrical roll call system be installed by the Department of Property and Supplies in the chamber of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania before the next Session of the General Assembly, such system to be substantially of the same kind and character as that which has heretofore been installed in the Capitols of Virginia, Wisconsin,

Louisiana, Nebraska, Iowa, Texas, California, and West Virginia, all of which have adopted and installed an electrical roll call system; be it further

Resolved, That an item of appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies, sufficient to pay for the installation of said system, be included in the General Appropriation Bill.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2512, as follows:

An Act staying legal proceedings against banks bank and trust companies and trust companies engaged in a fiduciary business where any such corporation has guaranteed or otherwise obligated itself to pay in cash the amount or value of trust or other funds placed with it for investment and the same have been invested in mortgages or participations in mortgages or in pools or funds of mortgages and suspending the operation of the Statue of Limitations and inconsistent Acts of Assembly

WHEREAS depressed financial conditions have given rise to an economic emergency which is now pending by reason of which it is difficult and in many cases impossible to collect moneys due on mortgages on real estate without causing very serious loss and distress to home owners and other mortgagors and

WHEREAS the General Assembly by Act approved March twenty-seven one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five has extended the provisions of the Act of May eighteen one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three Pamphlet Laws eight hundred twenty-six authorizing the Courts of Common Pleas for a period of two years March thirty-one one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five to prevent the collection of mortgages by stay of execution on judgments entered thereon so that the holders of mortgages while said Act is in force are not able to realize thereon in cash

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same as follows

Section 1 In all cases where any bank bank and trust company or trust company engaged in a fiduciary business has guaranteed or otherwise obligated itself to pay in cash the amount or value of trust funds or other funds deposited or placed with it for investment and such trust funds have been in good faith invested by such bank bank and trust company or trust company in mortgages on real estate participations in mortgages or in pools or funds of mortgages on real estate no suit or other proceeding at law in equity or otherwise including proceedings on exceptions filed to accounts of fiduciaries shall be brought nor shall further proceedings be held on any such suit or proceedings now pending or on any judgment or decree heretofor entered until after two (2) years from the date of this act by any trust trust estate or beneficiary interested in such trust estate to recover in cash either the amount or value of such funds so invested

Section 2 Any court in this Commonwealth in which such suit or proceeding is now pending or may be hereafter brought shall have full power and authority to grant proper stays of proceedings in accordance with the provisions of this Act including stays of execution where any such suit or proceeding has been reduced to judgment

Section 3 This Act shall not affect the right of any trust estate or beneficiary to take or accept the trust investments or securities in kind on the termination of any trust

Section 4 The running of the Statute of Limitations against any claim stayed under the provisions of this Act and also all Acts or parts of Acts of Assembly inconsistent herewith are hereby suspended while this Act is in force

Section 5 This Act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if I read this bill correctly, it is for the purpose of relieving banks. As I understand, it provides that under its terms, if adopted, a minor who comes of age, who has trust funds of which the bank is the trustee and has agreed to pay the money in cash upon the minor's coming of age, and they have the money in fact invested in a mortgage, that under this bill they don't have to pay it over, and you cannot bring a suit against them for two years.

I know there are many cases at the present time where the banks are closed and where the beneficiaries of the trusts are unable to collect anything, but if this passes you will not be able to get it out of the bank at all if they happen to have the money invested in mortgages. I do not believe that this House is prepared to go quite that far. I think that beneficiaries of a will under a trust, where they have agreed to pay it over in cash at the termination of the trust, should be entitled to get what they have been promised, and I see no reason why this House should go as far as this bill goes to relieve the banks. I think it is high time that we tried to protect somebody else. I ask that you vote "no" upon this bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thought that perhaps the sponsor of this bill would defend his own bill. Due to the fact that he didn't, I felt that I could not let it pass without saying something on behalf of the bill. I realize that there is a danger when you are dealing with trust estates, in making any provision to relieve the trustee from his liability to do certain things, but under present conditions where the real estate market is frozen and where it is extremely difficult to liquidate mortgages, it does seem unfair that while we have given a moratorium to the mortgagee by which he can escape payment for a certain time, and by which he can be protected, and where the money is invested in real estate, when ordinarily they would be required to pay in cash at the termination of the trust, that he, under present conditions, refuses to take the mortgage which the bank holds and into which it has invested the money that if this beneficiary demands his money, it becomes extremely difficult for the bank to comply. They must either find some way of selling that mortgage or they must foreclose the mortgage if it is possible for them to do so in order that they may secure the funds.

It is placing many of our banks in a very difficult position. The beneficiary could not profit any more, he must take the mortgage or the proceeds of the mortgage, and if the mortgage is no good he loses unless the trustee has been guilty of negligence or fraud in the use of the funds, and where the beneficiary of the trust refuses to give them time in which they may liquidate the mortgage.

It will be beneficial to our banks and I think it will be beneficial to the depositors in many of our banks, and I do not believe that the beneficiary in many instances would be harmed by a provision of this kind.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to defend this bill. Bill No. 233 was passed by this House, and rightfully so. The bill was sponsored by Mr. Wasserman. It postponed foreclosures of mortgages for a period of two years. This bill does nothing more than give the mortgagee the same right that we gave in this House to the mortgagor, and I would ask that this House vote "aye" on this bill. It was in the Banking Committee, it was studied by the Banking Committee, it was referred to a sub-committee of the Banking Committee and was reported out to this House.

I submitted this for the approval of the Banking Department of the state of Pennsylvania, and it meets with their approval. It also has the approval of the Bankers' Association of the state of Pennsylvania. We are asking nothing more in this bill than you gave to the mortgagor on March twenty-seventh nineteen hundred and thirty-five, and I would ask that this House vote unanimously for this bill.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I submit that this bill is giving a lot more to the banks than you gave to the mortgagors in the bill to which the gentleman has referred. The mortgagor has at least to petition the court to set forth the conditions which make it impossible for him to pay the interest in order to get a stay. This bill does not even protect the beneficiaries in cases where the banks are collecting the full amount of the interest on the mortgages.

There is no provision to separate those cases where they are getting interest and where they are not.

Under this bill if a trust is terminated if a minor came of age, or in any other manner where the bank has the money, has agreed to pay it over in cash but has invested it in their own discretion entirely, and it happens to be invested in a mortgage, no matter how good it is, all that is necessary is for the bank to say "We cannot pay it over." And they keep it. It is one of the broadest measures of the type that I have ever seen, and I feel that it is a piece of very vicious legislation.

I have had a number of cases in the last few years where beneficiaries were entitled to receive trust money.

I know that the courts in cases where the money has been properly invested and where there has not been definite guarantee on the part of the trustees to pay it over in cash, will not require banks to pay it over in cash. They require the beneficiary to accept the investment in kind, but that is not so in cases where the banks have specifically agreed to pay it over in cash. I agree there will be hardships in certain cases, but the hardships if you pass this bill will be much worse.

The question is whether you want to relieve the little beneficiary who may have a few hundred dollars coming to him in the trust or whether you want to relieve the big banks. That is the question.

I have had a number of instances where the facts were that the beneficiary was unemployed and needed the money far worse than the bank in order to keep their families and they go to the relief, and the relief tells them "No, you can't get this money. You can't get relief." Then they go to the bank and the bank says "No, you can't get it from us either."

If you put this bill over it is going to work untold hardship on many thousands throughout this Commonwealth, and just because it is going to work hardship on the bank, I submit that we don't want to pass it. Banks are in better shape to take care of themselves by either refinancing the mortgage or selling it or transferring it in some way. They are in better position to take care of themselves than the little fellow who has two hundred or three hundred dollars, and who has it tied up until the bank is good and ready to pay it over.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you refer to the bill No. 2512, that is before you for discussion, you will find section three, and that at the termination of the trust it can be taken in kind, if so desired. And there is nothing in this bill that can work hardship on any one, but it is only a bill to give the banks the same right as I said before that was given to the mortgagor, and it has a right to take a mortgage in kind or the stocks or bonds in kind, or the investment in kind if they so desire and the interest and the taxes are paid in full. But in case the taxes are not paid the beneficiary in all probability would not take in kind, and it would work a great hardship to the banks throughout the entire state of Pennsylvania, and this is only intended to be of relief for two years.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(i) Is hopelessly and incurably insane

2 When a marriage has been heretofore or shall hereafter be contracted and celebrated between two persons within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity according to the tables established by law it shall be lawful for either of said parties to obtain a divorce from the bond of matrimony in the manner hereinafter provided or

3 If any spouse upon any false rumor in appearance well founded of the death of the other when such other has been absent for the space of two whole years hath married or shall marry again the party who has not married may at his or her return have his or her own marriage dissolved by divorce on the ground of bigamy leaving the other party to remain with the second husband or wife Any such action shall be instituted within six months after such return

Section 12 Annulment of [Bigamous] Void Marriages In all cases where a supposed or alleged marriage shall have been contracted which is absolutely void by reason of one of the parties thereto having a spouse living at the time or by reason of one of the parties thereto having been insane at the time such [the] supposed or alleged marriage may upon the application of either party be declared null and void in accord with the principles and forms hereinafter prescribed for cases of divorce from the bonds of matrimony Provided however That in any case where a person was insane at the time of the marrige and is later cured or recovers from such insanity the spouce of such person shall not thereafter be entitled to a divorce or an annullment of the marriage by reason of such insanity

Section 15 Jurisdiction The several courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth shall have original jurisdiction of cases of divorce from the bonds of matrimony from bed and board and in the annulment of marriages under the provisions of this act The said courts shall have power to grant divorces and to annul marriages notwith standing the fact that the marriage of the parties and the cause for divorce occurred outside of this Commonwealth and that both parties were at the time of the occurrence of said cause domiciled without this Commonwealth and that the respondent has been served with the subpoena only by publication as provided by this act

All petitions or libels for divorce shall be exhibited to the court of the county where the libellant resides except where the husband and wife shall be resident in different counties of this Commonwealth and while so resident a cause of divorce shall arise in which cases the libellant may at his or her option institute and prosecute proceedings either in the county of his or her own residence or in the county wherein the respondent shall be resident and the cause for divorce shall have arisen

Petitions or libels for the annulment of [bigamous] void marriages may be exhibited to the court of common pleas of the county where the marriage was contracted or in the county where either the libellant or respondent resides and in such cases residence of the libellant within the county or State for any period shall not be required

Section 18 Jurisdiction Where Respondent a Lunatic In cases where a spouce is a hopeless lunatic or non compos mentis or is hopelessly and incurably insane the courts of common pleas shall have jurisdiction to receive a petition or libel for divorce in which such lunatic or person non compos mentis or insane is made the respondent but only for a ground provided for in section ten of this act In such cases the said court shall appoint a committee for such person if there is none previously appointed and acting for such person at that time

Section 2 Said act is hereby amended by adding thereto section thirteen to read as follows

Section 13 In any case where children have been born after marriage or after a supposed or alleged marriage even though such supposed marriage is absolutely void under the provisions of this act such children shall be deemed to be children born in wedlock and shall have the same rights and privileges as they would have if the supposed or alleged marriage of their parents was not void by reason of the provisions of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section B, page 6, line 7 by striking out the ords "and shall have the same"

Amend Section B, page 6, lines 8 to 10 by striking out ll of the said lines.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over the printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1826, entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred and forty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by authorizing counties to appropriate money for purpose of controlling and suppressing disease to honeybees

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, Mr. Van Sickle, two questions. The first is what is the purpose of this bill? Why the interest in these money bees; and the second like unto it, why does he think they ought to have their honey in Philadelphia? Why Philadelphia honeybees?

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I realize that the members from Philadelphia have their honey both in Harrisburg and in Philadelphia.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I hope the gentleman will be careful, because I am afraid my wife might be around.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Northampton will please be careful today, especially.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

McKinney,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2194, entitled:

An Act to amend section one hundred twenty-six of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establlish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" making it unlawful for any board of school directors to demand request or accept directly or indirectly any gift or donation from any teacher or supervisor within its employ.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Ruth, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Berks whether this bill would prohibit the reductions in salaries which were effected during the last couple of years, providing the teachers accepted the reduction by giving a donation to the school directly.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, this bill carries out the idea in the present law, which will expire at the end of this biennium, which will prevent school directors from selling their dogs to the school teachers.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2035, as follows:

An Act to amend article fourteen of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by requiring certain children between the ages of sixteen and eighteen to attend school

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That article fourteen of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following new section

Section 1414.1 Every minor between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years having legal residence in this Commonwealth who has not completed the courses of study provided by the school district of which he is a resident is required to attend a public day school in the district of his residence or such other day school as may be approved by the superintendent supervising principal or other head of the public schools of the district Every parent guardian or other person having control or charge of such minor is required to send such minor to such school and such minor shall attend such school continuously while such school is in session Provided That a certificate duly issued by the district superintendent supervising principal or other head of the schools of the district of which a minor between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years is a resident stating that from the school records or other competent evidence submitted to him he is satisfied that such minor has completed the courses of study provided by said school district shall be sufficient proof thereof Provided further (a) That any minor between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years who is regularly engaged in any useful and lawful employment or service shall be excused from school attendance during the time of such employment or service (b) That this section shall not apply to any minor between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years who has been examined in accordance with regulations issued by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction as provided in section fourteen hundred thirteen of this act and has been certified as physically or mentally incapable of profiting by the opportunities provided by the schools of the district in which he resides (c) That whenever upon representation made by the Board of School Directors of any district the Superintendent of Public Instruction is satisfied that the schools of such district do not maintain and are unable to provide the facilities necessary for effectively carrying out the requirements of this section he may after investigation make such modification of said requirements in the case of such district as in his judgment will best serve the interests of the minors concerned (d) That this section shall not apply to any minor who shall have reached the age of sixteen years before the first day of July nineteen hundred and thirty-five

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill tell this House whether or not this measure makes it obligatory upon the pupils between sixteen and eighteen years of age who have not completed their course, to attend school?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill intends to do nothing more nor less than to take care of the boys and girls between the ages of sixteen and eighteen, following up the bill passed here some few weeks ago, the child labor amendment where the ages were raised from sixteen to eighteen, that where the child is not employed and a school district can provide the classroom and the facilities, the child shall attend schools until it reaches the age of eighteen years. If the child is needed at home for services around the home, then the child does not have to attend school. If the child is employed, it doesn't have to attend school after it reaches the age of sixteen, but it tends to keep the children off the streets and to put them into the classroom, where classrooms are provided for them; unless they are employed in some manner.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell us if there any provisions made by this bill or in the bill that would release, or how these pupils would be released from attending school? Is it through a decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the County Superintendent or the teacher in charge of these pupils?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I may say that it is entirely within the scope of the school board. The law provides that the school code shall be enforced by the local school board, if the school boards knows of any child that may be benefited by going to school between the ages of sixteen and eighteen, is not employed but on the streets, they can enforce the law by making that child attend school.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING MR. AND MRS. E. T. DAVIES

Mr. O'NEILL asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1935.

Whereas, Dr. E. T. Davies, member of this House from the Sixth District, Lackawanna County, asked leave of absence earlier this day and

Whereas, Dr. Davies in a spirited race beat the stork to the Hahnemann hospital at Scranton, and

Whereas, Dr. Davies soon after his arrival at said institution was presented with a bouncing baby girl

Therefore be it Resolved, That the House of Representatives congratulate Dr. Davies and Mrs. Davies on the new addition to the Davies household and be it further resolved that William P. Gallagher, chief clerk of the House, be instructed to forward telegraphic felicitations of the House to the proud daddy and happy mother.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1594.

A Supplement to the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Appropriation Acts page one hundred sixty-nine) entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Legislative and Judicial Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for two years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three" providing for deficiencies in certain appropriations for the fiscal biennium ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and for deficiencies to the legislative department for the legislative session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 2512

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I move that vote by which House Bill No. 2512, Printer's No. 862, entitled:

An Act staying legal proceedings against banks bank and trust companies and trust companies engaged in a fiduciary business where any such corporation has guaranteed or otherwise obligated itself to pay in cash the amount or value of trust or other funds placed with it for investment and the same have been invested in mortgages or participations in mortgages or in pools or funds of mortgages and suspending the operation of the Statute of Limitations and inconsistent Act of Assembly was defeated on third reading and final passage today, on page 26, of the calendar, be reconsidered.

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I voted "no".

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Stank, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I voted "no".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Long, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LONG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman what is his purpose of the motion for reconsideration.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the reconsideration motion is in order that the bill may be placed upon the postponed calendar, so that we give it further consideration and study possible amendments.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman what is the nature of the amendment that he has in mind?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of the bill has assured me that he wishes to meet some of the objections which have been raised upon the floor today. He wishes to modify to some extent the effects of the bill. He has not informed me of the specific nature of the changes, but he assures me that they will modify the effects.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he has any objection to holding him motion until the amendments are prepared, so that we may be prepared to vote intelligently on it?

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the withholding of this motion until the amendments have been prepared, would be in effect the same as placing it upon the postponed calendar until we have received the amendments and had them in printed form in the folders so that we can give them consideration and determine whether in effect they do satisfy the objections which have been made.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this motion does not have to be made today. The time limit has not expired. The point raised by the gentleman from Berks is very pertinent. The House should have the opportunity, the members of the House to acquaint themselves with the nature of the proposed amendments, so that we may know whether this offer to reinstate this bill is a drive made by the manipulaters of mortgage pools, who may possibly be interested in this measure.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, ninety-eight members voting in the affirmative and twenty-eight in the negative the question was determined in the affirmativ and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2637, as follows:

An Act imposing duties upon the Department of Health and providing for the furnishing of anti-rabic serum and treatment without charge in certain circumstances

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Department of Health of this Commonwealth shall keep on hand at all times a sufficient and adequate supply of anti-rabic serum

Section 2 Whenever within this Commonwealth any person shall be bitten by or directly exposed to an animal which in the opinion of a licensed and duly qualived veterinarian is afflicted or has the appearance of being afflicted with rabies os is found to have been so afflicted by laboratory examination made in the laboratory of the Department of Agriculture the physician in attendance shall have the right to requisition without formality from the Department of Health sufficient anti-rabic serum for the treatment of such person and the said Department shall with all expediency honor such requisition

Section 3 No charge of any sort shall be made by the Department of Health for such anti-rabic serum if the physician so requisitioning shall within thirty days after the receipt of the serum file with the Department an authenticated statement of a veterinarian or a copy of the laboratory report to the effect that the animal in question was afflicted with or had the appearance of being afflicted with rabies

Section 4 The attendant physician shall file at the same time a bill for all medical services rendered in connection with the treatment of the person so bitten or in contact properly attested by affidavit Upon the approval of such bill by the Secretary of Health it shall be paid by the State Treasurer

Section 5 The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) is hereby appropriated to carry out the provisions of this act

Section 6 This act shall becomme effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say in line with what you said here a few minutes ago on another bill that I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Surface, if he could not furnish samples of this anti-rabic serum.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker, judging from the amount of barking we hear I think we need it.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information tha tthe House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2775 (Senate Bill No. 752), entitled:

An Act requiring applicants for relief to sign a bond conditioned on the truthfulness of his statements and the lack of fraud or misrepresentation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reaeding?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for the purpose of further study and amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the purpose in sending this bill back to committee in view of the fact that it appears to be a most simple bill and also in view of the fact that it has been on the calendar and is now on third reading. I don't want to oppose the motion if there is any good reason for it.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question asked by the gentleman from Philadelphia, I might state that this motion was made at the request of a member not present and here is my understanding although I cannot verify it at this time, that here is another bill in committee somewhat similar to this, and it is the intention of these people to have incorporated in this bill and go before the House with a measure covering both things.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the member is not present may I ask whether the gentleman will agree to change his motion and that the bill be placed upon the postponed calendar in lieu of sending it back to the Committee?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

On the question recurring;

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2121, entitled:

An Act providing for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts in counties of the first class providing for the organization of a board for superintending and managing the drawing and selecting of jurors and prescribing its powers and duties conferring powers and imposing duties and liabilities on the sheriff imposing duties on registration commissions and prescribing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HAGERTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1928, entitled:

An Act providing for the administration of relief to the poor in cities of the first class by the Department of Public Welfare and abolishing existing poor districts therein

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. KILROY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be place upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

C If the Department of Banking disapproves the articles of conversion it shall return them to the Department of State stating in detail its reasons for doing so The Department of State shall immediately give notice to the national banking association desiring to become converted into a bank or a bank and trust company of the action of the Department of Banking and of the reasons therefor as stated to it by that department The decision of the Department of Banking shall be conclusive and not subject to review

Section 1413 Issuance of Certificates of Conversion of National Bank into Bank or Bank and Trust Company Immediately upon receipt of the signed articles of conversion of a national banking association into a bank or bank and trust company from the Department of Banking the Department of State shall file the articles and shall issue to the incorporated institution or its representative a certificate of conversion A copy of the approved articles of conversion shall be sent by the Department of State to the Department of Banking

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask that House Bill No. 2123 go over in its order.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, the purpose of postponing action on this bill?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, we may have an amendment to present tomorrow.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that any amendment they had in mind could have been presented before this. The bill has been out for two weeks, reported out of committee and received two amendments and I object to this bill passing over.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the bill was only laid on the desk today.

Mr. SIMON. But, Mr. Speaker, it was on the desks for the past two weeks.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the sponsor of the bill explain his provisions to the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clinton, Mr. Simon, explain the provisions of the bill?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, there are a lot of provisions to this bill; this is a very long bill; there are very few amendments to this code. If the gentleman from Philadelphia will ask what specific amendment he has in mind I will be very glad to discuss it the best I can.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, how will this bill apply to existing citations out of the Orphans Court?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, it will have no effect whatever.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, wouldn't the citation issued against an existing title or trust company become null and void if this bill was passed?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I think not.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman realize what the effect of merger is in corporation law?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, no, I cannot say that I do, but I do not believe that it will have anything to do with this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman realize that some estates may suffer loss by reason of merger?

Mr. SIMON. No, Mr. Speaker, I do not think they would. I do not see how they could.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman refer to page sixteen, section fourteen hundred? I didn't want him to read the whole bill; I just wanted him to refer to page sixteen. Now, will the gentleman explain to the House the effect on the present law of the amendment, the figure four, when deposited by a corporation or a person, which are required to be secured by law or an order of the court having jurisdiction?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I do not find that on page sixteen.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain to the House what the affiliated companies are?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1935 No. 56

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, May 2, 1935

The House met at 10:00 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rev. Frank W. Ruth, a member of this House, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Thou who art our God and our Father, we come to Thee this morning. We thank Thee for this new day of opportunity. We thank Thee for the rain which brings nourishment and strength to the new life that is all about us. So we pray that Thy Holy Spirit may come into our hearts and strengthen and nourish the life and our feeling of brotherhood and love for our fellow men, so that when our work is finished we may look back upon our pathway of life and feel that we have done the best we could.

We ask it in the Master's Name. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE APPLICATIONS FOR WORK RELIEF

Mr. HALUSKA offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1935.

Whereas, The policy of the administrators of unemployment relief is to refuse work relief to persons except such as are beneficiaries of direct relief; and

Whereas, Many conscientious citizens refuse to become beneficiaries of direct relief, and even though in want, are thus denied work to which they are entitled; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That each city, borough, town and township is hereby urged to form a committee or committees which shall sit for the purpose of hearing applications of persons who are in need of employment and who are not receiving direct relief, and also of persons who are receiving direct relief, and who are able to secure part-time employment in industry, which if amplified with work relief would provide sufficient income to enable such persons to forego direct relief;

Resolved, That such committees shall be constituted as follows:

In each city the mayor of the city shall appoint two members of council, and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the mayor of the city, shall constitute a committee of five. In any city the committee so constituted may appoint sub-committees composed of one member of the committee of five, and other persons by them selected who, in the public interest, will agree to serve without compensation in order to carry out the spirit and intent of this resolution.

In each borough and town the burgess shall appoint two members of the council and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the burgess, shall constitute a committee of five.

In each township of the first class the president of the board of township commissioners shall appoint two township commissioners, and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the president of the board of township commissioners, shall constitute a committee of five.

In townships of the second class, the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the chairman of the board of township supervisors shall constitute a committee of three.

Resolved, That the committees constituted in accordance with this resolution be urged and requested to sit at least one day or one evening each week, to hear applications of persons desiring work relief and who come within the terms of this resolution, and shall have power to issue to persons who are deemed worthy, certificates, furnished by the State Emergency Relief Board, evidencing the belief that the holder thereof is entitled to employment, full time or part time, on any work relief project. No such certificate shall be denied to any person for the reason that he or she is not presently receiving direct relief, and no such certificate shall be issued to any person who in the opinion of any such committee is not entitled to work relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board and its agencies and those entrusted with the employment of persons on work relief projects be directed to cooperate with the committees constituted by this resolution and provide work to the fullest extent for the holders of certificates issued by such committees, and where work is available no such holder of a certificate shall be denied work for the reason that he is not a beneficiary of direct relief, or that he may be employed part time in industry;

Resolved, That no such committee shall hear applications of persons receiving direct relief unless the applicant is able to secure part time employment in industry, and is in need of additional income in order to forego direct relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board shall send such information as may be deemed advisable to each city, borough, town and township in this Commonwealth in order to bring into being the committees contemplated by this act;

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of this House.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk.

RESOLUTION NO. 29

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 29, Printer's No. 917.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 22, 1935.

Memorializing the President of the United States and the Congress to approve an Act to fix the minimum age for Old Age Pension or Security at sixty years.

Whereas, Persons now past forty-five years of age find great difficulty in obtaining employment and especially so because labor saving machinery has in effect dispensed with their services in the economic system of production, and

Whereas, It is only right and proper that labor saving machinery having dispensed with their services should in turn bear the taxation necessary to secure to them the right to live, therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania if the Senate concur that the Federal Government be memorialized to fix the minimum age for Old Age Pension at not greater than sixty years, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Speaker and the Chief Clerk of this House to the President of the United States, the Vice-President, and the President of the Senate, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to all the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

An Act authorizing cities of the third class to appropriate moneys out of general revenues to pay bonds and obligations issued by such cities for the payment of the costs of a public improvement which were to rest alone for their security upon payment of assessments for benefits

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever heretofore any city of the third class has in good faith issued bonds or other obligations for the payment of the costs of a public improvement on the assumption that such bonds were not debts of the municipality within the meaning and intent of article nine section eight of the Constitution for the reason that such bonds or obligations were to be secured or are to be secured by assessments against property benefitted by such improvement and were to rest alone for their security upon payment of such assessments such cities are hereby authorized to appropriate moneys out of the general revenues for the purpose of calling in and paying such bonds in their order of priority notwithstanding the fact that the corporate authorities of the city failed either in whole or in part to comply with the laws of the Commonwealth providing the method of incurring and increasing its indebtedness Provided however That the amounts appropriated from time to time be left within the discretion of the proper city authorities

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Cities for the purpose of further study.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1772, as follows:

An Act to amend sections ten twelve and fifteen of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred thirty-seven) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" prescribing additional grounds for divorce and providing for the annulment of additional void marriages requiring the court to appoint a committee for insane respondents and providing that children born after a supposed marriage shall be deemed to be born in wedlock even though the marriage is annulled

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections ten twelve fifteen and eighteen of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred thirty-seven) entitled "An act affecting marital relations prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 10 Grounds for Divorce from Bond of Matrimony

1 When a marriage has been heretofore or shall hereafter be contracted and celebrated between two persons it shall be lawful for the innocent and injured spouse to obtain a divorce from the bond of matrimony whenever it shall be judged in the manner hereinafter provided that the other spouse

(a) At the time of the contract was and still is naturally and incurably impotent or incapable of pro-creation or

(b) Has knowingly entered into a second marriage in violation of the previous vows he or she made to the former spouse whose marriage is still subsisting or

(c) Shall have committed adultery or

(d) Shall have committed wilful and malicious desertion and absence from the habitation of the injured and innocent spouse without a reasonable cause for and during the term and space of two years or

(e) Shall have by cruel and barbarous treatment endangered the life of the injured and innocent spouse or

(f) Shall have offered such indignities to the person of the injured and innocent spouse as to render his or her condition intolerable and life burdensome or

(g) Shall have procured the marriage by fraud force or coercion and which has not been subsequently confirmed by the acts of the injured and innocent spouse or

(h) Shall have been convicted as principal or as accessory either before or after the fact within or without this Commonwealth of the crime of arson burglary embezzlement forgery kidnapping larceny murder either in the first or second degree assault with intent to kill voluntary manslaughter perjury rape robbery sodomy buggery treason or misprision of treason and be sentenced to imprisonment for any term of two years or more by a competent court having jurisdiction or

(i) Is hopelessly and incurably insane

2 When a marriage has been heretofore or shall hereafter be contracted and celebrated between two persons within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity according to the tables established by law it shall be lawful for either of said parties to obtain a divorce from the bond of matrimony in the manner hereinafter provided or

3 If any spouse upon any false rumor in appearance well founded of the death of the other when such other has been absent for the space of two whole years hath married or shall marry again the party who has not married may at his or her return have his or her own marriage dissolved by divorce on the ground of bigamy leaving the other party to remain with the second husband or wife Any such action shall be instituted within six months after such return

Section 12 Annulment of [Bigamous] Void Marriages In all cases where a supposed or alleged marriage shall have been contracted which is absolutely void by reason of one of the parties thereto having a spouse living at the time or by reason of one of the parties thereto having been insane at the time such [the] supposed or alleged marriage may upon the application of either party be declared null and void in accord with the principles and forms hereinafter prescribed for cases of divorce from the bond of matrimony Provided however That in any case where a person was insane at the time of the marriage and is later cured or recovers from such insanity the spouse of such person shall not thereafter be entitled to a divorce or an annullment of the marriage by reason of such insanity

Section 15 Jurisdiction The several courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth shall have original jurisdiction of cases of divorce from the bonds of matrimony from bed and board and in the annulment of marriages under the provisions of this act The said courts shall have power to grant divorces and to annul marriages notwithstanding the fact that the marriage of the parties and the cause for divorce occurred outside of this Commonwealth and that both parties were at the time of the occurrence of said cause domiciled without this Commonwealth and that the respondent has been served with the subpoena only by publication as provided by this act

All petitions or libels for divorce shall be exhibited to the court of the county where the libellant resides except where the husband and wife shall be resident in different counties of this Commonwealth and while so resident a cause of divorce shall arise in which cases the libellant may at his or her option institute and prosecute proceedings either in the county of his or her own residence or in the county wherein the respondent shall be resident and the cause for divorce shall have arisen

Petitions or libels for the annulment of [bigamous] void marriages may be exhibited to the court of common pleas of the county where the marriage was contracted or in the county where either the libellant or respondent resides and in such cases residence of the libellant within the county or State for any period shall not be required

"Section 18. Jurisdiction Where Respondent a Lunatic In cases where a spouse is a hopeless lunatic or non compos mentis, or is hopelessly and incurably insane, the courts of common pleas shall have jurisdiction to receive a petition or libel for divorce in which such lunatic or person non compos mentis or insane is made the respondent, but only for a ground provided for in section ten of this act. In such cases, the said court shall appoint a committee for such person if there is none previously appointed and acting for such person at that time.

Section 2 Said act is hereby amended by adding thereto section thirteen to read as follows:

Section 13 In any case where children have been born after marriage, or after a supposed or alleged marriage, even though such supposed marriage is absolutely void under the provisions of this act, such children shall be deemed to be children born in wedlock

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 6, 1935 No. 57

SENATE

MONDAY, May 6, 1935.

The Senate met at nine o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father, may life mean more to us than mere existence—may it mean more than the accumulation of fortunes and estates—may it mean more than the attainment of education and culture—may it mean more than the building up of moral character and the gaining of a reputation for honesty and square dealing with our fellow men. Make us to realize the possibility of attaining unto all these and yet missing the goal Thou hast set for us.

Thy standard is, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord thy God is our God, and thou shalt love Him with all thy mind and all thy heart and all thy strength; and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

God first, then our fellow men, self last. Search our hearts, O God, and if we are not making Thy plan for us our plan for ourselves, forgive us and remake our lives so that they measure up to Thy ideals and merit Thine approval.

Bless this the Senate of our beloved Commonwealth in its deliberations and decisions at this time. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mr. SONES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITIONS

PROTESTING AGAINST ANTI-SABBATH LEGISLATION

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate petitions from various churches and organizations throughout the State protesting against anti-Sabbath legislation.

Mr. PRINCE presented petitions signed by hundreds of residents of Cumberland County favoring the administration's pending tax programme.

Which were referred to the Committee on Finance.

INFORMATION FURNISHED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication:

May 1, 1935.

To The Senate of Pennsylvania:

On March 25, 1935 the Senate adopted a Resolution requesting certain information from the Secretary of Revenue.

A spot check has been made of the records of this Department. On the basis of this check the estimate of the various items on attached schedule has been based. It is impossible to make a detailed check because it would require months to complete the same.

If I can furnish any additional information in behalf of the Secretary do not hesitate to call upon me.

Respectfully yours,

M. Clyde Sheaffer,
Deputy Secretary of Revenue,
For H. Edgar Barnes,
Secretary of Revenue.

MEMORIALIZING PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND CONGRESS TO FIX MINIMUM AGE FOR OLD AGE PENSION OR SECURITY AT SIXTY YEARS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 23, 1935.

Whereas, Persons now past forty-five years of age find great difficulty in obtaining employment and especially so because labor saving machinery has in effect dispensed with their services in the economic system of production, and,

Whereas, It is only right and proper that labor saving machinery having dispensed with their services should in turn bear the taxation necessary to secure to them the right to live, therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the Federal Government be memorialized to fix the minimum age for Old Age Pension at not greater than sixty years and, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be transmitted by the Speaker and the Chief Clerk of this House to the President of the United States, the Vice President, and the President of the Senate, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to all the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection. The Resolution will be referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 6, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I beg to transmit a telegram received tonight from Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins. The telegram follows:

May 6, 1935.

"Hon. George H. Earle,
Governor of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pa.

"Appreciate your desire to co-operate with the Federal Government in meeting needs of unemployed Must advise that even though Legislature passes tax measures which would at some future date provide Pennsylvania's share it will be necessary that an amount of at least three million per month must be made available immediately as a condition for any further grants with the understanding that this is to be increased up to a total of sixty million for the year as tax receipts progressively increase.

(Signed) HARRY L. HOPKINS."

Mr. Hopkins' telegram is pursuant to a conference held in his office at Washington on Thursday, May 2, attended by a sub-Committee of the Senate, the State Relief Administrator, and the Governor.

At that conference, the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator stated that Pennsylvania, beginning May 15th, must contribute $5,000,000 a month in cash toward the present approximate $20,000,000 cost of unemployment relief; or, in place thereof, must enact a $60,000,000 tax program specifically earmarked for unemployment relief for the ensuing year.

Mr. Hopkins at the conference made the further statement that in the event of the enactment of a $60,000,000 unemployment relief tax program, that such a program must insure a "substantial monthly cash contribution for unemployment relief. His present telegram, quoted above, fixes $3,000,000 in cash as Pennsylvania's initial monthly minimum contribution for unemployment relief under any tax program to be enacted by the Legislature, with further monthly cash contributions to be graded upward until $60,000,000 has been contributed by the State for the full year.

Inasmuch as present unemployment relief funds will be entirely expended on May 15th, and as but nine days remain until that date, I beg to call your attention to the urgency of the crisis which confronts our 1,750,000 unemployed, needy men, women and children now on unemployment relief rolls.

Again, Gentlemen of the Senate, I appeal to your humanity for immediate action in this situation, so that we may avert a complete breakdown of unemployment relief on May 15th in this Commonwealth.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

The PRESIDENT. The communication from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth will be made a matter of record in the Official Journal, and is referred to the Committee on Finance for their information.

If on the date named in said notice such objections have not been removed to the satisfaction of the said Insurance Commissioner or the society does not present good and sufficient reasons why its authority to transact business in this Commonwealth should not at that time be revoked he may revoke the authority of the society to continue business in this Commonwealth

Section 26 (Statement not Made Public) Pending during or after an examination or investigation of any society either domestic or foreign the Insurance Commissioner shall make public no financial statement report or finding nor shall he permit to become public any financial statement report or finding affecting the status standing or rights of any such society until a copy thereof shall have been served upon such society at its home office nor until such society has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to answer any such financial statement report or finding and to make such showing in connection therewith as it may desire

Section 27 (Revoking License) Before the Insurance Commissioner shall refuse to license any foreign society or shall revoke its authority to do business in this State he shall furnish to such society a concise statement of his reasons for such proposed refusal or revocation and give notice of a time and place of hearing at which such society may show cause why a license should be granted to it or why the license granted to it should not be revoked as the case may be

Upon request made to the Insurance Commissioner by such society he shall issue subpoenas to summon such witnesses as the society may desire to summon and upon the filing of a petition by such society duly verified by oath showing that the testimony of certain persons named therein is competent and relevant to the issues to be heard by the Commissioner and that such persons are outside the State of Pennsylvania he shall appoint a suitable person duly qualified by law to administer oaths as a Commissioner to take the testimony of such persons at such place or places specified in the petition as the testimony of such witnesses may be obtained Such testimony shall be taken upon oral examination and cross examination or upon written interrogatories and cross interrogatories as the Insurance Commissioner may determine and when so taken shall be reduced to writing and certified to the Insurance Commissioner by the Commissioner so appointed and shall be made a part of the record of such hearing before the Insurance Commissioner The cost of issuing said subpoenas shall be paid to the Commissioner by the society

Any notice of hearing required by this Act shall be sufficient if sent by registered mail addressed to the society or to its president at its principal office in its home state territory province or country A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the Insurance Commissioner at any hearing and all testimony taken at such hearings shall be reported stenographically and the completeness and accuracy of the record shall be certified by the Insurance Commissioner

All decisions rulings and findings of the Insurance Commissoiner made under this Act together with a statement of his reasons therefor shall be reduced to writing and filed society by registered mail addressed to the society or its President at its principal office in its home state territory province or country and the action of the Insurance Commissioner shall be reviewable upon appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County in the following manner

Any society aggrieved by any decision ruling or finding of the Insurance Commissioner may file within thirty days thereafter in the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County a petition against the Commissioner officially as defendant alleging therein in brief detail the action and decision complained of and praying for a reversal thereof Thereupon a summons shall issue returnable in ten days and shall be served with a copy of the petition upon the Insurance Commissioner On or before the return day the Commissioner shall file an answer in which he shall allege by way of defense the grounds of his decision He shall also on or before the return day of such summons certify to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers Such record shall include the testimony taken thereon the findings of fact and conclusions if any made by the Commissioner based upon such testimony a copy of all notices and statements of reasons issued and served by the Commissioner in the proceedings and a copy of the decision ruling or finding of the Commissioner with his statement of reasons which the petition calls upon the court to reverse The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the Commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as part of the costs in the case to be paid as directed by the court upon the final determination of the case

Upon the filing of the Commissioner's answer the case before the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County shall be at issue without further pleadings and upon application of either party made thereafter the case shall be advanced and heard without further delay Mere technical irregularities in the procedure of the Commissioner shall be disregarded

Such appeal or other proceeding for review shall be a supersedeas and in every case the said decision order or ruling of the Insurance Commissioner shall be suspended and abide the final determination of the appeal or other proceeding for review

The case shall be heard upon the record certified to the Court by the Commissioner Additional testimony shall not be taken by the Court but the Court may in proper cases remit the record of the Commissioner for the taking of further testimony

From the decision of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County an appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania as in other cases

In the case of any appeal or other proceeding for review heretofore taken from the decision of the Insurance Commissioner refusing to license any such society or revoking its authority to do business and now pending and undetermined in any Court of this Commonwealth the Court may take an appropriate order remanding the decision ruling or finding appealed from the Insurance Commissioner with directions to proceed in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the making of such order shall restore the status of the appellant society as it was before the making of the decision ruling or finding appealed from

Section 28 (Annual Statement) Every society transacting business under this Act shall annually on or before the first day of March file with the Insurance Commissioner in such form as he may require a statement under oath of its President and Secretary or corresponding officers of its transactions for the calendar year ending December thirty-first preceding and of its condition and standing on that date and shall include therein all accrued liability under unpaid claims where notice was received by the society at its home office before the end of such calendar year No society shall be required to include in such report any claim or claims notice of which has not been received by the society at its home office before the end of such year It shall also furnish such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working The Commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society

Section 29 (Valuation Report) In addition to the annual report herein required each society shall annually report to the Commissioner a valuation of its benefit fund obligations in force on December thirty-first last preceding excluding those entered into within the year for which the report is filed in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current expenses Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation at not more than four per cent interest less such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and as contingent assets the present mid-year value at the same rate of interest of the future net contributions provided in its Constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected

In lieu of the above valuation any society at its option may show the net value of its benefit fund obligations subject to valuation at the rate of interest as hereinbefore provided and said net value when computed in the case of monthly contributions may be the mean of the terminal value for the end of the preceding and of the current certificate years from which said tabular values shall be deducted such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies

Each valuation report shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary or at the request and expense of the society verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the home state of the society and shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner on or before the first day of April succeeding the submission of the last preceding annual report

The minimum standard of valuation for death benefit fund obligations shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality hereinbefore referred to or at the option of the society by any other standard table or a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with an interest assumption of not more than four per cent

Every valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep a separate account of the same in its said valuation report shall charge as a liability the balance to the credit of such fund or funds at the date of such valuation Where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent and total disablity benefits the valuation may be of death benefit only and in such case a separate accounting shall not be required

A report of such valuation with such explanations as the society may deem advisable shall be printed and mailed to each beneficial member of the society not later than July first of each year or in lieu thereof may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficial member of the society

Section 30 (Valuation Accumulation Basis) In lieu of the valuation hereinbefore required any society may value its certificates on a basis herein designated "accumulated basis" by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the net rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year herein designated "cost of insurance" and carrying the balance if any to his credit The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society as applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member

Unless specifically provided in its constitution or laws no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit If after the first valuation any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit including the contributions for the year the contributions shall be increased to cover his share of the losses

Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contributions especially created or required for such purpose Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on transfer shall be entitled to take such application to his credit as provided in the laws of the society Certificates issued rerated or readjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumption for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth shall be valued on such basis herein designated the "tabular basis" Provided that if on the first valuation under this section a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year the deficiency may be met for years from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied in the society as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified by its laws

If the laws of the society so provide the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separate for such class as if an independent society and the required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be merged with the assets of other classes of the society

A table showing the credits to individual members for each year and age of entry and showing opposite such credits the tabular reserve required in the whole life or other plan of insurance specified in the contract according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and adopted by the society shall be filed by the society with each annual report and also be furnished to each member before July first of each year

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for the transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract No table or statemene need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis For this purpose individual bookkeeping for each member shall not be required and all calculations may be made by actuarial methods

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis and the reserves on the tabular basis as any society may provide by or pursuant to its laws nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner as expressed in its constitution and laws

Section 31 (False Statements) Any person or officer member or examining physician of any society authorized to do business under this Ace who shall knowingly or wilfully make any farse or fraudulent statement or representation in or with the reference to any application for membership or for the purpose of obtaining money from or benefit in any society transacting business under this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days or more than one year or both in the discretion of the Court

Any person who shall wilfully make a false statement of any material fact or thing in a sworn statement as to the death or disability of a certificate holder in any such society for the purpose of procurring payment of a benefit named in the certificate of such holder in any such society for the purpose of procurring payment of a benefit named in the certificate of such holder and any person who shall wilfully make any false statement in any verified report or declaration under oath required or authorized by this Act shall be guilty of perjury and shall be proceeded against and punished as provided by the statutes of this Commonwealth in relation to the crime of perjury

Section 32 (Unlicensed Society Soliciting Members) Any society or person who shall solicit membership for or in any manner assists in procuring membership in any fraternal benefit society not authorized to do business in this Commonwealth shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars and any society so violating the provisions of this Act shall be denied by the Insurance Commissioner a license or right to do business within this Commonwealth

Any society officer agent or employee of any society neglecting or refusing to comply with or violating any of the provisions of this Act the penalty for which refusal or violation is not specified shall upon conviction thereof be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than one year or both at the discretion of the Court

Section 33 (Spreading False Statements) Any person who publishes spreads or communicates or causes to be published spread or communicated any false statement or rumor concerning any fraternal benefit society operating under the provisions of this Act for the purpose of inducing any member to cancel his certificate therein or withdraw therefrom or with the intent to lessen the value of any such certificate shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail for not less than sixty days nor more than one year or both at the discretion of the Court

Section 34 (Societies Exempted) Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to affect or apply to grand or subordinate lodges of purely social or labor organizations nor to societies which limit their membership to any one hazardous occupation nor to domestic societies which limit their membership to a particular religion or to the employees of a particular city or town designated firm business house or corporation nor to domestic lodges orders or associations of a purely religious charitable and benevolent description which do not provide for a benefit of more than three hundrede dollars to any one person in any one year

And this Act shall not be construed to affect or apply to similar societies which do not issue benefit certificates nor to an association of lcal lodges of a society now doing business in the Commonwealth which provide death benefits not to exceed five hundred dollars to any one person or disability benefits not exceeding three hundred dollars in any one year to any one person or both nor to any contracts of reinsurance business on such plan in this Commonwealth But any society conducting an insurance branch and issuing certificates and paying death benefits of more than five hundred dollars such insurance branch of that society shall comply with the provisions of this Act

Any society heretofore organized and now actually operating in this Commonwealth which limits its membership to the members of one or more fraternal orders which said members are required to have been proposed elected by ballot initiated and obligated through subordinate lodges under prescribed ritualistic ceremonies shall be regarded as hereby complying with the requirements of this Act as to subordinate lodges and the admission of members therein and shall upon compliance with all other provisions of this Act be deemed a fraternal benefit society operating on the lodge system and entitled to a license as such hereunder

Section 35 (Societies Paying Accident Benefits only Licenses) Any fraternal benefit society heretofore organized and incorporated and opening within the definition set forth in section one of this Act providing for benefits in case of death or disability resulting solely from accidents but which does not ogligate itself to pay death or sick benefits benerally may be licensed under the provisions of this Act and shall have all the privileges and shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act except the provisions requiring valuation of benefit fund obligations and that the certificate shall specify the amount of benefit

Section 36 (Beneficial Societies Exempt) Beneficial societies other than those specifically exempted herein without ritualistic work or a representative form of government transacting any class of insurance shall not be required to comply with this Act All such societies or associations shall on and after the passage of this Act file with insurance Commissioner copies of their charter constitution and laws and annually thereafter make a report in such form as the Commissioner may require showing their conditin and standing on the thirty-first day of December preceding and of their transactions for the year and the Commissioner may at any time make an examination of the books and accounts of any such society

Section 37 (Change of Location of Principal Place of Business) Any fraternal society within this Commonwealth may change its principal office or place of business to any other place within this Commonwealth A notice that such location has been changed shall be filed by the Secretary of the society under the corporate seal in the Prothonotary's office in the County to which said office or place of business has been removed in the Prothonotary's office in the county from which said office has been removed in the office of the Insurance Department and in the office of the Department of State ten days before the change shall take effect

Section 38 (Notice Required for Agreement with the Beneficiary) No contract between a member of a fraternal benefit society and his beneficiary that the beneficiary or any person for him shall pay such member's assessments and dues or either of them shall give the beneciary a vested right in the benefit certificate or in the benefits or deprive themember of the right to change the name of the beneficiary or revoke the certificate if any issued by the Association provided that such change or revocation be done by written or printed notice to the association in the manner and form provided by its by-laws Provided also that in the event of any contract between the member and a beneficiary a copy of such contract in writing shall be delivered to the home office of the society forthwith If no such copy of the said contract is delivered as above stated and the society in good faith pays the named beneficiary it shall be released from and further liability

Section 39 (Disappearance) No proceeding in any Court of this Commonwealth whereby a person is adjudged a presumed decedent under existing laws shall be binding upon any fraternal benefit society nor shall such finding by any court be offered in evidence as presumed decedent in a later proceeding against the society unless thirty days notice of such proceeding is given to the hame office of such fraternal benefit society of the time and place of such hearing and opportunity given to said fraternal benefit society to appear in such proceedings as intervenor if it so elects

The seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifeenth, sixteenth and seventeenth sections of the bill were read as follows and agreed to:
Section 7 For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of tax payable under this act it shall be the duty of every donor or donee liable to pay such tax on or before the fifteenth day of March of each year to transmit to the department upon a form prescribed prepared and furnished by the department a return under oath or affirmation of all gifts with respect to which tax is imposed by this act made by him during the preceding calendar year Such report shall contain such information as the department may require
The failure of any person liable to tax under the provisions of this act to receive or procure a return form shall not excuse him from making a return
Section 8 The department shall originally assess the tax imposed by this act on the basis of the return duly made Promptly after the date of such original assessment the department shall give or send by mail or otherwise a notice thereof to the taxpayer If the taxpayer is dissatisfied with the original assessment so made he may petition for a reassessment in the manner hereinafter provided
Section 9 If any person liable for or believed by the department to be liable for any tax under the provisions of this act shall fail or refuse to file a return in the manner and within the time prescribed by this act the department shall make an estimated assessment against him The department shall promptly thereafter give or send by mail or otherwise notice of such estimated assessment to such resident At any time within thirty (30) days after notice of such estimated assessment is so given or sent such person may file a return under oath or affirmation with the department and if the department is satisfied that such return is correct and includes all gifts made taxable under the provisions of this act or that such person made no taxable gifts within the period covered by such estimated assessment it shall assess the tax if any on the basis of the return so made together with a penalty of ten per centum of the amount of tax with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the time such property should have been returned to the date of assessment and shall cancel the estimated assessment Any resident against whom an estimated assessment is made who shall fail or refuse to file a return in the manner and within the time provided in this section shall have no right to appeal therefrom or to petition for a reassessment and in any suit for the collection of a tax so assessed shall not be permitted to set up as a defense that he made no gifts made taxable by this act within the period covered by such estimated assessment or any other matter of defense whatsoever if a return is filed before an estimated assessment is made but not within the time required by this act a penalty of ten per centum shall be added to the amount of property so returned and the tax assessed on the basis thereof with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the time such property should have been returned to the date of assessment.

Section 10 If any person shall fail to include in any return all of his gifts made taxable by this act within the period covered by such return the department shall make an additional assessment against such person of the amount of tax due with respect to such omitted gifts together with a penalty of ten per centum of such amount and interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the time such gifts should have been returned to the date of assessment Promptly thereafter the department shall give or send by mail or otherwise notice thereof to such resident if such resident is dissatisfied with the additional assessment so made he may petition for a reassessment in the manner hereafter provided

Section 11 An additional assessment or estimated assessment as heretofore provided may be made by the department at any time within ten (10) years after any gift made by any person should have been returned by him for taxation notwithstanding he shall have paid a tax assessed on the basis of returns previously made or filed and notwithstanding the department shall have made previous additional or estimated assessments against such resident In any such case no credit shall be given for any penalty formerly assessed and paid

Section 12 Any resident against whom any original assessment or additional assessment is made may petition the department for a reassessment prior to the time the amount becomes due and payable to wit within thirty (30) days after notice of such original assessment or additional assessment is given or sent by the department to the taxpayer as provided in this act The department shall hold such hearings in each county as may be necessary to hear and determine petitions for reassessment at such places and at such times as may be determined by rules and regulations of the department and each petitioner who has duly filed a petition for reassessment shall be notified by the department of the time when and the place where such hearings shall be held All such petitions shall set forth specifically and in detail the grounds upon which it is claimed the original or additional assessment is erroneous or unlawful and shall be accompanied by an affidavit under oath or affirmation certifying to the correctness of the facts stated therein

If such petitioner is dissatisfied with the action of the department on his petition for reassessment or if any person against whom an estimated assessment is made and who has duly thereafter made a return as heretofore provided is dissatisfied with the refusal of the department to assess the tax on the basis of the return so made and to cancel the estimated assessment he shall have the right to appeal to the court of common pleas of the proper county at any time within thirty (30) days after notice of such action or refusal is given to him by the department If any person shall fail to file a petition for reassessment within the time and in the manner herein set forth or to appeal to the court of common pleas within the time and in the manner herein set forth the right to do so shall be forever barred and any such person so failing shall not thereafter be permitted in a suit for the recovery of such tax to set up any ground of defense which might have been determined either by the department or the courts of common pleas as aforesaid In all cases of petitions for reassessment and appeals the burden of proof shall be on the petitioner or appellant as the case may be and every appeal to the court of common pleas under this section shall specify all the objections to the assessment and any objection not specified in the appeal shall not be considered by the court

Section 13 All taxes penalties and interest resulting from any original or additional assessment made by the department shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after notice of such original or additional assessment is given or sent by the department as heretofore provided if no petition for reassessment is taken or within thirty (30) days after notice of the determination of such petition if no appeal is taken All taxes penalties and interest resulting from any estimated assessment made by the department shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the time within which a return may be made in such cases if no return is made and thirty (30) days after notice of the assessment made on the basis of such return is given or sent as heretofore provided if such return is made and the tax assessed on the basis thereof

Section 14 The tax imposed by this act shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the date such tax is due and payable until paid except that any tax found due as the result of an appeal to the court of common pleas or any appellate court shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date the tax was originally due and payable until paid Any balance finally found due by the department as a result of a reassessment shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the time such amount was originally due and payable until paid

Section 15 (a) All taxes imposed under this act together with all penalties and interest shall be considered a public account after being assessed in the manner prescribed in this act and as such shall be a lien upon the franchises and property both real and personal of the person against whom the same are assessed after the same has been entered and docketed of record by the prothonotary of the county where such person's franchises or property are situated

(b) The department may at any time transmit to the prothonotaries of the respective counties of the Commonwealth to be by them entered of record certified copies of all liens for taxes imposed by this act and penalties and interest upon which record it shall be lawful for writs of scire facias to issue and be prosecuted to judgment and execution in the same manner as such writs are ordinarily employed

Section 16 (a) The department is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe adopt promulgate and enforce rules and regulations relating to any matter or thing pertaining to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act and the collection of taxes penalties and interest imposed by this act

(b) The department or any agent authorized in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books papers and records of any donor or donee as the case may be in order to verify the accuracy of any return made or if no return was made to ascertain and assess the tax imposed by the third section of this act Every such person is hereby directed and required to give to the department or its duly authorized agent the means facilities and opportunity for such examinations and investigations as are hereby provided and authorized The department is hereby authorized to examine any person under oath concerning any property which was or should have been returned for taxation and to this end may compel the production of books papers and records and the attendance of all persons whether as parties or witnesses whom it believes have knowledge of such property The procedure for such hearing or examination shall be the same as that provided by The Fiscal Code relating to inquisitorial powers of fiscal officers

Section 17 (a) Any person required to pay tax by this act who shall fail neglect or refuse to make the return and pay the tax penalties and interest imposed by this act or who shall refuse to permit the department or any agent appointed by it in writing to examine his books records and papers pertaining to gifts taxable under this act or who shall make any incomplete false or fraudulent return or who shall attempt to do anything whatsoever to avoid a full disclosure of the amount or value of gifts taxable under this act or to avoid the payment of the whole or any part of the tax penalties and interest due shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) and costs of prosecution or imprisonment for not more than one (1) year or both

(b) Whenever any person acting for or on behalf of the department shall in good faith institute legal proceedings for any violations of the provisions of this act and for any reason shall fail to recover costs of record such costs shall be a charge upon the proper county as shall such costs in the event defendant is imprisoned for failure to pay fine or costs or both and shall be audited and paid as are costs of like character in said county

The eighteenth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 18 Except as otherwise provided by the Constitution all taxes interest and penalties that shall be received recovered paid or collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the State Treasury through the department and shall be expended only for unemployment relief purposes and for such purposes are hereby appropriated

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPLICATIONS FOR EMPLOYMENT ON STAFF OF STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly during this session has been laboring for many weeks to enact an emergency tax program to provide funds for the State Emergency Relief Board, which combined with Federal funds, are to be used to continue unemployment relief and thus relieve human suffering, and

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board recently received thousands of applications from various sections of the Commonwealth for the positions of Junior Visitors so that this force could be augmented to provide better control of relief expenditures and relief employment, and

Whereas, Last week these applications were checked over by the personnel department of the State Emergency Relief Board, and a large percentage of those applying have been notified that their applications have been rejected for various reasons, most of which were claimed to be due to having insufficient education and experience, and they were therefore not given even the opportunity of taking the written examination held May fourth (4th), and

Whereas, It was admitted under oath by the State Emergency Relief Board Personnel Director, at a hearing in Harrisburg last week, that applicants are not considered unless, in addition to being high school graduates, they have at least three (3) years schooling in the sacred profession of social service, or three (3) years experience in social service work, as a paid member of the staff of a recognized agency, in this most sacred fraternity which is enjoying an era of abundant prosperity while the remainder of our people are enduring poignant suffering either because of their necessity for relief or the overwhelming burden of taxation, or both, and

Whereas, This same Director of Personnel testified further to the effect that the required experience must have been acquired in teaching, public health nursing, boy scout or camp fire girl activities, social settlement work, etc., and that even though the applicant may have many years of experience either in operating his own business, or in being identified with commerce and industry, thus being equipped with generally recognized experience and good common sense, such experience, good common sense, and mature judgment is not recognized as acceptable background to take the examination for admittance to the sacred fraternity of social service adherents who, by their own admission and activities, are hoping to build up the State Emergency Relief Board into a permanent well paid organization exclusively for members of the social service cult, and,

Whereas, Many Members of the General Assembly, during the past few days, have received and heard complaints that many of their constituents, who, being in need of employment to provide needed income in their families, and possessed of good general experience, common sense and mature judgment, but lacking social service experience or education which is demanded as hereinbefore stated, have been arbitrarily rejected without an opportunity for examination or personal interview, and

Whereas, Practically every Member of the General Assembly and especially those who are conducting investigations of relief activities in various sections of the Commonwealth are cognizant of the fact that the majority of present relief visitors are too young and lacking in general experience and mature judgment, and that by far the majority of these visitors and a large number of other State Emergency Relief Board administrative employes throughout the Commonwealth are members of wealthy families, or are at least members of families having very comfortable incomes from other sources, and

Whereas, Early in April in the face of almost complete suspension of works relief and threatened suspension of direct relief, and while His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, Members of the General Assembly, and other high officials, were sweating blood in an attempt to enact a tax program to keep thousands of families from starving, increases in salaries, ranging in some instances as high as forty-five (45) percentum, were made effective to these same visitors and administrative employes of the State Emergency Relief Board, which, as discovered by the Area four (4) Legislative Investigating Committee, will mean an increase in administrative cost in Area four (4) alone of over Twenty-one thousand ($21,000) dollars per annum, or an increase of nineteen and four tenths (19.4) percentum, affecting ninety (90) per centum of the employes, and

Whereas, This same scale of increase has probably become effective throughout the Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board be immediately directed to

(A) Withhold all further employment of visitors and administrative personnel until all applications on file now or hereafter received, including all those received and accepted or rejected for the May fourth (4th) examination, have been carefully scrutinized by a committee in each County consisting of four (4) persons of recognized general business experience, good common sense, and mature judgment, but devoid of the prevalent social service complex. Two members of each such committee to be appointed by the Governor and two by the Judge of the Common Pleas Court in each County. Said committee shall determine by scrutiny of applications, preparations and grading of examinations where necessary, personal interview, and by all means need for employment in the family, who shall be eligible for employment by the State Emergency Relief Board. Said committee in each County shall select its chairman by a majority vote, three (3) members shall constitute a quorum, all matters shall be decided by a majority vote of those present, the committee shall meet at least once a week for the above purpose and each member shall receive five (5) dollars per week while so serving. Said committee in each County shall be furnished with necessary stenographic help and other service and expenses to carry out its functions by the local office of the State Emergency Relief Board, and when necessary said committee shall have the power to appoint other citizens of the County to serve in various needed capacities and such service by these citizens shall be rendered gratis. Said committee in each County shall within sixty (60) days after appointment carefully scrutinize all present or future administrative employes and visitors on the basis of qualifications and need for employment in their families and recommend whenever advisable.

(B) Prepare a blank form for the purpose of securing from all employes including present and future administrative employes, visitors and all other employes not on relief, a statement of facts, under oath, as to the income from every other source in the employe's family. This statement to be given with the application in the future and to be provided to the said committee in each County by all present employes within fifteen (15) days after appointment of said committees.

(C) Immediately remove any and all salary increases of administrative employes and visitors which have become effective since the opening day of this session of the Legislature, January first, Nineteen hundred thirty-five, and be it further

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three (3) Members of that Body, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three (3) Members of that Body, who, with the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board serving as a member and chairman, shall constitute a committee of seven to pass upon all future salary increases or changes and all other matters pertaining to the State Emergency Relief Board administration. Five (5) members of this committee shall constitute a quorum, and be it also further

Resolved, That the General Assembly will pass during this session necessary legislation to carry out the various phases of this resolution and other matters necessary to see that all money expended by the State Emergency Relief Board is used to provide relief and employment in the greatest possible amount only to those families and individuals in need of help.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires that concurrent resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I move that the Senate concur in this resolution.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I have in my hand a letter addressed to the local office of the Emergency Relief Board in my territory. I have a fistfull of such letters in my office back home. This letter is addressed to a perfectly worthy candidate for one of these applications. I have not the remotest idea what the political affiliations of this particular man are, but I know he is a man of good common sense, and his name is apparently deliberately changed in the letter addressed to him; and in other letters in my office exactly the same situation exists. They answer these gentlemen, and in some cases ladies, and tell them they are ineligible for this examination,—and change the names of the addressees; for what purpose I do not know.

Now, I think it is high time that there should be some curb put on the activities of this group of self-styled supermen in the hiring and firing employees of this agency. There are these fiscal problems that the Commonwealth is facing today, and then we have this effort on the part of this organization to make large increases in their staff and in their employment—when we, tonight, do not know where any of the money to pay these people is coming from; and I cannot too strongly urge upon this Senate the adoption of this resolution.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, one of the most important and agitating questions before the people of this Commonwealth today is "Whither are we tending?"— and this problem is not confined alone to Pennsylvania but is national in its scope.

A few days ago the able Senator from Dauphin discussed, in an elaborate manner, one phase of this great question, and as I attempt to disclose another of its aspects I do so with a spirit devoid of personal criticism, realizing, as I do, the urgent necessity for open and sincere discussion of all public matters.

Many years ago a sturdy and industrious people from beyond the Atlantic settled upon the virgin soil now embraced within the territorial limits of the present State of Pennsylvania. They found here a land covered with magnificent and valuable forests, a soil of unusual fertility, a natural and intricate system of rivers and waterways, capable of being utilized for agricultural, commercial and manufacturing purposes; and above all, they found a climate conducive to health and happiness, and, in turn, to progress and success.

Time brought new discoveries, and, as the vast and extensive mineral deposits of the State were developed, firms and corporations came into being with such incalculable rapidity that an agricultural State was soon transformed, to a great degree, into a commercial and manufacturing center, where wealth and power were created to an extent unparalleled in the history of the nation. This expansive and successful commercial development resulted primarily from the wealth of natural resources placed here by a wise and just Creator for the use and comfort of His people. From among His people came mighty men of intellect endowed with the power to organize and direct. From among His people likewise came mighty men of brawn endowed with the physical power to execute the most exacting and burdensome orders. These two classes of men, working together, developed the natural wealth of this State, and in so doing brought into being one of the greatest and most extensive commercial systems the world had ever known.

During this era of advancement, men devoted to their work gave themselves unreservedly to their cause. Courageous men penetrated into the bowels of the earth to remove therefrom the precious minerals; men subjected themselves to the intense heat of the furnace in order to prepare commodities for trade; men went forth, by water and by rail, carrying the commodities of Pennsylvania to all parts of the nation and the world. Thus, these two classes of men worked together, in harmony and peace, for the mutual and unselfish advantage of all; and growth and progress accompanied their every activity, and no one lacked the necessaries of life.

But a time came, and that within the memory of us all, when selfishness and greed crept into our great commercial enterprises, engendering distrust, suspicion and hatred, with the most demoralizing and destructive consequences. In some of our great corporations an example of this nefarious practice was seen in the action of certain executives on the inside, through salaries and bonuses, setting aside to themselves enormous and appalling sums, to the great injury of the faithful stockholder and employe. These same unworthy executives, assisted in many instances by Wall Street, unscrupulously and wrongfully manipulated corporate securities so as to draw in the faithful employee and the unwary investor, loading upon them watered securities of little value and taking in exchange the hard-earned savings of a lifetime. These and other similar shady activities practiced by many corporate executives brought down upon them censure and hate from a provoked public, and produced for labor and the investor a just ground for criticism and attack. The baring of these atrocious practices hastened greatly the collapse of public faith, and by 1930-1931, business was struggling as never before to save itself from utter destruction. It was at this juncture that a great and courageous American people became fully aroused. They had not fully forgotten the wise words of the philosopher, that all power is in the people. With a broad exercise of this power they elevated to the Presidency of the United States a man in whom they had faith, a man whom they believed would restore hope and confidence to a patriotic yet deluded people. Their hope was realized. He has restored confidence. He has done more; he has stopped bank failures, he has curtailed those unwise and dangerous operations of Wall Street; he has brought labor and capital closer together; he has relieved distress; he has fed the hungry; he has clothed the naked; he has brought about a recovery in business, creating for our firms and corporations greater profits than they have received for years; and, about all, his unselfish devotion to the cause of the American people will shield him from all mercenary attempts to harm and destroy him. Let any attack him that will; so long as he faithfully and conscientiously labors for the salvation of his people, he need fear no evil.

Recently, in Pennsylvania, the people elected a Governor because they had faith in him and his promises. He is now our Governor.

He is attempting, in a sincere and unselfish way, successfully to guide our afflicted people upward and onward to higher and better standards of life. The people fully understood how enormous is the task attempted, and with faith and fervor of spirit are patriotically cooperating with their Governor to solve these troublesome problems of State. Among his unpleasant duties is the charge of taking care of our unfortunate fellowmen. He realizes that it is a moral duty to feed and clothe them. He likewise knows that a hungry people is a dangerous people; and, knowing these things, he attempts to care for them. No one can truthfully question his integrity or sincerity of purpose. Partisan politics are now forgotten as he attempts to make provision for the care and maintenance of our unemployed and neglected brethren. They must be assisted; they must be helped back; their faith in American ideals must be nurtured and preserved.

To reach this end we all are duty bound to lend our unselfish and unrestricted support. Party lines must vanish; we must work together to save our people from misery and want, and our State from internal strife and discord. With this achieved hope and courage will again return to our people, and blessings from above will be Pennsylvania's reward for this noble service.

For revenue to carry on this humanitarian work and other worthy causes and governmental functions our Governor has offered to this Assembly a tax program. True, it may not be perfect. No program for raising money by taxation is ever perfect. This program has been criticised, as all tax measures are. But a careful study of the plan as a whole convinces us of its equitable nature and assures us that no one will be seriously injured thereby. This program has been before this Assembly and the people of Pennsylvania for some considerable time. We have reluctantly held back and shied away from the unpleasant duty of enacting into law a tax program. Out of this delay there are rising from far and near in Pennsylvania murmurs of dissatisfaction and discontent. The people want this question settled. We must meet it. Let us then at once attack it like men. Let us throw off for the present selfishness and prejudice, and dispose of this serious problem with a spirit of devotion to our people and our State. Let us work in harmony together. Let us keep the faith. Let us sustain hope. Then the tendency shall once more be upward; gloom and despair shall disappear; and our people, encouraged and inspired, shall save our State and our nation for greater grandeur.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, May 6, 1935

The House met at 9:00 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Herbert P. Beam, Pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, creator and sustainer of life, we come into Thy presence tonight acknowledge our complete dependence upon Thee and invoking Thy divine blessing upon this Assembly. Apart from Thee, we can do nothing. In Thee we live and move and have our being. Give us, Oh Father, such a vision of Thyself, that we shall have the desire to do justly, to love kindness and to walk humbly in Thy presence. Help us to know Thy Will. Give us courage and strength of heart to do Thy will, recognizing the fact that when we do Thy will, we are ever a constant source of blessing to our fellow-men. Give us keen, penetrating minds, that we shall be enabled to unravel the tangled problems of our present day world. Give us warm, receptive, sympathetic hearts, hearts which are responsive to the cry of human need. May our responses to these crys be of such a sort that at the conclusion of our earthly careers, we shall hear the voice of Thy Son saying unto us: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one, the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me; enter into the joys of the Lord." Keep us, pray Thee, oh Father, faithful and loyal unto the Highest, to the very end of our being, that we shall receive the crown of life which has been promised us. This petition we offer unto Thee, in the name of Christ Jesus, our Lord, Thy Son, who perfectly revealeth Thee unto us. Amen.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

EMPLOYMENT OF EMPLOYES OF STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF

Mr. MOOMAW offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly during this session has been laboring for many weeks to enact an emergency tax program to provide funds for the State Emergency Relief Board, which, combined with Federal funds, are to be used to continue unemployment relief and thus relieve human suffering, and

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board recently received thousands of applications from various sections of the Commonwealth for the positions of Junior Visitors so that this force could be augmented to provide better control of relief expenditures and relief employment, and

Whereas, Last week these applications were checked over by the personnel departments of the State Emergency Relief Board, and a large percentage of those applying have been notified that their applications have been rejected for various reasons, most of which were claimed to be due to having insufficient education and experience, and they were therefore not given even the opportunity of taking the written examination held May fourth (4th), and

Whereas, It was admitted under oath by the State Emergency Relief Board Personnel Director, at a hearing in Harrisburg last week, that applicants are not considered unless, in addition to being high school graduates, they have at least three (3) years schooling in the sacred profession of social service, or three (3) years experience in social service work, as a paid member of the staff of a recognized agency, in this most sacred fraternity which is enjoying an era of abundant prosperity while the remainder of our people are enduring poignant suffering either because of their necessity for relief or the overwhelming burden of taxation, or both, and

Whereas, This same Director of Personnel testified further to the effect that the required experience must have been acquired in teaching, public health nursing, boy scout or camp fire girl activities, social settlement work, etc., and that even though the applicant may have many years of experience either in operating his own business, or in being identified with commerce and industry, thus being equipped with generally recognized experience and good common sense, such experience, good common sense, and mature judgment is not recognized as acceptable background to take the examination for admittance to the sacred fraternity of social service adherents who, by their own admission and activities, are hoping to build up the State Emergency Relief Board into a permanent well paid organization exclusiyely for members of the social service cult, and

Whereas, Many Members of the General Assembly, during the past few days, have received and heard complaints that many of their constitutents, who, being in need of employment to provide needed income in their families, and possessed of good general experience, common sense and mature judgment, but lacking social service experience or education which is demanded as herein before stated, have been arbitrarily rejected without an opportunity for examination or personal interview, and

Whereas, Practically every Member of the General Assembly and especially those who are conducting investigations of relief activities in various sections of the Commonwealth are cognizant of the fact that the majority of present relief visitors are too young and lacking in general experience and mature judgment, and that by far the majority of these visitors and a large number of other State Emergency Relief Board administrative employes throughout the Commonwealth are members of wealthy families, or are at least members of families having very comfortable incomes from other sources, and

Whereas, Early in April in the face of almost complete suspension of works relief and threatened suspension of direct relief, and while His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, Members of the General Assembly, and other high officials, were sweating blood in an attempt to enact a tax program to keep thousands of families from starving, increases in salaries, ranging in some instances as high as forty-five (45) percentum, were made effective to these same visitors and administrative employes of the State Emergency Relief Board, which, as discovered by the Area four (4) Legislative Investigating Committee, will mean an increase in administrative cost in Area four (4) alone of over Twenty-one thousand ($21,000) dollars per annum, or an increase of nineteen and four tenths (19.4) percentum, affecting ninety- (90) per centum of the employes, and

Whereas, This scale of increase has probably become effective throughout the Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board be immediately directed to

(A) Withhold all further employment of visitors and administrative personnel until all applications on file now or hereafter received, including all those received and accepted or rejected for the May fourth (4th) examination, have been carefully scrutinized by a committee in each County consisting of four (4) persons of recognized general business experience, good common sense, and mature judgment, but devoid of the prevalent social service complex. Two members of each such committee to be appointed by the Governor and two by the Judge of the Common Pleas Court in each County. Said committee shall determine by scrutiny of applications, preparations and grading of examinations where necessary personal interview, and by all means need for employment in the family, who shall be eligible for employment by the State Emergency Relief Board. Said committee in each County shall select its chairman by a majority vote, three (3) members shall constitute a quorum, all matters shall be decided by a majority vote of those present, the committee shall meet at least once a week for the above purpose and each member shall receive five (5) dollars per week while so serving. Said committee in each County shall be furnished with necessary stenographic help and other service and expenses to carry out its functions by the local office of the State Emergency Relief Board, and when necessary said committee shall have the power to appoint other citizens of the County to serve in various needed capacities and such service by these citizens shall be rendered gratis. Said committee in each County shall within sixty (60) days after appointment carefully scrutinize all present or future administrative employes and visitors on the basis of qualifications and need for employment in their families and recommend whenever advisable.

(B) Prepare a blank form for the purpose of securing from all employes including present and future administrative employes, visitors and all other employes not on relief, a statement of facts, under oath, as to the income from every other source in the employe's family. This statement to be given with the application in the future and to be provided to the said committee in each County by all present employes within fifteen (15) days after appointment of said committees.

(C) Immediately remove any and all salary increases of administrative employes and visitors which have become effective since the opening day of this session of the Legislature, January first, nineteen hundred thirty-five, and be it further

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three (3) Members of that Body, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three (3) Members of that Body, who, with the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board serving as a member and chairman, shall constitute a committee of seven to pass upon all future salary increases or changes and all other matters pertaining to the State Emergency Relief Board administration. Five (5) members of this committee shall constitute a quorum, and be it also further

Resolved, That the General Assembly will pass during this session necessary legislation to carry out the various phases of this resolution and other matters necessary to see that all money expended by the State Emergency Relief Board is usd to provide relief and employment in the greatest possible amount only to those families and individuals in need of help.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROPRIATION FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 6, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I beg to transmit a telegram received tonight from Federal Emergency Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins. The telegram follows:

"Hon. George H. Earle,
Governor of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pa.

"Appreciate your desire to co-operate with the Federal Government in meeting needs of unemployed Stop Must advise that even though Legislature passes tax measures which would at some future date provide Pennsylvania's share it will be necessary that an amount of at least three million per month must be made available immediately as a condition for any further grants with the understanding that this is to be increased up to a total of sixty million for the year as tax receipts progressively increase.

(Signed) Harry L. Hopkins"

Mr. Hopkins' telegram is pursuant to a conference held in his office at Washington on Thursday, May 2, attended by a sub-Committee of the Senate, the State Relief Administrator, and the Governor.

At that conference, the Federal Emergency Relief Administrator stated that Pennsylvania, beginning May 15, must contribute $5,000,000 a month in cash toward the present approximate $20,000,000 cost of unemployment relief; or, in place thereof, must enact a $60,000,000 tax program specifically earmarked for unemployment relief for the ensuing year.

Mr. Hopkins at the conference made the further statement that in the event of the enactment of a $60,000,000 unemployment relief tax program, that such a program must insure a "substantial" monthly cash contribution for unemployment relief. His present telegram, quoted above, fixes $3,000,000 in cash as Pennsylvania's initial monthly minimum contribution for unemployment relief under any tax program to be enacted by: the Legislature, with further monthly cash contributions to be graded upward until $60,000,000 has been contributed by the State for the full year.

Inasmuch as present unemployment relief funds will be entirely expended on May 15, and as but nine days remain until that date, I beg to call your attention to the urgency of the crisis which confronts our 1,750,000 unemployed, needy, men, women and children now on unemployment relief rolls.

Again, Gentlemen of the Senate, I appeal to your humanity for immediate action in this situation, so that we may avert a complete breakdown of unemployment relief on May 15 in this Commonwealth.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1383 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. MORAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1935.

Resolved (if the Senate concur) that. House Bill No, 1383, Printer's No. 470, entitled "An act to amend section two hundred and twenty-seven of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto' by changing the method of appointing minute clerks of the courts of common pleas and courts of quarter sessions and oyer and terminer in counties of the second class," be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1885 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. STEVENS offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1935.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 1885, Printer's No. 734, entitled "An act to amend section two hundred twenty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled 'An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth' by exempting from the provisions thereof persons fishing in the waters of the Delaware River lying between New York and Pennsylvania holding a fishing license issued by the State of New York," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION

Mr. OMINSKY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1935.

Whereas, on Thursday, May 2, 1935, the friends and constituents of the Honorable John J. Finnerty tendered him a testimonial dinner—the same as all other good Democrats have had thus far, and

Whereas, his admirers, friends, and constituents presented him with a black bag (not a small one) to show their appreciation of his good work on behalf of his constituents, and

Whereas, the term "black bag" in the past has had a diversified and dual meaning,

Therefore, be it resolved if my other colleague, the Honorable Marshall L. Shephard, concur that unless the recipient of the aforesaid black bag, the Honorable John J. Finnerty, consult with his other two colleagues from the 18th Philadelphia Legislative District, before he makes use of this empty black bag, we reserve the right to challenge his vote on any legislation which may be favorable or beneficial to the aforesaid District.

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the wife of the said Honorable John J. Finnerty, who is his inspiration.

Provided however that no part or portion of any street hereinbefore described shall be taken over as a State highway under the provisions of this act until after such part or portion shall have been legally opened by the city authorities in the same manner as other streets are now opened which form a part of the same route as herein described

Section 3 The city streets or sections thereof hereinbefore described shall be taken over by the Commonwealth through the Department of Highways not later than the first day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-six subject however to the following exceptions

(a) No city street or part thereof described in section two of this act shall be taken over by the Commonwealth if an order or decree for the improvement thereof has been issued until there has been full compliance with the terms of such order or decree

(b) No city street or part thereof described in section two of this act shall be taken over by the Commonwealth if a contract for the improvement thereof has been entered into between a contractor and the Commonwealth or the city authorities or both until the contract has been completed

(c) No city street or part thereof described in section two of this act shall be taken over if an agreement has been entered into between the city authorities and the Commonwealth or any other party for the maintenance or construction of such street even though no formal contract has been executed pursuant to such agreement and no work has been done until the terms of the agreement have been fulfilled

Section 4 This act is not intended and shall not be construed

(a) To place upon the Commonwealth any duty to regulate traffic or police the streets herein taken over by the Commonwealth but such duty shall be and remain the obligation of the cities

(b) To place upon the Commonwealth any obligation for the maintenance construction reconstruction or resurfacing of said streets other than the base or surface course

(c) To place upon the Commonwealth through the Department of Highways any obligation to maintain construct or reconstruct any structure of any kind or character whatsoever situate upon or forming part of any city street or section thereof described in section two of this act except that the Secretary of Highways may assume the obligation to maintain construct or reconstruct drainage structures with a total spanned length not exceeding ten feet measured along the center line of the street other than storm or sanitary sewers and which were the sole obligation of the city prior to the passage of this act Responsibility for the construction reconstruction and maintenance of any other structure shall remain with the city person association or corporation responsible therefor at the date of the approval of this act

(d) To authorize any assessment to be made against the Commonwealth by reason of or to assist in the elimination of any grade crossing or the alteration or reconstruction of an overhead or undergrade crossing on any street described and designated in section two of this act and no such assessment shall hereafter be made under any act of Assembly heretofore enacted

(e) To place upon the Commonwealth any obligation under any franchise or franchises heretofore or hereafter granted by the city to any public utility company nor to transfer to the Commonwealth from the city any rights under any such franchise or franchises heretofore granted

(f) To place upon the Department of Highways any authority to regulate traffic parking or the general use by the traveling public of the streets or sections thereof taken over by the Commonwealth for maintenance or improvement under the provisions of this act Provided however That the Department of Highways shall be and is hereby authorized to close to traffic all the streets or sections thereof described in section two of this act during such time as improvements are being made thereon and in such case the city shall establish and maintain a suitable detour in accordance with the provisions of section ten of this act

Section 5 After the streets described in section two of this act shall have been taken over by the Commonwealth they shall be maintained constructed reconstructed and resurfaced by the Department of Highways at the expense of the Commonwealth and such construction reconstruction and resurfacing shall be of such type as shall be determined by the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor and repairs and maintenance shall be of such type as shall be determined by the Secretary of Highways The obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction reconstruction resurfacing or maintenance as hereinbefore provided shall be limited to that part of the street or section thereof between curb lines as established at the time of passage of this act but shall not include the portions of such street which are or may be used and occupied by the structures or surface facilities of any public utility company Provided That it shall nevertheless be lawful for the Department of Highways to enter into agreements in the discretion of the Secretary of Highways with the cities or with persons associations or corporations for the sharing with the Commonwealth of the cost of construction reconstruction or resurfacing of the streets or sections thereof taken over by the Commonwealth under this act

Section 6 The maintenance of said streets authorized under the provisions of this act shall not include snow removal or street cleaning and shall be limited to the portions of the street between existing curb lines available to vehicular traffic

Section 7 The Department of Highways shall not change the width lines or grades of the streets taken over under the provisions of this act or any section thereof without the consent of the city evidenced by an ordinance duly passed in accordance with laws applicable thereto and in the event of any change of width lines or grades in accordance with the provisions of this section the city shall be responsible for the payment of any damages which may be occasioned thereby such damages to be ascertained and paid in accordance with the laws applicable thereto

Section 8 Before the Department of Highways shall proceed with the construction reconstruction or resurfacing of any of the streets or sections thereof as described in section two of this act the city after being notified of the contemplated improvement shall take the necessary steps to compel all public utility companies to make any necessary replacements or renewals of any of their structures located within the lines of the improvement prior to the commencement of work and shall agree that the said street or sections thereof when completed shall not be torn up or opened for a period of five years except in emergency cases and subject to the same conditions and restrictions as are now provided by law with reference to the opening of State highways in boroughs

Section 9 No opening shall be made in the surface of any improved street which is maintained by the Department of Highways under the authority of this act until and unless a permit has been obtained for such opening either from the city authorities or from the Department of Highways pursuant to an ordinance passed subsequent to the approval of this act authorizing the Department of Highways to act for the city Where a permit is not obtained from the Department of Highways as above provided the city shall require a cash deposit or bond conditioned upon the proper restoration of the surface and shall be responsible to the Department of Highways for the cost of the restoration of such surface in accordance with the adopted standards of the Department of Highways for the particular type of construction Any person firm or corporation opening the improved surface of any street or highway without having first obtained a permit as hereinbefore provided shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars and in addition thereto the costs of prosecution and surface restoration charges and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five days

Section 10 Before the commencement of any work authorized under the provisions of this act the city shall upon notice from the Secretary of Highways so to do establish and thereafter maintain at its own expense an adequate detour for the accommodation of the traveling public for such length of time as may be necessary or until the improvement contemplated has been completed and accepted and the street or sections thereof opened and made available to public travel Such detour when established as herein provided shall be marked and posted by the Department of Highways at the expense of the Commonwealth

Section 11 Cities are hereby authorized to incur or to increase their indebtedness by the issue and sale of obligations of the city in the manner and subject to the limitations provided by law for the purpose of assisting in the improving construction reconstructing or resurfacing any of the streets or sections thereof the improvement of which is authorized in accordance with the provisions of this act

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2680, as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" providing for the inclusion of occupational diseases within the scope thereof and providing definitions provisions and procedure related to such diseases

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That this act shall be called and cited as the "Occupational Disease Supplement to the Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred fifteen"

Section 2 The term "occupational disease" as used in this act shall mean and include only

(a) Poisoning by lead mercury phosphorous or arsenic resulting from any process involving use of or direct contact with lead mercury phosphorous or arsenic or their preparations and compounds

(b) Poisoning by methanol carbon bisulphide naphtha or volatile halogenate hydro-carbons resulting from any process involving the use of or direct contact with methanol or any preparation or compound containing methanol carbon bisulphide naphtha or volatile halogenated hydrocarbons

(c) Poisoning by manganese dioxide resulting from any process involving the use of or direct contact with manganese dioxide

(d) Poisoning by brass or zinc resulting from any process involving the founding or refining of brass or the melting or smelting of zinc

(e) Poisoning by benzol or by nitro- and amido-derivatives of benzol (dinitro-benzol anilin and others) resulting from any process involving the use of or direct contact with benzol or nitro- or amido-derivatives of benzol its preparations and compounds

(f) Compressed air illness resulting from any employment carried on in compressed air

(g) Destruction of tissue by radium or x-rays resulting from any process involving the use of or direct contact with radium radio-active substances or x-rays companied by pulmonary tuberculosis compensation may be made at any stage and

(m) Chronic incapacitating miners' asthma resulting from employment in the coal mining industry

Section 3 The word "silicosis" as used in this act shall be construed to mean a disease due to breathing air containing silica (SiO2) characterized automatically by generalized vibrotic changes from development of miliary modulation in both lungs and clinically by shortness of breath The disease is divided into three stages as follows

(a) The first stage (corresponding to the ante-primary stage of South Africa) exists when it is found that the earliest detectible signs of silicosis are or have been present whether or not capacity for work is or has been impaired

(b) The second stage (corresponding to the primary stage of South Africa) exists when it is found that definite and specific signs of silicosis are or have been present and that capacity for work is or has been seriously and permanently impaired

Section 4 The word "disabled" as herein used shall mean disabled from earning full wages in the employment in which the employe was employed Disability means the state of being so disabled The date when the disability occurs from occupational disease shall be deemed to be the date of injury or accident The amount of compensation to be paid shall be calculated with reference to the wages of the employe under the employer from whom the compensation is recoverable

Section 5 When an employer and employe shall by agreement accept the provisions of article three of the Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred fifteen as therein provided compensation for occupational disease arising out of and in the course of employment shall be paid in all cases by the employer according to the schedule provided in such act subject to the special terms and conditions relative thereto as set forth in this act When an employe is suffering from an occupational disease and is thereby disabled or the death of an employe is caused by any such disease and the disease is due to the nature of any employment in which the workman was employed at any time within the twelve months previous to the date when he became disabled whether under one or more employers he or his dependents shall be entitled to compensation

Section 6 If it shall be shown that the employe at or immediately before the date of disability from occupational disease was employed in any process or employment set forth in sectin two and such disease may result from such process or employment it shall be presumed that the occupational disease resulted from such employment but such presumption shall not be conclusive If an employe is suffering from an occupational disease and was not then engaged in an occupation set forth in section two he may nevertheless show that such occupational disease was in fact due to the nature of his employment

Section 7 In cases of claims for compensation for injuries or death resulting from occupational disease the compensation shall be recoverable from the employer who last employed the employe during the twelve months' period prior to the date of disability in the employment to the nature of which the disease is due but the employe or his dependents if so required shall furnish the employer with such information as to the names and addresses of all other persons who employed him during the last twelve month and if such information is not furnished or is not sufficient to enable the employer to take proceedings under the following provisions the employer upon proving that the disease was not contracted while the employe was in his employ shall not be liable to pay compensation

If the employer alleges that the occupational disease was in fact contracted while the employe was in the employment of some other employer and not while in his employment he may join such other employer as a party to the proceedings and if the allegation is proved such other employer shall be the employer from whom the compensation is recoverable

If the occupational disease is of such a nature as to be contracted by a gradual process any other employer who during the said twelve months period employed the employe in the employment to the nature of which the disease is due shall be liable to make to the employer from whom compensation is recoverable such contributions as in default of an agreement may be determined by the board

Section 8 The employer to whom notice of the disability or death is to be given shall be the employer who last employed the employe during the said twelve months in the employment to the nature of which the disease was due Provided however That the failure to comply with any requirement as to notice shall not forfeit the right to compensation if it shall be shown that such failure was due to the fact that the disability was not attributed to occupational disease and that notice was given within the prescribed time from the date when the disability was so attributed

Section 9 Compensation shall be made for silicosis only in the second and third stages Provided however That when disability or death results from silicosis accompanied by pulmonary tuberculosis compensation may be made at any stage Compensation for silicosis also shall be made only when it is shown that the employe has had two years aggregate employment in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in an employment or employments to the nature of which such disease is due

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2775, (Senate Bill No. 752) on page 29, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. SHAW.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2775 (Senate Bill No. 752), entitled:

An Act requiring applicants for relief to sign a bond conditioned on the truthfulness of his statements and the lack of fraud or misrepresentation.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 1 of title, by striking out the words "applicants for relief" and insert in lieu thereof "persons applying for or receiving relief to furnish under affidavit certain information and"

Amend title, page 1, line 3 of title, by inserting after the word "misrepresentation" the following: "empowering certain persons to administer oaths; and prescribing penalties"

Amend sec. 1, page 1, line 8, by striking out the word "shall" and insert in lieu thereof "and every person now receiving such relief shall be required to sign a statement setting forth his or her financial status and such other facts as may be required by the State Emergency Relief Board in order to determine whether such person is entitled to relief and shall also"

Amend sec. 1, page 2, by inserting after line 2, the following: "Every such applicant shall make affidavit that the facts set forth in such statement are true and correct. Any person employed in the distribution of unemployment relief shall have power to administer oaths for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act."

"Section 2. Every person giving any wilfully false information in any such statement shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or suffer imprisonment for not more than six months or both, in the discretion of the court, and shall also be sentenced to make restitution of any moneys received by reason of any such false statement. In case such moneys are not restored, proceedings may be had on the bond herein provided for."

Amend sec. 2, page 2, line 3, by striking out the figure "2" and insert in lieu thereof "3"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chairs hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1893, as follows:

An Act to amend section one thousand six hundred and five of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" further regulating the daily school hours according to standard time

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one thousand six hundred and five of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1605 The board of school directors of each school district shall fix the date of the beginning of the school term and [unless otherwise determined by the board] the daily session of school shall open at nine ante meridian and close at four post medidian standard time with an intermission of one hour at noon and an intermission of fifteen minutes in the forenoon and in the afternoon Provided That the board of school directors may fix a shorter intermission at noon and a correspondingly earlier closing hour in the afternoon And provided That in the case of high schools conducting two sessions daily the board may authorize the opening of the first of such sessions at eight ante meridian standard time and fix the hours for intermissions and closing in conformity therewith

It is the intent of this amendment to unalterably fix nine o'clock standard time as the beginning of the school day except in the case of high schools conducting two daily sessions when such day may commence not earlier than eight o'clock standard time

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, the bill that you now have before you provides for school children to attend school on Standard Time. In Philadelphia, in the summer time, we work on Daylight Saving Time. To require our school children to attend school on Standard Time would be a terrible inconvenience. Certainly, the bill has the thought back of it that Standard Time should apply everywhere, but we cannot change the habits of the people of Philadelphia over night, and to have our children attend school on Standard Time would mean depriving them of an opportunity of going to the parks or somewhere in the afternoon. I will ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, the bill before us for consideration, House Bill 1893, Printer's Number 938, would require children to attend public schools on Standard Time.

I want to put in a plea here this evening for the school children of our state. We have been going along on this Daylight Saving Time, we call it in our section of the country, "foolish" time, and we call Standard Time "God's time." Our children have to get up in the morning before they are awake, and the mothers have to get them out of their beds. According to the Daylight Saving time schedule, mothers must get their little children out of their beds in the morning before they are through sleeping, and then they must put them back in their beds again in the evening before it is dark, and that results in two spankings for these poor children: they have to be spanked in the morning to get them out of bed, and they have to be spanked again in the evening. The consequence is they lose a lot of sleep, which is an inconvenience. This measure was all right in war time. We were willing to sacrifice and to do everything for our country then, when this movement was inaugurated, but I contend at the present time that this is not necessary, and the passage of this bill will be a step in the right direction, in putting the people back on sensible time in our Commonwealth. The people in the rural districts favor this bill, and when we adhere to this nonsensical idea of having Daylight Saving Time control us, a time that has been instituted and brought about for the benefit of a few, we are working a hardship upon the people of our rural districts.

I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, as the sponsor of this bill, I feel that I at least ought to make an attempt to explain the matter somewhat.

I was advised by two astute members of this House, when this bill was called up, to let the reading clerk call the roll, and talk fast, and it will probably slide through. Now, I did keep still and if Mr. Sowers had also kept still, we probably would not have had any trouble, or have to waste any of your time, but now that he has started it, I think at least I ought to try and see it through.

I want to say, frankly, that this bill is not a joke to the large divisions of the people of this state; the one being the division the gentleman just referred to as the mothers of children of school age, and the other is that large abused portion of the population called farmers. I want to say to you, as the sponsor of this bill, that the Associated Press has advertised it widely over the state, and as a result, I have received dozens and dozens of letters and they have come mainly from these two sections or divisions of society, or organizations, or people of this state, the farmers and the mothers of the children of school age. and in every instance they either prayed that I would be successful in the passage of this bill or they were vindicative and lambasted the people who first started this Daylight Saving Time

Now, gentlemen, if you will just let me have a moment's time I will go back to November 18, 1883, which was simply the beginning by the people of this nation to try to regulate the time in some orderly manner. It was started by the American Railway Association with the proposition to divide this whole United States into zones, an hour apart, and that was inaugurated on November 18, 1883. Since that time, it has not only included the United States, but the whole world, and the whole world is now divided into twenty-four zones, an hour apart, to regulate and standardize time.

In 1919, this state of ours adopted that same time. After the state adopted the Federal law, standardizing this time exactly, we have been going ever since on the time established, first by the Railway, then by the Federal Government, and then by state law. Now, the last time this state law was amended was in 1923, and here is the law in my hands, and this is what it says, in a very few words. I am not going to read it all to you. It just simply states:

"That no country, city, borough, town, township, or other municipal subdivision of the Commonwealth shall, by ordinance, resolution, or rule, adopt a different standard of time for any year, or any portion of the year, than that herein provided, and all ordinances, resolutions, and rules heretofore adopted, contrary to this proviso, are declared to be void and of no effect."

Therefore, this state has adopted the Standard Time adopted by the Federal Government and the railroads, and that stands as the state law, and how, in Heaven's name some other organizations, and I am told—I should say, it is alleged—that this Daylight Saving Time change now is inaugurated by Chambers of Commerce and banking institutions and a few white collared people of the cities, because they wanted an hour's extra time to play golf or to go to recreation parks they are thereby inconveniencing, discommoding and throwing out of line two great sub-divisions of the people of this state, namely, the farmers and the mothers of children of school age. Everyone of them object to this Daylight Saving Time. They all agreed to it, without a word of remonstrance, when it was needed during the emergency of the war, but now, there is no excuse and no valid reason for Daylight Saving Time.

In the courthouse in the city of Erie, the offices have four distinct and different times, and this matter has become so acute, gentlemen, that it is time that this action or some similar action be taken to stop it.

If a few people in the cities and chambers of commerce members and a few bankers and a few city organizations are going to disrupt the time schedule of all mothers of school children and all the farmers of the state, then it is time that this body of legislators take action and put a stop to it.

In this connection, I consulted Mr. Fertig, and I believe there is no better authority than Mr. Fertig in this state, and he simply told me, in plain words, that there is no method by which we can enact a new law, but we can amend the school code to cover this situation and cover it thoroughly, and we will have for our backers all the mothers of this state.

I was the third or fourth member of the Assembly who consulted Mr. Fertig on this particular proposition, so I don't want you to consider that I am doing this for any personal reason whatsoever. I am a farmer and I have received dozens of letters since this agitation was started. I want to tell you, gentlemen, in all seriousness, if you represent the people from the district from which you come, and if you said in your political campaign that you were in favor of Home Rule, then why, in God's name, do you want to allow a chamber of commerce, which doesn't have anything to do, but tries to tell other people what to do, then, are you representing them, or are you representing the people who voted to send you down here to make laws that would benefit them and to be of some service to them.

The Chamber of Commerce has been trying to dictate to the President of these United States, but not very successfully. Some of them have been trying to dictate to the Legislature of this state, but not very successfully, and so they have turned their attention to the mothers of school children and the farmers. Now, are we going to see them successful in that direction? I hope the members of this House will remember who voted for them and vote for this bill.

I went through this bill and added an amendment to it, in consideration of certain towns or cities where it was necessary to have two sessions of their high schools, and in that case, begin school at eight o'clock and continue until the second session was finished, and on the advice of Mr. Fertig this bill is an amendment to this school code. It would represent all of the people in all parts of the state, treat them all equally, and also obey the Federal law and the state law, which, as I read to you, states that the day shall start at a certain time, decided by the 75th meridian, west of Greenwich, and inasmuch as it is the law of the Federal Government, of this state and of the whole world, why should we just want to accommodate a few white collar people by adopting Daylight Saving Time.

I ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. The golf playing lawyers can deride and laugh at this bill as much as they like, but in the rural counties of Pennsylvania, it is one of the paramount issues. The Democratic party could not go to the people on a Daylight Saving issue and win. These schedules may be all right for the leisure class, and they are leisure class schedules.

There are children in this state, who, in order to get to school, over the long bus routes have to get up at six o'clock in the morning, absolutely and positively.

I do not object, members of the House, to your voting against this bill, if that is your conviction, but if any of you believe that it is not an issue and a real issue, you are making the biggest political mistake of your lives.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2486, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, sixty-five), entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for the redemption of the same, and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof," as amended and supplemented, by clarifying the law relating to municipal financing; further defining the method of determining permitted and existing indebtedness; modifying and simplifying the procedure for incurring or increasing indebtedness, either with or without an election; reducing the period of time required for advertising elections and sales of bonds; providing for the private sale of bonds to the United States of America; and repealing conflicting acts and sections of acts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER: Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARNOLD: I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER: Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill in what manner this changes the present law in reference to increasing the indebtedness?

Mr. ARNOLD: Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, as far as I have been able to interpret the bill, it does not extend the privilege of increasing the indebtedness under the present law.

Mr. TURNER: Then, Mr. Speaker, what does this bill do?

Mr. ARNOLD: Mr. Speaker, this bill is drawn for the purpose of clarifying the law as it is written at the present time, by repealing certain individual acts and incorporating them in this one act, with the idea back of it of making it possible for the municipalities and political subdivisions to take advantage of the Federal Works program.

Mr. TURNER: Mr. Speaker, doesn't this bill increase the indebtedness from seven to ten percent?

Mr. ARNOLD: Mr. Speaker, I think, if you will read the bill, you will find that that is not the case. On the bottom of page 2 of the bill, you will find brackets around that part of the old act which has been stricken out, carrying into effect identically the same, but in other wording, what we have at the top 3, the underscored insertion.

Mr. TURNER: Mr. Speaker, doesn't the act on page 6, line 9, provide for an increase of indebedness from seven to ten per cent?

Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Fayette and I didn't start this interrogation in opposition to this bill, but in order to clarify it in my own mind and the minds of the members, in view of that particular provision of the act, which it is difficult to follow and which at first blush appears to me to be unconstitutional, whether he would be willing to place the bill on the postponed calendar, until we have had a further opportunity to study that provision.

Mr. ARNOLD: Mr. Speaker, this act has been prepared with the intention submitted to us from Washington, and has been prepared and reviewed in the Attorney General's office, to carry out the provisions that I have before stated. It is an administration measure. It is for the purpose of clarifying and consolidating the acts already existent, and does not in any case extend the power to borrow money beyond the provisions already set up. Personally, I see no reason for further consideration of it, and I think we should vote for the act, and I urge you so to do.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. KILROY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1928, Printer's No. 837, on page 29, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. KILROY.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1928, entitled:

An Act providing for the administration of relief to poor in cities of the first class by the Department of Public Welfare and abolishing existing poor districts therein

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FITCH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title page 1, line 3, by striking out the words "and abolishing existing poor districts therein"

Amend the title page 1, line 3, by inserting, after the word "Welfare" the following: "and further providing referendums to ascertain the will of the electors of the poor districts of said cities with respect to the abolishing of a poor district or districts therein."

Amend Page —2— by inserting after Section —3— a new Section to be designated Section —4— to read as follows:

Section 4 Referendum Statement of Question on Ballots At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five there shall be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth a question to determine the will of the electors of each Poor district in cities of the first class with respect to abolishing of a Poor District or Districts therein. Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor retention of the Poor District in its present form?	Yes
	No

The said question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the county commissioners of the county and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of the county affected so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at such election.

Amend Page —2— by inserting after the new Section —4— another new Section —5— to read as follows:

Section 5 Returns and Computation of Votes The votes cast on such question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them to the prothonotary of the county who shall lay the same before the return board for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns. The return board shall compute the said returns by Poor Districts and certify the results of the vote cast on the question to the legislative body of the municipality within the county Such election shall be governed by the election laws of the Commonwealth and all penalties provided by said laws shall apply to such elections

Amend Page —2— by inserting after the new Section —5— another new Section designated Section —6— to read as follows:

Section 6 Future Referendums In any city of the First Class the will of the electors with respect to a Poor District or Districts may after the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five but not oftener than once in ten years be ascertained and the question as provided in this act shall be submitted to the electors of any Poor District of such municipality upon demand in writing of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the said Poor District at the last preceding special general or municipal election. Such petition shall be filed with the corporate authorities at least sixty days before the day of any special general or municipal election at which the question is to be submitted and if the petition is sufficiently signed it shall thereupon be certified to the county commissioners who shall cause such question to be submitted in the same manner as is provided in this act for the election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five. After any such vote a Poor District shall continue to operate as now provided by law or be abolished as herein before provided in accordance with the findings as expressed by the voters at such election.

Amend Page —2— by inserting after the new Section —6— a further section designated Section —7— to read as follows:

Section 7 Intent of Act It is the intent of this act to provide a method whereby the will of the electors of each Poor District with respect to abolishing of a Poor District or Poor Districts may be ascertained.

Amend Page 2, line 14, by placing light faced brackets before and after the numeral '4" and inserting in lieu thereof the numeral "8"

Amend Page 2, sec. 4, line 16, by inserting after the word "unconstitutional" the following: "except those sections relating to a referendum."

Amend Page 2, line 18, by placing light faced brackets before and after the numeral "5" and inserting in lieu thereof the numeral "9."

Amend Page 2, line 20, by placing light faced brackets before and after the numeral "6" and inserting in lieu thereof the numeral "10."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1612, entitled:

Relating to the defense of alibi in criminal prosecutions

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not know whether this bill, commonly known as the Alibi Bill, that was restored to the calendar after a negative recommendation from the committee from whence it came, the Judiciary General Committee, was designed to help the district attorney or the commonwealth in the prosecution of its cases, or whether it was designed to help the defendant in trying his case, but as I read the bill, it seems to me to hurt the commonwealth and the district attorney rather than to aid the commonwealth and the prosecuting officers.

Under the terms of this bill, all that a defendant would have to do in order to gain delay, and all a defendant would have to do in order to stop the Commonwealth from producing witnesses who came to the Commonwealth at the last moment, would be to set up the fact that they are going to present an alibi at the time of the trial. That alibi might consist in the defendant simply stating that he was going to present his wife or a member of his family. Immediately upon his so doing, the Commonwealth, within two days, would have to specify the names and addresses of all the witnesses upon whom the Commonwealth relied to secure a conviction.

I have always been in favor of passing laws that would aid the district attorney and the Commonwealth, and I am opposed to any laws that would make it more difficult to procure a conviction. If, as a case might arise, under the terms of this bill, the commonwealth had three witnesses, two or three days before the trial, and if the county detectives were out trying to seek further witnesses and better witnesses for the commonwealth, under the terms of this bill, unless the district attorney knew two days in advance of the trial who his witnesses were, he would be stopped from producing any witness who could positively identify the defendant.

I can see no reason for such legislation. I can see no reason for any bill that would hamper or delay a prosecuting officer. Now, it might be argued that this bill helps the commonwealth, in that the witnesses for the defendant are mentioned and sought out. That may or may not be true, but the disadvantage of the bill, in compelling the district attorney to name his witnesses ahead of the time and in the fact that it would prevent the district attorney from producing other witnesses than those named, seems to me to be bad in principle.

There is one other defect, as I see it, in this bill, and that is that it does not aid in the speedy trial of members of the gangster class, who ought to be brought to trial speedily, in that it provides that seven days before the trial, the defendant has to present the names of his witnesses. Well, there are some cases that do not require seven days delay, and there are some cases that ought to be tried and disposed of immediately. I refer particularly to cases of robbery, or burglary or holdups in the big cities of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I say to the members of this House, that you ought not to pass this legislation. It is unnecessary and it is only impeding and hampering the commonwealth, and aiding, on the other hand, the gangster who violates the law. I solicit your vote against the passage of this bill.

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to make a few remarks as to this bill. As was said by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, this is a bill which the Committee on Judiciary General reported negatively.

In spite of that recommendation of the Committee on Judiciary General the members of this House on motion of the sponsor of the bill decided to place it on the calendar. I don't know whether that decision was made by the members of this House in a playful mood or in a spirit of contrariness or what spirit actuated them in placing this bill on the calendar.

However, I believe that this is the first bill that has been placed on the calendar in this manner, and it seems to me that that action by the House is a reflection on the Judiciary General Committee.

In behalf of this committee I want to say that the committee has, since bills were introduced in this House met each and every week at least once, and many and many a week they have met twice. They have reported up to the end of last week a total of 93 bills to the floor of this House, and each and every bill that was considered in that time was considered conscientiously and considered fairly. I attended every meeting of that Judiciary General Committee and never at any time, at any of those meetings did the spirit of partisanship or politics enter into the discussion. The meetings were harmonious in all respects, and each and every member seemed to vie with each and every other member in trying to render the most conscientious and best service to his constituents in enacting legislation which he believed would be for the best interests of the people.

No activity that I have been engaged in since coming to Harrisburg have I enjoyed more than the activities in connection with this Judiciary General Committee, and I feel sorry that the Judiciary General Committee is the first committee that has felt this rebuke on the part of the members of the House.

I am not going to ask the members to vote "aye" on this bill or to vote "no" on this bill. The bill was considered by the committee on three separate occasions. It was considered in a fair spirit and they negatived the bill.

There are many features of the bill which I think are very, very bad. In the first place, the bill requires that the defendant notify the district attorney seven days in advance of the trial that he is going to present an alibi for defense. Now, there are many times that the defendant does not know seven days in advance that his case is ready for trial, so it is impossible for him to comply with that provision. There are defendants that are in jail that do not have the benefit of counsel that will not know the provisions of this law, that will be notified one or two days before their trial that their trial will be up. It will be impossible for them to comply with the provisions of this act.

The bill also requires the district attorney within two days of the notice to notify the defendant of each and every one of his witnesses that will try to offset the alibi. Now, that is almost an impossible task for the district attorney to do. If he would get notice to day that there was going to be an alibi presented he would by the day after tomorrow notify the defendant of his witnesses Afterwards he would have to bring in all the witnesses that he possibly could, locate them, find out if there were any other witnessess, and then on the next day notify the defendant. So the bill is impractical from that standpoint.

Those are the matters that were discussed in committee, if I may be privileged to say so. I want to say that I think this House should vote on this bill on the recommendation of the committee that is in here asking you to vote against the bill, or asking you to consider the recommendation of the committee.

Mr. VanSICKLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe if you will refer to the bill, you will find the answers to many of the objections. You will notice section three "The trial court shall have power to order the amendment, amplification or reduction of such particulars or of the time of their service as the ends of justice may require."

That is all this act is for, to see that justice is secured. If we have confidence in our judges that they can try the case, I think we can have confidence in our judges that they can make such corrections, or amendments as the ends of justice may require.

Let me refer you gentlemen to the present system. What happens? Many times in the trial of a case. when the case, to use common words "goes bad," an alibi crops up in the morning or afternoon, and alibi which it is deplorable to say is in many cases proven by professional witnesses, and the district attorney has absolutely no chance to check on the truth of these witnesses, to check up on where they come from, how much credence should be given to their testimony. No notice is given to the district attorney under these conditions.

However, under this bill, the district attorney would have an opportunity to investigate the caliber or character of the witnesses presented to prove this alibi. The fact that he is also to give notice of his witnesses works no hardships because under the present system, he has no opportunity to bring in any witnesses.

Gentlemen, I do not think it is a mistake to vote for this act because it is contrary to the recommendations of the committee. I do not think that our constituents sent us here to vote simply on the recommendations of committees, because any committee, no matter how well constituted or how much respect we may have for it, can make an honest mistake, and in this instance I believe this committee has made an honest mistake.

I believe our constituents sent us here to use our own minds in determining matters before us and that is what I am going to ask you to do. I am not going to ask you to vote for this bill in a spirit of contrariness. I am not going to ask you to vote for this bill because the commitee recommended negatively, but I am going to ask you to vote as the dictates your conscience may guide you, and I think under the circumstances, as we have passed legislation in this House increasing the penalties for certain criminal acts, I think we should vote to give the district attorney a fair chance to check up on certain witnesses who may be called on to testify in such cases.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, with reference to this bill, No. 1612, Printer's No. 756, inasmuch as it was introduced by a lawyer and is opposed by lawyers, it would seem that the bill takes on an entirely new aspect as compared to bills that have been before this House for passage. It would seem to me, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that if this bill were to become a law it would certainly have a tendency to have cases in order for trial which would save a lot of time in a great many court trials. There are alibi witnesses,—we read of them every day. There are men and women making a profession of alibiing in any case. I think the last great criminal trial that we had in this country, namely the Hauptman trial, when everyone was satisfied with the trial going along as it proceeded toward the closing, all at once alibi witnesses turned up in great numbers and it later turned out that these witnesses were nothing more than alibi witnesses. Now, if this bill did nothing more than do away with that form of trial, it would certainly have accomplished a great good. I say as a citizen of this Commonwealth it is absolutely necessary that we outside of the legal profession support this measure and in doing so we will cause to have in effect before the trial takes place at least a case which is ready for trial. It would save the counties of the different districts many thousands of dollars in a year, and it would do away with that type of witnesses who in a lot of cases have nothing whatever to do with the case.

So I ask the members of the House at least outside of the legal profession to support this bill.

Mr. WICKERSHAM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the past several years the American Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Association have been attempting to do away with sharp practices in the defense of criminal cases.

This act has been approved by the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the only person who will be hurt by the passage of this act is the defendant who comes into court with a framed up alibi. If his defense is honest defense, this act will not hurt him in any way.

One of the gentlemen who spoke for the bill inadvertently misinformed this House on the duties that would be placed on district attorneys. The only thing that a district attorney would have to do would be to give the defendant or his counsel the names of those witnesses whom he relies upon to prove the present of the defendant at the scene of the crime.

Now, every district attorney, when he comes into court, has the names of those witnesses, so that it will only take him a moment or two to give defense counsel that information.

This act should be placed because it is a distinct step in the purification of the defense in criminal cases in this Commonwealth.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 6, 1935.

Whereas, The General Assembly during this session has been laboring for many weeks to enact an emergency tax program to provide funds for the State Emergency Relief Board, which, combined with Federal funds, are to be used to continue unemployment relief and thus relieve human suffering, and

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board recently received thousands of applications from various sections of the Commonwealth for the positions of Junior Visitors so that this force could be augmented to provide better control of relief expenditures and relief employment, and

Whereas, Last week these applications were checked over by the personnel department of the State Emergency Relief Board, and a large percentage of those applying have been notified that their applications have been rejected for various reasons, most of which were claimed to be due to having insufficient education and experience, and they were therefore not given even the opportunity of taking the written examination held May fourth (4th), and

Whereas, It was admitted under oath by the State Emergency Relief Board Personnel Director, at a hearing in Harrisburg last week, that applicants are not considered unless, in addition to being high school graduates, they have at least three (3) years schooling in the sacred profession of social service, or three (3) years experience in social service work, as a paid member of the staff of a recognized agency, in this most sacred fraternity which is enjoying an era of abundant prosperity while the remainder of our people are enduring poignant suffering either because of their necessity for relief or the overwhelming burden of taxation, or both, and

Whereas, This same Director of Personnel testified further to the effect that the required experience must have been acquired in teaching, public health nursing, boy scout or camp fire girl activities, social settlement work, etc., and that even though the applicant may have many years of experience either in operating his own business, or in being identified with commerce and industry, thus being equipped with generally recognized experience and good common sense, such experience, good common sense, and mature judgment is not recognized as acceptable background to take the examination for admittance to the sacred fraternity of social service adherents who, by their own admission and activities, are hoping to build up the

State Emergency Relief Board into a permanent well paid organization exclusively for members of the social service cult, and

Whereas, Many Members of the General Assembly, during the past few days, have received and heard complaints that many of their constituents, who, being in need of employment to provide needed income in their families, and possessed of good general experience, common sense and mature judgment, but lacking social service experience or education which is demanded as herein before stated, have been arbitrarily rejected without an opportunity for examination or personal interview, and

Whereas, Practically every Member of the General Assembly and especially those who are conducting investigations of relief activities in various sections of the Commonwealth are cognizant of the fact that the majority of present relief visitors are too young and lacking in general experience and mature judgment, and that by far the majority of these visitors and a large number of other State Emergency Relief Board administrative employees throughout the Commonwealth are members of wealthy families, or are at least members of families having very comfortable incomes from other sources, and

Whereas, Early in April in the face of almost complete suspension of works relief and threatened suspension of direct relief, and while His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, Members of the General Assembly, and other high officials, were sweating blood in an attempt to enact a tax program to keep thousands of families from starving, increases in salaries, ranging in some instances as high as forty-five (45) percentum, were made effective to these same visitors and administrative employees of the State Emergency Relief Board, which, as discovered by the Area four (4) Legislative Investigating Committee, will mean an increase in administrative cost in Area four (4) alone of over twenty-one thousand ($21,000) dollars per annum, or an increase of nineteen four tenths (19.4) percentum, affecting ninety (90) per centum of the employes, and

Whereas, This same scale of increase has probably become effective throughout the Commonwealth, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), that the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board is immediately directed to

(A) Withhold all further employment of visitors and administrative personnel until all applications on file now or hereafter received, including all those received and accepted or rejected for the May fourth (4th) examination, have been carefully scrutinized by a committee in each County consisting of four (4) persons of recognized general business experience, good common sense, and mature judgment, but devoid of the prevalent social service complex. Two members of each such committee to be appointed by the Governor and two by the Judge of the Common Pleas Court in each County. Said committee shall determine by scrutiny of applications, preparations and grading of examinations where necessary, personal interview, and by all means need for employment in the family, who shall be eligible for employment by the State Emergency Relief Board. Said committee in each County shall select its chairman by a majority vote. three (3) members shall constitute a quorum, all matters shall be decided by a majority vote of those present, the committee shall meet at least once a week for the above purpose and each member shall receive five (5) dollars per week while so serving. Said committee in each County shall be furnished with necessary stenographic help and other service and expenses to carry out its functions by the local office of the State Emergency Relief Board, and when necessary said committee shall have the power to appoint other citizens of the County to serve in various needed capacities and such services by these citizens shall be rendered gratis. Said committee in each County shall within sixty (60) days after appointment carefully scrutinize all present or future administrative employees and visitors on the basis of qualifications and need for employment in their families and recommend whenever advisable.

(B) Prepare a blank form for the purpose of securing from all employees including present and future administrative employees, visitors and all other employees not on relief, a statement of facts, under oath, as to the income from every other source in the employee's family. This statement to be given with the application in the future and to be provided to the said committee in each County by all present employees within fifteen (15) days after appointment of said committees.

(C) Immediately remove any and all salary increases of administrative employees and visitors which have become effective since the opening day of this session of the Legislature, January first, nineteen hundred thirty-five, and be it further

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three (3) Members of that Body, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three (3 Members of that Body, who, with the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board serving as a member and chairman, shall constitute a committee of seven to pass upon all future salary increases or changes and all other matters pertaining to the State Emergency Relief Board administration. Five (5) members of this committee shall constitute a quorum, and be it also further

Resolved That the General Assembly will pass during this session necessary legislation to carry out the various phases of this resolution and other matters necessary to see that all money expended by the State Emergency Relief Board is used to provide relief and employment in the greatest possible amount only to those families and individuals in need of help.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. COHEN. HOUSE BILL No. 2827.

An Act to further amend section two of the act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred twenty-one), entitled as amended "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; defining and taxing transfers made in contemplation of death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal," by imposing a graduated tax and allowing further deductions.

RESOLUTION No. 141.

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1935.

Whereas, The policy of the administrators of unemployment relief is to refuse work relief to persons except such as are beneficiaries of direct relief; and

Whereas, Many conscientious citizens refuse to become beneficiaries of direct relief, and even though in want, are thus denied work to which they are entitled; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That each city, borough, town and township is hereby urged to form a committee or committees which shall sit for the purpose of hearing applications of persons who are in need of employment and who are not receiving direct relief, and also of persons who are receiving direct relief, and who are able to secure part-time employment in industry, which if amplified with work relief would provide sufficient income to enable such persons to forego direct relief;

Resolved, That such committees shall be constituted as follows:

In each city the mayor of the city shall appoint two members of council, and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the mayor of the city, shall constitute a committee of five. In any city the committee so constituted may appoint sub-committees composed of one member of the committee of five, and other persons by them selected who, in the public interest, will agree to serve without compensation in order to carry out the spirit and intent of this resolution.

In each borough and town the burgess shall appoint two members of the council and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the burgess, shall constitute a committee of five.

In each township of the first class the president of the board of township commissioners shall appoint two township commissioners, and the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the president of the board of township commissioners, shall constitute a committee of five.

In townships of the second class, the president of the board of school directors shall appoint two members of the school board, who together with the chairman of the board of township supervisors shall constitute a committee of three.

Resolved, That the committees constituted in accordance with this resolution be urged and requested to sit at least one day or one evening each week, to hear applications of persons desiring work relief and who come within the terms of this resolution, and shall have power to issue to persons who are deemed worthy, certificates, furnished by the State Emergency Relief Board, evidencing the belief that the holder thereof is entitled to employment, full time or part time, on any work relief project. No such certificate shall be denied to any person for the reason that he or she is not presently receiving direct relief, and no such certificate shall be issued to any person who in the opinion of any such committee is not entitled to work relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board and its agencies and those entrusted with the employment of persons on work relief projects be directed to cooperate with the committees constituted by this resolution and provide work to the fullest extent for the holders of certificates issued by such committees, and where work is available no such holder of a certificate shall be denied work for the reason that he is not a beneficiary of direct relief, or that he may be employed part time in industry;

Resolved, That no such committee shall hear applications of persons receiving direct relief unless the applicant is able to secure part time employment in industry, and is in need of additional income in order to forego direct relief;

Resolved, That the State Emergency Relief Board shall send such information as may be deemed advisable to each city, borough, town and township in this Commonwealth in order to bring into being the committees contemplated by this act:

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the State Emergency Relief Board by the Chief Clerk of this House.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 7, 1935 No. 58

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 7, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O, Thou God of all the earth, as we stand in Thy presence our minds cannot conceive Thy age or the sweep of time covered by Thy creative and sustaining power. With the psalmist of old we would exclaim, "Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God."

When we boast of the age of our world and point with pride to monuments commemorating the glory of past generations, may we be reminded that "a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past and as a watch in the night."

How short is our span of human life. How brief the period allotted to us for service. As we are met here to plan for the happiness and well-being of multitudes of our citizens, may each member of this Senate seek the wisdom which cometh from on high. May what is done by them be to Thy glory and may the record made by this body constitute a bright page in the history of our Commonwealth. Lead us, inspire us, use us to work Thy will. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. RICE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of person privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, last night a resolution came hurriedly from the House; it was a lengthy resolution; it was read once; and I believe that the members of this body were unaware of its contents and its purpose. It was illy advised to act on it so hurriedly; it was the right of this body to protest against the immediate consideration, and that was not done; and I believe that that resolution did not have the consideration proper to a resolution of that length—as I understand, more than ten pages—involving one of the most important parts of this government, one of the most important things with which we have to deal,—the administration of relief.

It was an attack on the gentleman who is now the Executive Director of the State Emergency Relief Board. I hold no brief for this gentleman or for the Governor of Pennsylvania, but I do believe in fair play; and I believe that the gentleman who occupies that position has made a great sacrifice in coming to this State to take that position; and I believe that before this is acted upon finally by the Governor this gentleman should be given a hearing, to answer these charges.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL NO. 198.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer, at this time, a resolution recalling Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 198, from the Governor.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Allegheny, that there is a serious parliamentary question there. This is a House resolution—that is, a concurrent resolution originating in the House, and the Chair does not know that the Senate has possession of the resolution.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, it is a very close question, but to avoid any parliamentary discussion I move that the vote by which this resolution was passed by the Senate be reconsidered.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I would like to second that motion, if it is possible to bring the resolution back.

The PRESIDENT. Unfortunately, the resolution is not in the possession of the Senate, it having passed finally.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, if the resolution was inadvertently, or without due and proper consideration, passed by the Senate, it is my opinion that the Chair, in the two rulings already made, is absoluttely correct; the only way this resolution can come back for consideration, either by the House or by the Senate, is to have a resolution introduced in the House asking for the recall of that resolution; but the Senate has absolutely no jurisdiction over the resolution,—it is in the hands of the Governor.

I am not speaking on the merits or demerits of the resolution, but in order that something of this type may not come on us sometime in the future I respectfully request the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, to endeavor to prevail upon some member of the House to introduce a resoution recalling the concurrent resolution in question from the Governor. I do not think there ought to be any difficulty along that line.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to change my resolution to read that the concurrent resolution passed last night be recalled from the House.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, know whether the resolution referred to is still in the possession of the House?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, revise his resolution so that it shall constitute a request on the part of the Senate that the House recall the concurrent resolution from the Governor?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, if that is in order I shall be perfectly willing to accept the suggestion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think this Senate has a perfect right, having passed the resolution inadvertently, to place itself on record to that effect, and to request the House to introduce a resolution recalling the concurrent resolution from the Governor.

The PRESIDENT. Has the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, reframed his resolution?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, for the time being I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my resolution, with the understanding that there will be an investigation made as to the proper manner of recalling this concurrent resolution from the Governor; and while I am on my feet I want to say definitely and frankly that I think this concurrent resolution reeks with politics; and it is my purpose, in bringing it back, to afford an opportunity to the members of this body to discuss it thoroughly. It was passed last night hurriedly and, as I said, before, illy advised. Now, I will prepare a proper resolution to bring it back to this floor for discussion; and for the time being I will ask unanimous consent to withdraw my resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The chair hears none, and the resolution is withdrawn.

STATE EMERGENCY RELIEF BOARD URGED TO CONTINUE DISTRIBUTION OF MILK

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 31, which was reported from the Committee on State Government on April 30th.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 28, 1935.

Whereas, Unemployment relief has heretofore generally been distributed by the State Emergency Relief Board in the form of food and clothing vouchers or orders and

Whereas, Many persons are of the opinion that such distribution should be in the form of direct or cash relief and

Whereas, That method of distribution is already in effect in the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny and

Whereas, It is of paramount importance that milk be always available to the needy particularly to the ill and to children and

Whereas, The State Emergency Relief Board is able to procure milk more cheaply than destitute families can purchase it directly therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania That the State Emergency Relief Board be urged to continue the direct distribution of milk without regard to the method or methods which may be adopted in the distribution of relief generally and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Director of the State Emergency Relief Board of this Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

RESOLUTION RECOMMITTED

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, some objections have been raised to this resolution in its present form; and I desire to move that this resolution be recommitted to the Committee on State Government for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President. I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 683 (House Bill No. 1245), as follows:

An Act to amend sections four thousand one hundred and forty four thousand one hundred and forty-one four thousand one hundred and forty-two and four thousand one hundred and forty-three of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" restricting the right of cities to institute proceedings to declare certain properties nuisances and eliminating compensation to owners whose property is destroyed to abate nuisances

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That sections four thousand one hundred and forty four thousand one hundred and forty-one four thousand one hundred and forty-two and four thousand one hundred and forty-three of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 4140 Petition for removal of nuisances Viewers The council of any city may by resolution authorize and empower the mayor of such city to present a petition to the court of common pleas of the county wherein such city is located setting forth that any property (other than a colliery and property connected therewith) building premises business or occupation specifying the same fully and describing the same accurately located within said city has become a public nuisance injurious or dangerous to the community and to the public health Upon the presentation and hearing of such petition if the nuisance complained of be not a nuisance per se then the court may appoint three viewers from the county board of viewers to go upon the premises where said nuisance is alleged to exist at a time to be fixed in the order appointing the same of which time due notice shall be given to all persons affected which shall be not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of the order making such appointment and shall thereupon being first duly sworn view the property premises building business or occupation shall hear the parties their witnesses and council and shall make due report thereof to the court appointing them

Section 4141 Power of Viewers The viewers appointed as aforesaid may

First Determine Shall determine whether or not the property premises building business or occupation is a nuisance and if they shall find it is a nuisance shall so return in their award and

Second Find what if any compensation shall be paid by the said city to the owner or owners of said property premises building business or occupation for the abatement of the same and if the findings of the said viewers be in favor of the said city and direct the abatement of said nuisance then judgment shall be entered upon their award within thirty days after the same is filed unless the said award be appealed from or exceptions there to be filed within thirty days No execution or other process for the collection of any sum of money awarded to any person or persons corporation or corporations as compensation for the abatement of any nuisance shall issue until the said nuisance has been fully and completely abated and return thereof made to the court

Section 4142 Appeals Any of the parties interested in any proceedings provided by the preceding two sections may appeal to the court of common pleas of the proper county within thirty days from the date of filing an award such appeal to be in the same form as now governs appeals from the awards of viewers appointed pursuant to this act to assess damages for property taken injured or destroyed the party appealing to pay the costs incurred and to give bond with one surety for the payment of all costs which may thereafter be incurred Upon such appeal being perfected the court shall frame an issue which issue shall be placed at the head of the next trial list then open and shall be tried by the court and jury in the same manner as feigned issues are now tried Upon such trial the jury shall have power to find the same facts as are provided may be found by the viewers If the jury shall find in favor of the city and award any compensation to the owner or owners of said property premises building business or occupation judgment shall be entered upon the verdict of a jury No execution or other process for the collection of such judgment shall issue until the nuisance complained of shall have been fully and completely abated and return thereof made to the court upon which the court shall have power to award execution or other process necessary to enforce the collection of the judgment

Section 4143 Abatement of Nuisance After Award by Viewers Whenever the award of viewers or the verdict of a jury shall find that a nuisance exists and the owner or owners of any property premises building business or occupation causing the same shall fail to abate the same within sixty days from the date of the findings of the viewers or the judgment in case of an appeal the authorities of said city shall have full power and authority to enter upon said property premises or building where said nuisance exists and abate the same and shall not be liable in any form of action for so doing The cost and expense of abating the same shall be deducted from any compensation awarded in said proceeding paid by the owner of the property and may be recovered by the city in an action of assumpsit

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to call to the attention of the members of this Senate that this bill that we are about to vote on is a very bad bill. It is an amendment to an existing law which is good; and the amendment destroys the original law, makes it a bad law.

This bill provides that when private property is destroyed because it has been declared a nuisance the owner of that property shall receive no compensation for the destruction of his property. Now, if the property to be destroyed has become a nuisance by reason of positive act of the owner, making the property a nuisance per se, I can see the logic of this proposed legislation; but where we have the case of a building which has existed for many years, let us say, and which was not a nuisance when erected, but, because of changes that have taken place, has changed its status—probably the place where it was erected ten years ago was an uninhabited place, with vacant lots about it, and over the course of time other buildings have been erected which make that building erected ten years ago a nuisance—I say if property of that kind is destroyed because it is declared a nuisance, the owner of that property should be compensated for the destruction of his property.

This bill would deny the owner of that property any compensation; and I say, because of that, it is a bad bill, and ought not to be passed by this Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to join in what the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, has stated in regard to this bill, and point out the fact that the vice, the effect of this bill comes from the fact that Section 4141, which appears on page 3 of the bill (Printer's No. 956), which gives the Board of View the right to give compensation in such cases, is eliminated from the proposed Act. It is apparently the purpose of the framers of this amendment—this is an amendment to an Act of 1931—was to give the city the right to collect directly for the cost of abating nuisances; there was no intent, apparently, to take away from the owner of the property which created the nuisance compensation for the taking of the property, but by eliminating the first paragraph and the second paragraph of Section 4141 of the Act. As the bill now stands it would have the effect of depriving the person who has property which is lawfully on a piece of ground but which, by virtue of subsequent events, has become a nuisance,—depriving him of his property without compensation; and for that reason I believe the bill should be referred back to the committee.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 683 (House Bill No. 1245), on third reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 751, as follows:

An Act creating County Assistance Boards for the administration of unemployment relief and abolishing existing agencies created for the administration of unemployment relief conferring powers and imposing duties upon such county assistance boards the Governor courts county treasurers and the Auditor General imposing on counties part of the costs of administration incurred by such boards providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts

Section 5 The moneys paid to a County Assistance Board from time to time shall be paid into the county treasury for safe keeping and shall be paid out of the county treasury under such system of requisition and accounting as the County Assistance Board and the county treasurer of the county shall by agreement establish Any county treasurer may with the consent of the County Assistance Board appoint one or more clerks to assist him in the performance of his duties in receiving any paying out moneys and the compensation of such clerks or clerks shall be paid as part of the administrative expense of the County Assistance Board

Section 6 No unemployment relief shall be granted by any county assistance board except upon written application of the person applying therefor setting forth such information as the board may require Every application for relief filed with a board shall be acted upon within one week after the same is filed

Section 7 Any member or employe of any County Assistance Board who shall expend or authorize the expenditure of any money allocated to it under the provisions of this act for any purpose other than one authorized by this act or by law or who shall knowingly give or authorize the giving of aid under the provisions of this act to any person not legally entitled to aid or any person who shall apply for or receive aid under the provisions of this act when he or she is not legally entitled thereto because he or she has means of support or any person who shall sell any order issued to him or her by a County Assistance Board for cash or part cash or other consideration or sell any food clothing or fuel received for cash or other consideration shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or both at the discretion of the court

Section 8 The expenditures of County Assistance Boards shall be audited from time to time by the Auditor General in the same manner as other expenditures of Commonwealth moneys and copies of such audits shall be furnished to each board whose accounts have been audited and to the Governor The books papers records and documents of any county assistance board shall be open to inspection by taxpayers during business hours

Section 9 The act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws eighty-eight) entitled "An act creating the State Emergency Relief Board consisting of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor the Auditor General State Treasurer and the Speaker of the House of Representatives prescribing its powers and duties empowering the Governor to disburse moneys received from the Federal Government for the relief of the unemployed in accordance with plans adopted by the board and making an appropriation" is hereby repealed

Section 10 This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this bill also is a very bad bill. It has no regard for the governmental agency that the people have already created within their respective counties for the handling of governmental matters. This bill, should it become an Act of Assembly, would create an altogether new agency in each county for the administration of relief. I can be heartily in accord with the proposition of permitting the Governor to select two members of this Board, and the Judges of the county two members; but then, in the selection of the fifth member, this bill provides that he shall be the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners. Now, that may be perfectly all right in counties where the County Commissioners act as Poor Directors, but in counties where the Poor District is co-extensive with the county, then, I say, this bill is bad. The Poor Directors, who constitute the agency created by law for the purpose of handling matters of this nature, should be recognized in this new set-up; but this bill does not recognize them; and, I say, for that reason this bill is wrong. I contend that if there is to be a fifth member to this Board in counties where the Poor District is co-extensive with the county, the fifth member ought to be the Chairman of the Directors of the Poor, and not the Chairman of the County Commissioners.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I must take exception to the idea that the Chairman of the Poor Directors is the proper person to be the fifth member of this Board, because one of the things we want to do is to separate the idea of relief from Poor Relief, and keep the people from getting the idea our relief situation is going to be a permanent thing. I cannot agree with the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

However, I am opposed to this bill, in its present form, from another angle: I do not believe the Judges should be brought into it; I would rather see the Board composed of three members of the County Commissioners and two members appointed by the Governor, rather than as the bill is now drawn.

And the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 928 (House Bill No. 1082), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one and sections five six nine eleven and twelve as amended of the act approved the thirtieth day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 21), entitled "An act defining optometry and relating to the right to practice optometry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and making certain exceptions and providing a Board of Optometrical Education Examination and Licensure and means and methods whereby the right to practice optometry may be obtained and providing for the means to carry out the provisions of this act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said board and providing penalties for violations thereof and repealing all acts parts of acts inconsistent therewith" by further defining optometry prescribing the qualifications of schools and courses in optometry and further regulating the practice of optometry go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, for what purpose does the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, want this bill to go over in its order?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, I would say I am not satisfied with the bill in its present form. I know there are several matters that must be amended, because the brackets are not properly placed; and, also, it is not clear as to whether or not osteopaths would retain or be deprived of rights which they now have. My purpose is to consider amendments.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, very well.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears no objection, and the bill will go over in its order.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 407 (House Bill No. 851), entitled:

An Act to amend paragraphs one and two of section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 681) entitled "An act providing for the award of drill and service medals and bars to officers and enlisted men of the Pennsylvania National Guard imposing duties upon the Department of Military Affairs" altering qualification requirements for the award of such medals

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 2, line 4, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "summary" and insert in lieu thereof "summer;" also amend bill by adding the following: "Section 3. This act shall become effective on final passage."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE HOUSE TO RECALL CONCURRENT RESOLUTION (SERIAL NO. 198) FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HARRIS offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

In the Senate, May 7, 1935.

Whereas, The Senate on Monday, May 6, 1935, concurred in a concurrent resolution, bearing Serial No. 198, inadvertently and without appreciating the full purport and effect of the said resolution, and

Whereas, It is the sense of the Senate that said resolution may have effects and consequences not intended either by the framers of the resolution or by the Senate when it so concurred, now therefore

Be it Resolved, That it is the sense of this Senate that said resolution should receive the careful and deliberate consideration of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, and for that purpose the House of Representatives be and is hereby respectfully requested to take proper and appropriate action to recall the said resolution from the Governor for the purpose aforesaid.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HARRIS and Mr. BUCKMAN, and were as follows, viz:

Aron,	Graff,	Norton,	Rodgers,
Batchelor,	Harris,	Owlett,	Rupp,

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a very short question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, The action which the Senate has just taken this morning on a resolution passed last night, to my mind, justifies a great many objections which I have made to immediate consideration by this Senate of resolutions either coming from this floor or from the House, without proper consideration. I have always considered it a mistake to have a long, important resolution read from the desk, and because some certain Senator, or some certain group of Senators, may be interested in it, to have unanimous consent given by this body and have it passed, and then to have to be ashamed of our action, and take some action to recall it.

I was requested last night not to object to the immediate consideration of this resolution, and I did not do so for that reason, but I shall be very chary in the future in permitting resolutions of this kind to be passed by unanimous consent without committee action.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). In the consideration of this resolution last night, if I had not felt myself adequately informed as to the nature of the contents of the resolution, I can assure the Chair that I would either at that time have opposed immediate action, or would have voted "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Chair pauses to remark that every Senator in the Chamber acquiesced in the resolution last night.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 661 (House Bill No. 862), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to provide revenue by imposing a State tax upon sales of cigarettes by dealers as herein defined requiring persons engaged in the sale of cigarettes at wholesale and retail to secure permits prescribing the method and manner of collecting such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and persons as herein defined engaged in the sale of cigarettes at retail or wholesale and providing penalties go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 698 (House Bill No. 1267), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 665), entitled "An act authorizing boroughs to redeem outstanding bonds and for the purpose issue and sell new interest-bearing bonds and to provide a fund for the redemption thereof

SENATE BILL NO. 1015 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 1015, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, seven and eleven of the act, approved the seventh day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six (P. L. 7), entitled "An act to enable cities that are now, or may hereafter be, contiguous or in close proximity, to be united, with any intervening land other than boroughs, in one municipality; providing for the consequences of such consolidation, the temporary government of the consolidated city, payment of the indebtedness of each of the united territories, and the enforcement of debts and claims due to or from each," by requiring a majority vote in each city and in the intervening land voting on the question of consolidation and extending the provisions of said act to pending proceedings with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bills.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows:

Amend title page 1 by adding after the word "consolidation" the following: "and extending the provisions of said act to pending proceedings"; also page 4 by inserting after line 5 the following: "Section 2 This act shall apply to all proceedings pending in courts of quarter sessions for the consolidation of cities at the time this act becomes effective Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 990 (House Bill No. 1631) on third reading, entitled:

An Act to provide revenue by imposing a State excise tax upon certain gifts as herein defined made within this Commonwealth or of property situated therein providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the disposition of the revenue derived therefrom imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain persons associations partnerships corporations and State departments and imposing penalties.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. COYNE from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION REFEREE

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 1, 1935.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following appointment to compute from the date of confirmation:

William A. Walker, of Warren, Warren County, as a Workmen's Compensation Referee, vice G. Scott Smith, removed from office, to serve until the third Tuesday of January, 1939, or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

MOTION FOR EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. SONES.

That Rule 38, which requires nominations made by the Governor to lie on the table one day be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the foregoing nomination.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. OWLTT. Mr.President, I move that the nomination just reported be laid on the table.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would like to make a parliamentary inquiry to ask if this nomination will not lie over for another day without a vote.

The PRESIDENT. This nomination was favorably reported, and immediate action can be had.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I make the point that we had already gone into Executive Session, and there is nothing before the House except voting on the report made by the Committee.

The PRESIDENT. The motion was made and seconded, but it was not put before the House, and it was not voted on.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I submit that a motion was before the House. It was moved and seconded, and nothing else could take its place. That is the motion before the House.

The PRESIDENT. The motion before the House was to suspend Rule 38, and go into Executive Session for the purpose of advising and consenting to the nomination. Before that motion was put, there was a motion made that the nomination lie on the table. I think, in strict parliamentary sense, the motion to suspend the rule and go into Executive Session would have priority.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, I desire to call the attention of the Senate to Rule 38 of Rules of the Senate, which provides:

"When nominations shall be made by the Governor to the Senate, they shall after being read by the Chief Clerk, without a motion, be referred by the presiding officer to appropriate committee, and after having been reported by the committee, the final question on every nomination shall be: 'Will the Senate advise and consent to this nomination'? Which question shall not be put on the day on which the nomination or nominations are reported from committee, unless by unanimous consent."

In this connection, I want to say that it has been the custom of the Chair in this and previous Sessions to entertain a motion to suspend Rule 38, whereas, it should be done by unanimous consent, unless by a two-thirds vote of the Senate to suspend that rule.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). It is still quite obvious that the motion before this House is a motion to suspend this rule to consider the nomination. It hardly seems to me in order at all to lay the nomination on the table, when a motion is before the House to suspend the rule.

MOTION FOR EXECUTIVE SESSION WITHDRAWN

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I beg leave to withdraw my motion to suspend Rule 38 and go into Executive Session.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, withdraws his motion to suspend Rule 38 and go into Executive Session.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Baumer, withdraw his second?

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I do.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to suspend Rule 38 and go into Executive Session is withdrawn.

NOMINATION RECOMMITTED

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that this nomination be recommitted to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion is agreed to.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FREY read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1286, entitled:

An Act to amend section three, as amended, and section five of the act approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 395), entitled "An act regulating the sale of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, also of condimental stock and poultry-food and patented proprietary or trade-mark stock and poultry-food, possessing nutritive value combined with medicinal properties; defining concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs; prohibiting the adulteration of any feeding-stuffs, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in this State, with oat hulls, ground corn cobs, flax plant refuse, elevator chaff, cotton-seed hulls, ground corn stalks, rice hulls, peanut hulls, weed seeds, or other similar adulterants: providing for the collection of samples and analysis thereof by the Department of Agriculture, and the publication of information concerning the same; providing also for the expenses of the enforcement of the law, fixing penalties for its violation, and repealing act number two hundred and eleven (P. L. 1907, page 273), entitled 'An act regulating the sale of wheat-, rye-, corn-, and buckwheat-bran and middlings, or any admixture thereof,' et cetera, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven," further prescribing what may be mixed and sold under the provisions of the act.

Which was committed to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BAUMER read in place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1287, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand twenty-five of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," as amended, authorizing the Secretary of Revenue in certain cases to offer and pay rewards for information resulting in the arrest and conviction of hit and run drivers, and requiring such drivers to pay the amount of such rewards in addition to the existing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SORDONI read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1288, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirteen of an act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 468) entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, two Deputy State Highway Commissioners, chief engineer, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining their duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county-seats; principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State Highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State Highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State Highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State Highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State Highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work to be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; defining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement, maintenance and repair of township, or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions, providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county, township, borough, or incorporated town, and requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs, and incorporated town with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State Highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State Highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not effected by provisions of this act," as amended, requiring an additional bond conditioned on the payment of rentals for construction and dirt removing equipment and tools.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. GELDER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1289, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for unemployment relief.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SALUS from the Committee on Law and Order reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1049, entitled:

An Act to amend clauses (i) and (l) of section two, and section three of the act, approved the nineteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six (P. Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CAVALCANTE offered the following resolution which was twice read considered and agreed to:

Whereas, The Finance Committee of the Senate has had in its possession House Bill No. 838 since March 26th; House Bill No. 864 since March 11th and House Bill No. 1127 since March 20th, 1935; and

Whereas, These respective bills have to do, respectively, with the repeal of the present tax exemption of manufacturing corporations; a tax on chain stores, and an increase in the present rate of taxation on gross receipts of public utilities; and

Whereas, The prompt enactment of these bills is essential and necessary to the end that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall be in position to contribute its share towards the relief of the people of Pennsylvania and thereby prevent untold hardship and suffering; and

Whereas, The Finance Committee of the Senate has had sufficient time to study these House Bills thoroughly and adequately; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Finance Committee of the Senate is respectfully requested to report said House Bills No. 838, No. 864 and No. 1127 not later than Wednesday, May 8, 1935.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection. The Resolution, which is a request for action by the Finance Committee is referred to the Committee on Finance.

The House met at 11:00 A. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Marshall L. Shepard, a member of the House offered the following prayer:

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethen to dwell together in unity. Our father who art eternally one, we pray Thee that Thou wouldst grant to us a sense of common responsibility as members of this General Assembly.

In all of our differences over methods and manner of approach to our various problems we pray Thee that we may be ever guided by a sense of responsibility to the people of this Commonwealth.

We pray Thee that we may ever keep uppermost in our minds those principals of right, truth and justice with which we must never in Thy sight make compromise.

Bless, we pray Thee, the Governor of the Commonwealth, the Speaker of this House and all of the members according to our several needs.

These and all other blessings we ask in His name and for His sake. Amen.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in in this case dispensed with

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1778, entitled:

An Act to protect the owners of mortgaged property during the present emergency by restricting the right to proceed against certain property and limiting the time within which deficiency judgments may be proceeded for and limiting the amounts thereof during a certain period

The first, second, third, fourth ,fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth sections were separately read and agreed to as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all cases where a bond and mortgage is or has been given for the same debt the real property bound by such bond and mortgage shall first be proceeded against and sold on execution and the amount of the deficiency judgment ascertained as hereinafter provided before any other property real or personal of the mortgage debtor may be levied on or sold for the debt secured by such bond and mortgage

In every such case where a single mortgage binds more than one parcel of real property and one or more but not all of such parcels have been sold on execution on the foreclosure of the mortgage or on the judgment entered on any obligation secured by the mortgage no further execution shall issue on such foreclosure or judgment against the remaining parcels so bound until the amount of the deficiency judgment has been determined as hereinafter provided

Section 2 In all cases where a bond and mortgage is or has been given for the same debt and the real estate is sold on the foreclosure of the mortgage or on the judgment entered on any obligation secured by the mortgage if the real estate shall not sell for a sum sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs then it shall be lawful to proceed for the deficiency that shall be determined in the manner hereinafter set forth

judgment entered on any obligation secured by the mortgage and the sum for which such property was sold is not sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs including taxes the plaintiff and use plaintiff shall within six months after such sale petition the court out of which such writ of execution issued to fix the fair value of the property sold at the time of such sale Notive of the presentation of such petition shall be given to the defendant or defendants and to all parties whose interests appear of record and to all persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt at least ten days prior to the date of the intended presentation of such petition to the court Such petition shall be heard by a judge of such court sitting without a jury or may by rule adopted by such court be referred to a master for hearing and determination subject to confirmation by the court Provided that the fee of any such master shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars ($100) nor the costs of any proceeding before a master the sum of fifty dollars ($50) And provided further That if the plaintiff or use plaintiff in his petition shall have averred his inability to defray the fees and costs of such proceeding before a master then a master shall not be appointed

Section 4. At all such hearings any party in interest may introduce in evidence testimony of the fair value of the premises sold at the time of the sale In the event the fair value is greater than that for which the property was sold the amount of such fair value and not the price for which the property was sold shall be deducted from the amount of the judgment interest and costs including taxes and a deficiency judgment entered for the balance

Section 5. If the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall fail to present such petition within six months after such sale the prothonotary shall upon application of the defendant or any person bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt enter satisfaction of such judgment Such satisfaction shall have the effect of terminating as well as liability of all persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt and the court shall have the power to make proper orders and decrees for cancellation of such liability and the surrender of any obligation evidencing such liability

Section 6 The defendant in the foreclosure proceeding or judgment or the real owner of the property sold or any other person or persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt or other person in interest may at any time after the sale petition the court in like manner to fix the fair value of the property sold at the time of the sale and in such case shall give notice of the presentation of such petition to the plaintiff and use plaintiff at least ten days prior to its presentation to the court whereupon the court shall determine the fair value in the same manner as heretofore provided in the case of a petition by the plaintiff or use plaintiff

Section 7 In either case whether the petition is presented by the plaintiff or use plaintiff or by the defendant or any other party in interest any party may during the period of notice required by this act demand a jury trial whereupon the fair value of the property at the time of the sale shall be fixed by a jury trial as in other cases

Section 8 This act is an emergency measure under the police power of this Commonwealth

Section 9 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 10 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby suspended during the period this act shall remain in effect

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 13, page 11, line 21, by inserting after the word "commissioner" the following "or the chief clerk of the commission"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

Amend Sec. 13, page 12, line 10, by striking out the words "a registrar" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "two registrars"

Amend Sec. 13, page 12, line 16, by inserting after the word "fourth" the following: "Of the two registrars who shall sit in each election district prior to September fourth in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, one shall be a member of the party polling the highest vote within the election district at the preceding November election, and the other shall be a member of the party polling the second highest vote within the election district at such election. Such registrars shall be appointed by the commission for the year of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and shall hold office only during such year. No person shall be so appointed unless his name is suggested in writing by the county chairman of the party which is entitled to a registrar in such district as herein provided, unless the county chairman of the proper party fails to make such suggestion on or before July fifteenth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, in which case the commission may appoint any qualified person."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the third class cities permanent registration bill. It was introduced by Senator Reed of Dauphin County, passed the Senate and is now on second reading in the House.

The amendments which have been proposed by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, as I understand them, merely provide that instead of one registrar for one year after the bill goes into effect, there shall be two registrars. We feel that this is not necessary, that it will be an unnecessary expense to have two registrars, and that one of them can do the job efficiently. We, therefore, feel that the House should vote down these amendments.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, members of the House, I appeal to you to support this amendment. In third class cities at the present time there are two registrars in each precinct. This amendment, as the gentleman from Dauphin has just stated, applies only for the first year, when the registrars are making up what is to be the basis of the permanent registration lists. It has required two registrars to do this work heretofore.

Under this act, which is before you, if you will refer to the bottom of page 15, you will see that the registrar is required to record the information concerning each voter in permanent writing or typewriting in duplicate on cards. On other words, two cards have to be filled out and signed by the voter. If it has required two registrars in the past to do this work, it certainly will take two of them for the first year. After you once get your list made up, of course it will not be necessary, because the few that have changed or moved can easily be taken care of by one registrar, or by going to the County Commissioner's office.

This act does not go into effect until July 1st, and there are only to be three registration days, and it will be utterly impossible in many of the large districts in cities of the third class, like Reading, where there are seven, eight or nine hundred people to be registered, for one person to do the job in one day. It will take two persons working full time. Also, the amendment provides for majority and minority representation. The bill as proposed by the Senator from Dauphin would only have one party represented. By putting in two registrars, you will have the minority and majority parties represented, which you have had in the past.

These amendments will get the third class city representation started off on the right foot, and I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on these amendments.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, members of the House, for the cause of good clean government, we believe that the minority should be represented at all times. Therefore, we will ask the members to vote "aye" on these amendments, so that both the minority and majority may be represented.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for and ninety members having voted in the affirmative and forty-two in the negative the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fourteenth section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 14 Registration Cards Preparation and Distribution (a) For the purpose of registering the qualified electors of each city the commission shall prepare registration cards serially numbered in duplicate and containing spaces for entering the information required by section eighteen of this act and the following affidavit

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Secretary-elect of Internal Affairs will take charge of his office in a few minutes. It has been customary heretofore to give the members an opportunity to go over and congratulate the new official on taking office. As the present Secretary of Internal Affairs has many friends in this House, the Chair has decided to declare a recess at this time for about fifteen minutes, in order to give the membership an opportunity to walk over to the Department of Internal Affairs and congratulate Mr. Logue on assuming office.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the Chair will now declare a recess for fifteen minutes. The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 12:15 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 12:15 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Wilson G. Sarig) in the Chair.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE TRANSPORTATION RATES ON BITUMINOUS COAL

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the provisions of Resolution No. 136, Printer's No. 812, the Chair appoints the following committee to investigate transportation rates on bituminous coal: Messrs. Haluska, Dent, John E. Brown, Stewart, Shugarts, Arnold and Schrock.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. PIOLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2356, entitled:

An Act requiring the Commonwealth and all of its departments boards and commissions all State institutions all school districts and all institutions and agencies of every kind that receive appropriations from the State in making purchases to purchase articles produced manufactured made milled or mined in this Commonwealth regulating bids for contracts and prescribing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Commonwealth and all of its departments boards and commissions all State institutions all school districts and all institutions and agencies of every kind that receive appropriations from the State shall when making any purchases whether direct or by contract purchase articles of every description produced manufactured made milled or mined in this Commonwealth Provided That such articles can be had at no increase in price over the price for which the same articles from without the Commonwealth can be purchased

Section 2 All bids on contracts to furnish any article or for work including the furnishing of materials shall separately specify the price for articles or materials produced manufactured made milled or mined in this Commonwealth and for those from without the Commonwealth Provided That in all cases the articles or materials furnished must meet the requirements of specifications

Section 3 In the case of manufactured articles the place where the same is assembled or made into the form in which it is supplied shall govern and not the place where the component parts or any of them are produced manufactured made milled or mined

Section 4 Any person making a purchase or executing a contract in violation of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000)

Section 5 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill as a matter of information?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say to the gentleman from Franklin that I had a similar resolution or bill in mind, and that I talked the matter over with the Department of Property and Supplies. May I ask if they are in favor of this bill? I ask the question because they feel that it might cause retaliation on the part of other states that now give preference to Pennsylvania in the case where price and quality are equal.

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, I would say that I have not taken this matter up with the Department of Property and Supplies. I do fully realize that the Department of Property and Supplies do give preference to Pennsylvania products at the present time. However, there are a large number of other institutions, who are in our Commonwealth such as public schools, which are operated by state funds, and local tax funds coming from local taxpayers, and there are some who do not give preference to Pennsylvania products, even when they can be purchased at the same rate or even a less amount than the other products manufactured in some other state.

Mr. SPROUL. The reason I raise the point, Mr. Speaker, is because we in Pennsylvania believe we ship more to other states on the same basis than the amount of material that comes into our public institutions. Would it not be well to talk this matter over with that department or some other department rather than pass this bill without question?

Mr. MOOMAW. In other words, Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman desire that it be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. SPROUL. I think it would be better.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

(d) All petitions filed under this section shall be in such form as the board shall prescribe

(e) The action of the board on all petitions filed under this section shall be final

Section 505 State Depositories The Board of Finance and Revenue shall have the power and its duty shall be

(a) To select and designate as depositories for the State moneys banks banking institutions or trust companies which are subject to national or State supervisions and each of which

1 Has made written application to the State Treasurer for a deposit of State moneys designating the amount of deposit solicited and accompanying its application by a written statement showing the amount of its capital actually paid in the amount of its surplus the number of its stockholders and whether its stock is well distributed or largerly held by a few individuals and the length of time that said institution has been engaged in business under its charter Each such statement shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the president cashier or trust officer as the case may be and the State Treasurer shall present the same to the board for its consideration within thirty days after the receipt thereof

2. Shall upon the receipt of notice of its selection as a depository of State moneys furnished a bond to secure payment of deposits and interest to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with a proper warrant of attorney to confess judgment in favor of the Commonwealth secured by a surety company or individual sureties to be approved by the board in the amount of the deposit to be made If a corporate bond be given no one surety company shall be approved in an aggregate amount in excess of five times its capital surplus and reserve and whenever individual sureties are presented for approval they shall qualify in an aggregate over and above their individual liabilities to three times the amount of the deposit No one person may qualify for more than one-fourth of the total amount of the bond required Provided that when any deposit of State moneys is insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Commissioner or any other corporation hereafter organized by the United States for the purpose of insuring deposits such depository shall not be required to furnish bond or security to cover the amount of such deposit so insured And provided further That in lieu of the surety bonds of surety companies or of individuals as aforesaid the deposit of State moneys may be secured by the deposit with the State Treasurer of Bonds of the United States the Delaware River Joint Commission bonds of this Commonwealth or any municipal subdivision or county thereof [United States municipal or county bonds] to be approved by the board in an amount measured by their actual market value equal to the amount of deposit so secured and twenty per centum in addition thereto Said bonds shall be accompanied by proper assignment or power of attorney to transfer the same and said trust deposit of securities shall be maintained on request at the amount aforesaid in case of any depreciation in the value thereof

3 Shall agree to pay interest upon all State deposits at the rate to be fixed every six months by the Board of Finance and Revenue having due regard to the then prevailing money market The said board may fix different rate of interest for active and inactive depositories and may adopt and promulgate rules governing the time when interest shall begin to run on deposits of uncollected items The board shall fix the specific day [of] on which any change in interest rates shall become effective and shall notify in writing every depository of such change and the effective date thereof Pending action by the board the interest rates heretofore fixed by law shall remain in force All collections shall be made for the Commonwealth without cost or compensation

(b) To select as depositories for State funds private banking institutions located and doing business in this Commonwealth if such private banking institutions shall file a statement in writing with the board and the Department of Banking agreeing that they will subject themselves to the same supervision in all respects including an examination by the bank examiners of the Department of Banking at any time as banks banking institutions or trust companies which are depositories of State funds and if and after compliance with the conditions required of any other depository

(c) To designate two banks or trust companies in Dauphin County two banks or trust companies in Allegheny County two banks or trust companies in Philadelphia County and three banks or trust companies in [other parts] any part of the Commonwealth to be known as active depositories in which shall be deposited a sufficient amount of the daily receipts of the State Treasury to transact the current business of the Commonwealth The board may designate two other banks or trust companies located anywhere in [any of the counties above mentioned or in any other county of] the Commonwealth to be known as active depositories and to be used for the purpose above mentioned

(d) To see that no bank banking institution or trust company except those designated as active depositories shall receive a deposit of State moneys in excess of twenty-five per centum of its paid-in capital and surplus or have at any one time an aggregate of deposits in excess of five hundred thousand dollars Provided however that in the case of any particular depository these limitations may be waived by the Board of Finance and Revenue so as to permit the State Treasurer to deposit State moneys not in excess of one million dollars in any bank institution or trust company designated as an inactive depository

(e) To see that the combined deposits in the active depositories shall not exceed at any time such total sum as it shall by resolution have prescribed

(f) In case it is of the opinion that the credit of any depository is impaired the safety of the State deposits imperiled or for any other cause whatsoever to require the State Treasurer to reduce change or wholly withdraw within thirty days any deposit or deposits held by any such depository of State moneys

(g) Whenever it is considering applications for State deposits to invite the Secretary of Banking to sit with and advise the board The Secretary shall however not vote on any question coming before the board

Section 1702 Failure of Corporation Association Exchange or Person to make Bonus or Tax Reports on Time If any corporation association exchange or person or the officer or officers of any corporation association or exchange shall neglect or refuse to furnish to the Department of Revenue within the time prescribed by law or any extension thereof granted by the Department of Revenue any bonus or tax report required by section seven hundred six seven hundred seven seven hundred eight seven hundred ten seven hundred thirteen seven hundred fourteen seven hundred sixteen or seven hundred twenty of this act it shall be the duty of the Department of Revenue to add to the bonus or tax of such corporation association exchange or person for each and every tax period for which such report was not so furnished the following percentages which shall be collected with the bonus or tax in the usual manner of settling and collecting such bonus or tax

On the first one thousand dollars of bonus or tax ten per centum on the next four thousand dollars five per centum and on everything in excess of five thousand dollars one per centum

Section 2 It is the intention of the General Assembly that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding unconstitutional any part or parts thereof the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part or parts held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 3 This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 9, Printer's No. 696, on page 20, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. TURNER.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 9 entitled

An Act to amend clause I of section seven hundred and two of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred three) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" authorizing townships to light the streets highways and public places and to provide for fire hydrants and hose and to pay for the same from revenues derived from the general road tax

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the gentleman from Delaware if he has estimated the cost of this additional service, which he asks to be rendered by the local taxpayers.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, of course I could not estimate the cost to any local taxpayer, because it would depend entirely upon whether second class townships decided to have lights; whether they decided to have water; how many fire plugs they might want to put in; how many street lights they might want to put in. It is entirely a local question and entirely in the hands of the local people.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I was not so much interested in the costs to any certain local taxpayer, but is it not possible to estimate the cost over the entire state, approximately.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, it would not be possible to estimate the cost over the entire state in any way, because A township might decide to have it and X, Y and Z and all the rest of them might decide not to have it. It would be impossible in the second case, in any way to determine how far the local authorities might want to go in lighting and setting up fire plugs.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Of course it would be necessary to know the number of villages and public places in the state, and we could consider that everyone of the occupants of those villages or public places would be perfectly satisfied to have a fire plug and the advantages of electric lights, as it was not going to cost them anything but the cost would apply to the local taxpayers, although they would receive no benefit.

I have estimated, just a rough estimate from the best information that I have, that it would cost between twenty-five and thirty million dollars to the local taxpayers of the state of Pennsylvania. Of course, that is only an approximation, but I believe my figures are low enough. Now, in these times, I would ask that no additional cost be placed on the local taxpayers. We have in the state of Pennsylvania a great many corporation towns, coal towns and places of that kind, that could compel the local taxpayer, probably twenty-five miles away, to put in fire plugs in their towns and furnish electric light.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am perfectly willing to be further interrogated, although I think the gentleman would be far better off if he made that as a speech.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I quite agree with the gentleman. I forgot myself.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the gentleman from Delaware: Do you live in the country or in the city?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I live in a second class township, in the country. I am a farmer.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman live in a village?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I say I live in the country.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, before the gentleman asks Mr. Turner any more questions, I think we had better stop.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I was just about to inquire if the gentleman has a fireplug? Does the gentleman have an electric light?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Washington, I would say that I do not personally have a fireplug. There is a fireplug within six hundred feet of my home, which is a requirement of the fire underwriters.

I might say that there is an electric light in front of my house, for which I have been paying personally for a period of twelve years, and the occupants of that house have probably paid for it for a period of thirty years.

If this bill is passed, I will say, frankly, that I am in the hope that the township will take over that light.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, that is just what I wanted to get at. I have electric lights in front of a small property, and I believe it costs me between ten and fifteen dollars. I can have the light discontinued at any time, but at the present time my tenants want it and I am satisfied to pay for the light, without expecting the taxpayers to pay for it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, that is where we differ.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, then I would ask the members of the House if they would please vote against this bill. I don't think the tax payers should stand this additional cost at the present time.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to take up any more time of the House than I can help on what seems to me to be a very simple and a very plain little bill.

I live in a second class township. There are a great many residences and where the people would like to have electric light and fire protection throughout the township, and this bill which is now before you, was introduced by me at the request of the township supervisors and at the instance and the demand of the people of the township. Of course, if you are going to figure the cost to the people of Pennsylvania upon the basis that Mr. Brown figures it, you can start out by figuring it in every bill that is passed, by multiplying the number of third class cities or the boroughs or townships in the state and what those boroughs, townships or cities might do if given permissive legislation and we might multiply it until it became such a staggering sum that we would never pass anything.

This is merely a permissive bill which does not in any way compel any second class township to light up their streets or to put in fire protection.

In the cities we have permission for council to do these things and councils do them where they are demanded. In the boroughs we have the permission of the councils of the boroughs to put in electric lights and to supply fire protection through fire hydrants, and where they are needed in the boroughs they do it.

In your first class township you give to your township commissioners the authority to put in lights and to put in fire hydrants and fireplugs where they are needed. This is purely a home rule proposition. It merely goes a step further in your second class townships and permits your second class townships to do the same thing you are permitted to do in your cities, your boroughs and your townships.

If you can't trust your supervisors, if the people in a local community can't control them, whether they are going to expend the money for lighting for fireplugs, that is an entirely different community from any I have ever seen in the state of Pennsylvania, and I do not see any reason why because there might be that condition in a particular community, if they don't want it, they can simply say to their supervisors, "We won't stand for it," and you won't have it. But there are communities where we would like to have it.

Let us have the opportunity in our community. This is a permissive bill.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, in all coal mining towns which are lit up now by power supplied by the coal operators, under this act if they chose and voted to have public lighting in the township and a fire hydrant system, would the local taxpayers be compelled to pay for that service in that particular instance?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would say that under this act they would. When the gentleman from Westmoreland calls them coal mining towns, I assume he means the corporation towns where a large industry or where a coal mine supplies the light to that community at this time, I rather imagine that most of the taxes of that community are paid by the company.

Mr. DENT. Not any more, Mr. Speaker. There are a lot of private homes now in coal mining towns.

Under this act would it be possible for a hamlet, for a small village in a second class township to have lights at the expense of a farmer living at a remote distance from that particular village?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think it would.

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, under the guise of home rule, we often pass a lot of acts that we think are justified, but in your particular boroughs today they have this so-called privilege as Mr. Turner has stated to the House, if they vote to have the electric light and fire hydrants and so on. The people living within that borough, can have fire hydrants, water service and electric light service where the utility company can get enough profit on its investment to put that service into the outlying districts of the borough. They would have the same privileges in the townships, and the farmer who lives at a distance out in the country wouldn't have any more chance of getting electric light or fire service under the present act than he has today without any act. We have on numerous occasions to petition the Public Service Commission to enable us to have particular streets in a borough given water service by the company who renders water service in that borough. However, because of the fact that they have spent so much money for pipe lines and so forth for this particular street, if they don't get the required six per cent they won't give the service. I can see very readily that under this act the only person who would benefit most would be the fellows who live in or near the small village, and the man who is supposed to be for home rule for a township, who lived some distance out in the township would not get any benefits at all. I do not think it is fair to the farmer or to the person who lives any distance at all from the small village and I would ask you to vote "no."

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, would it not tend to increase the tax on real estate in the second class townships if this measure is made a law?

Mr. TURNER. Of course, every service of government that may be imposed increases the burden, and therefore, may in the end increase taxes. I think that is something this House ought to bear in mind in passing legislation.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me whether or not the utility companies are for or against this measure?

Mr. TURNER. I don't know, Mr. Speaker. I never discussed it with any utility men.

Mr. REISING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House in my mind at this time and age when economic pressure is heavy on real estate taxpayers, I feel that we should use discretion in passing laws that would set up arrangements whereby the burden of taxation on the real estate owner may be made more unbearable than it is at the present time. As I see it I feel there should be no measure in the burden of the already over-burdened taxpayer in this state and we should vote this measure down at this time.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would just like to answer the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, on two propositions.

In the first place, as I understand the law if a township decides to put in street lights, a public utility must carry the lines no matter where they go. It is not a question of the cost in the original erection of the line. In the second place—and this also is for Mr. Reising—that while there may be an increase in cost in one sense, a great deal would depend upon the budget of the municipality, just like a borough or a township. On the other hand you must remember that there would be a reduction and a great reduction in the fire insurance costs of the community that has fire hydrants. In other words, the classification for rate purposes is much lower in the communities where you can get a fire hydrant within a certain number of feet of a dwelling or other buildings than there is in a community that is absolutely unprotected and there would be a saving in costs in the respect to the local taxpayer in that respect.

Just one other thing that occurs to me. The gentleman from Westmoreland referred to one part of a township being lighted or having service while the other part would not. Well, that might be true in any borough, that might be true in any first class township, that might be true in a third class city and yet you pass laws giving them the power to light their streets and put in fire hydrants, and if that is true in those communities, I cannot see how logically you can stand here and argue against this privilege being given to second class townships.

I repeat that it is merely permissant; it merely gives the opportunity to put in lights or fire hydrants if they so desire, and I don't believe that any set of supervisors are going to increase taxes today. If they can't keep within their millage, they won't do it—they certainly won't increase them.

Therefore, I think this bill ought to pass.

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if he considers this is a good bill?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has asked whether I consider this a good bill. I might say to the gentleman from Lehigh that I would not have introduced it if I had not thought it was a good bill.

Mr. RINN. Then, Mr. Speaker, I am for it.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Delaware?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware if there is anything now to hinder any borough or second class township from introducing or instituting electric lights or water plugs without any law if they so see fit? Is there anything to prevent that?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, under the present law, the township supervisors may create a light or a fire district and they may assess the cost of the lights or of the water for fireplugs against abutting property owners along the streets within that district.

Now that might answer one of the things that did not occur to me when I was being interrogated by the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, when he was talking about company towns. They could give the town authority to create an electric light or fire district and levy a special assessment which would be collected by the tax collector with his other taxes.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I just want to make one thing clear or to get it clear in my head. Why do you need this bill when you now can do just what this bill stipulates you can do? The reason I am asking it is this, if this bill passes the people will have to petition against it, while if this bill is not enacted they will have to petition for it when they want it. That is the question I want to have cleared up if I can.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, — —

REMARKS OF HON. THOMAS A. LOGUE, SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The SPEAKER. The Clair requests the Secretary of Internal Affairs, Hon. Thomas A. Logue, to address the House for a few moments.

Mr. LOGUE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I thank you very much for the privilege and opportunity of standing here before you. I have not yet found out what the Department of Internal Affairs consists of, but if and when I do find out, I want to say that those on this side of the House as well as my many good friends on the Republican side of the House will be one hundred percent welcome. I want to see you all. We can all work together, Republicans and Democrats, to put this old State in the position it belongs, the first Commonwealth of the United States.

On the question, recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware has the floor.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I really wanted the opportunity of yielding the floor to the Secretary of Internal Affairs and I now yield it to the gentleman from Erie, Mr. McCreary to see if he has any further questions he wants to ask.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I think the interference sort of interfered with the completion of the answer.

Mr. TURNER. Then, Mr. Speaker, if I may be permitted to answer the question, as I understand it, under the present law the township supervisors may set up light or fire districts and they may levy a tax against property in those specific districts upon petition of the people of those districts so that if you have them in your company towns, incorporated towns and villages, you can still do it. The objection to that as we found it in our locality is that you get a few recalcitrants along the street who won't agree, they hang up all the rest of their neighbors and all the rest of the people, because they won't agree to go along, and, therefore, it makes it very difficult at times.

In the second place, it means the levying of a specific amount against the number of front feet of property which is also difficult and causes a great amount of dissatisfaction among the people. As I say, the people in the boroughs never hesitate, they never think about the street lights. If they live on "X" street and there is no light there, they are down at council complaining that there is no light. Therefore, why shouldn't you in a township give them the same privilege, and I think the same thing would result?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, have I time for a short statement?

The SPEAKER. There is a bill under discussion now. We are on House Bill No. 9, Printer's No. 696.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that we ought to realize that the purpose back of this bill is excellent. It is workable in certain districts and there are other districts where it will not work, especially as the gentleman from Westmoreland has stated, in townships where you have coal mines and the coal companies furnish the light, heat and water. It would not be fair to tax the other residents of the township in that case, and for this reason I would suggest to the sponsor of this bill that he further postpone it to work out a solution rather than have a vote on it at this time.

Personally I will have to oppose the bill at this time although I feel there is some merit in it, and for that reason I suggest to the sponsor that he put this bill on the postponed calendar.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1962, Printer's No. 922, on page 10, of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Schwartz.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1962, entitled:

An Act to amend sections 1 and 2 as amended, sections 70 and 71, to repeal section 69 of, and to add Sections 1:1, 1:2, 1:3, 1:4, 1:5, 2:1, 2:2, 2:4, 2:5, 70:1, 70:2, 70:3 and, 73 to the act approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 680), entitled "An act providing for the examination, licensure, and registration of persons, firms, or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage, and prescribing certain rules, regulations, and requirements for the construction of plumbing, house drainage, and cesspools in cities of the first class, and imposing fines, penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof," further regulating the business and work of plumbing and house drainage in such cities and the examination, licensure and registration of those engaged in such business or work; creating the "Board of Plumbing Supervision of the Department of Health" therein, and giving them certain powers and duties relative thereto.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 4, line 13, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "December" and insert in lieu thereof "January"

Amend sec. 1, page 4, line 14, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the words "thirty-five" and insert in lieu thereof "thirty-six"

Amend sec. 2, page 6, line 11, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "recorder" and insert in lieu thereof "recorded"

Amend sec. 2, page 7, line 12, by inserting after the word "licensed" the following: "master plumber"

Amend sec. 4, page 15, line 4, by striking out the words "shall have the power to hear complaints made by licensed"

Amend sec. 4, page 16, line 19, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the figures "2.3" and insert in lieu thereof "2.4"

Amend Sec. 4, page 17, line 6, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "Healh" and insert in lieu thereof "Health"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

SENATE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented extracts from the Journal of the Senate which were laid upon the table.

CONGRATULATIONS EXTENDED TO HON. JOHN F. AND MRS. STONE

Mr. RUTH offered the following resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 7, 1935.

Happiness, that mystery of life for which individuals and peoples have striven from the inception of time, can be attained only through the harmonious companionship of man and woman in the status of recognized matrimony.

As the milestones of years since the day that made them one are passed, husband wife ever increasingly find in each other the consolation and companionship that alone made life worth while.

Fifty-two years ago today, our brother, Honorable John F. Stone of Potter County, became a benedict. The long continued period of that status bespeaks its happiness and the joy of man and wife well mated; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania pause in the midst of its serious tasks and responsibilities to pay homage to Honorable John F. Stone and Mrs. Stone, and to wish them a great many more years in which to demonstrate the verity of married bliss; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be presented to the newlyweds of more than half a century ago.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 79, Printer's No. 857, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraphs (a) and (b) of section three hundred and thirteen of the act approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 789), entitled "An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension, and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders, the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; providing penalties, and repealing existing laws," increasing the amount of reserve required of stock and mutual casualty insurance companies and exchanges for certain outstanding losses.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 7, 1935.

Whereas, the Senate on Monday, May 6, 1935, concurred in a Concurrent Resolution, bearing Serial No. 198, inadvertently and without appreciating the full purport and effect of the said Resolution, and

Whereas, it is in the sense of the Senate that said resolution may have effects and consequences not intended either by the framers of the resolution or by the Senate when it so concurred, and now therefor

Be it resolved, that it is the sense of this Senate that said resolution should receive the careful and deliberate consideration of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, and for that purpose the House of Representatives be and is hereby respectfully requested to take proper and appropriate action to recall the said resolution from the Governor for the purpose aforesaid.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

RESOLUTION POSTPONED

Mr. MOOMAW. Mr. Speaker, I move that action on this resolution of the Senate be postponed until the resolution, which was passed last night and concurred in by the Senate, has been printed so that each member may have a copy for the purpose of studying the same.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to concur in the motion, and may I suggest to the members of the House that the contents of the Momaw resolution, are so important that every member of the House ought to acquaint himself with the contents of that resolution.

I also ask the membership of the House to vote to defer action upon the Senate resolution seeking its recall until the resolution has been printed, so that every member can acquaint himself with the facts in connection therewith.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I fully concur in the motion, but I feel that I should say some think at this time to call attention to the fact that this resolution was passed last night without being read. Some of the "Whereas" clauses were read. When the vote was called for I jumped to my feet and addressed the Chair but I was not recognized and the motion was put through without anybody but the sponsor of the resolution knowing what was in it. I think it is a very good instance of haste making waste.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

GAVEL PRESENTED TO SPEAKER

Mr. YOURISHIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on behalf of the citizens of the anthracite region and especially of one of the nicest and sweetest little towns in the heart of that region, namely, Sugar Notch in Luzerne County, I wish to state that the citizens have observed with interest the way the Speaker of this House has presided over the deliberations of this body. The citizens of Sugar Notch traveled down into the bowels of the earth and secured there a piece of coal of a kind that can only be found in the state of Pennsylvania—nowhere else in the world. From that piece of coal they have machined a gavel that they wish to present to the Speaker of this House in the hope that he will continue to preside in his fair manner over this House for a good many years.

Mr. Speaker, there is only one more thing that the citizens want to say with reference to this gavel and that is, you do not use it in the manner that you have been using the gavel that is now on your desk, because if you do it will fly into a thousand pieces.

The SPEAKER. The Chair takes this opportunity to sincerely thank not only the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin, but also the citizens of Luzerne County who have been responsible for this gavel.

The Chair sincerely appreciates the kind remarks made by the gentleman from Luzerne County, Mr. Yourishin. The Chair would also state that he believes that this gavel came at a very opportune time since the other one is rapidly breaking. The Chair has come to the conclusion that it can now use both. When the House is in one of its restless moments he can use the ivory gavel, and perhaps when the House is in its more peaceful moments, he can use the gavel of coal.

The Chair perhaps should state at this time that the Chair may have been remiss in not congratulating the members on the splendid order they have maintained during a part of the time.

The Chair realizes that while the routine work of the session is going on, it is very tiresome and boresome for the members to sit in their seats. The Chair has sat in them during many sessions and he fully understands the problems of the members. However, there is always a tendency to scold rather than to compliment. The Chair is human and is no exception to that rule.

The Chair, however, in all fairness to the members, wishes to compliment them on the splendid order they have kept during a considerable part of the session. At times they have been restless and disorderly, and the Chair itself at times has been impatient.

The Chair again thanks not only the gentleman from Luzerne and the citizens of Luzerne County, and especially those from Sugar Notch, but the Chair also wishes to thank the members for the order which they have maintained when important legislation has been before the House.

SENATE MESSAGE

STATEMENT BY MR. WOODSIDE

Mr. Woodside asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker, before proceeding to speak on what I intend to speak about, I am reminded by the remarks that have been made by the Speaker of a gavel that was used during the session of 1923 when I was page to then Lieutenant-Governor, the Honorable David J. Davis, who had just returned from France. He, like our own Speaker, seemed to think that he was still driving stakes when he was using the gavel, and I recall that he broke three or four gavels, parts of which I still have in my home, and I was wondering how many our present Speaker would break and whether he would equal the record of the Honorable David J. Davis.

Mr. Speaker, I want to make a further statement. Last Tuesday afternoon there was a meeting called of the Commitee on Counties to consider a certain piece of legislation. At that meeting, if I recall rightly, there were seventeen members present, which was a rather large attendance, and certain action was taken on a certain measure for which the meeting was called. At that meeting the press accused the chairman of the committee of doing something which I think he did not do.

I do not think there is any member of this House on the Democratic side or the Republican side who will disagree with me when I say that the gentleman from Juniata, Mr. Hetrick, is one of the most sincere and one of the most honest members of this or any other body, and I think that they will agree with me that he has been perfectly fair and honest in every dealing as chairman of that committee.

To show you how easily a mistake can be made: In reference to the time of the committee meeting, one paper or group of papers which has been complaining that there was a misrepresentation as to the time of the meeting, and stated that that particular meeting would be held in the morning. That paper has also stated that a meeting would be called for the same purpose today and would be called at two o'clock. The paper also stated that that meeting which was called for today was called for eight o'clock. As a matter of fact, my understanding of it is that a meeting to consider a particular bill will be called this afternoon at three o'clock, and for that purpose I desire, Mr. Speaker, to interrogate the chairman of the Committee on Counties, the gentleman from Juniata Mr. Hetrick.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Juniata permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HETRICK. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, in order that there may be no misunderstanding by any of the members of the House, I now ask the gentleman when the Committee on Counties will meet for the purpose of considering the Moomaw-Moran bill.

Mr. HETRICK. Mr. Speaker, the clerk will announce in a very short time that the Committee on Counties will meet at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon to consider Bill No. 1373, the Moomaw-Moran bill.

Mr. WOODSIDE. What time did the gentleman say, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. HETRICK. Mr. Speaker, at 3 o'clock P. M. I think they have assigned us Room 325, but the clerk will verify that in a minute.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. ALEXANDER, from the Committee on Game reported as amended, House Bill No. 2315, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four hundred two and four hundred four as amended sections four hundred nine four hundred twenlve and sections five hundred twelve and seven hundred four as amended of th eact approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 359), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals, and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," prohibiting the breeding, selling, possessing and using of fitches or weasels for hunting purposes, providing for the licensure of persons breeding, selling, possessing and using fitches or weasels, and imposing additional penalties.

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. EROE, returned from the Committee on Municipal Corporations with the recommendation that it be re-referred to the Committee on Labor, House Bill No. 2253 entitled:

An Act requiring the Commonwealth, political subdivisions, persons, firms and corporations to stipulate, in specifications upon which contracts for the construction, alteration or repairs of any work or improvement are entered into, the minimum wages to be paid to laborers and mechanics; and providing for the stipulation of penalties in such contracts where such minimum wage stipulations are violated, and for the recovery of such penalties; and prescribing penalties.

The SPEAKER. The bill is now re-referred to the Committee on Labor.
